

THE WHITE EYE

Well "GRRRR" your Grrrr, then let it be.
My mind's made up it will be done.
I never thought this would be fun,
and you know that you can't scare me.

It does no good to "White Eye" me,
so put your "devil look" away.
We come to grips; today's the day.
Of this I'm sure as I can be.

Won't help a bit to curl your lip.
There's no intimidating me.
You know what has to be will be.
Now give your paw. You need a clip.
