

Our Passions
(for MNK)

So stately are her classic lines, alluring are her curves, each image she creates entwines my mind and thrills my nerves.

How anxiously I wait to see her light and shadow schemes where each display of artistry fulfills my secret dreams.

And when her drawing ink has dried we share a sweet delight, our passions fully satisfied by dogs in black and white.

She sketches Scottish Terriers, and capturing them whole, she lets me see through eyes like hers inside the Scottie soul.
