

MESSAGE WAITING

The pets write this, the pets write that;
it's printed now on greeting cards.
We read from faithful dog and cat:
"Congratulations" and "Regards."

Some folks point out, I'm not surprised,
it makes our dogs more civilized.
I see their point, but must remark,
I like it better when they bark.

Cat lovers love to stroke cat fur;
much purring follows from such fuss,
but I'm no fan of feline purr:
I'd much prefer they E-Mail us.
