

QUESTIONS

What kind of collar should I get?
Is nylon, cloth or leather best?
There really is no cause to fret;
in all of them he looks well-dressed.

I wondered whether I should buy a squeaky toy or rubber ball.
No need for me to specify;
he loves to play and likes them all.

Should daily walks be long or short?
It's no sense wasting time on talk.
There's just one answer to report;
he wants to go on every walk.

If he would use his canine voice
to tell us what he'd rather eat,
would he demand a healthy choice?
