

DEAR SANTA,

I've been good all year.
Now as the holidays draw near the dogs picked me to write to you
to tell you what we hope you'll do.
We'd like to name some gifts to pack
when you pick presents for your sack.

Bring biscuits, and red rubber Kongs.
A squeaky toy always belongs,
and Beggin' Strips make tasty eats
with rawhide sticks and liver treats.
Brink latex toys, a tug-rope knot
and all the Teddy Bears you've got.

We have been loyal, tried and true,
and now we are awaiting you
in hopes that when you visit here
you'll share your gifts and yuletide cheer.
We'll let you know all things are right
with "Happy Christmas and Good Night."
