

NOSE THE WAY

Commanded by his sense of smell it's obvious things won't end well, because no matter where he goes he creates havoc with his nose.

No one should be the least surprised that when he is unsupervised he always leaves a first class mess resulting from his nosiness.

Instead of using eyes and ears he shuts out what he sees and hears, relying on his never-mind to navigate the daily grind.

by Lee Netzler