

BEST DRESSED DOG

Once upon a time I had a Scottish lad all clad in plaid.
When he was young I couldn't wait to change him to a fashion plate.

And so we worked year after year
to build his modeling career.
His runway strutting stole the show,
and soon his fame began to grow.

He set the bar, dressed to the nines,
while wearing top designer lines,
and very soon word got around about my Scottie fashion hound.

He won it all and then retired while in his prime and much admired.
These days he naps, still posed for sure,
in comfy collar and warm fur.

by Lee Netzler