FROM THE EDITOR

I'm sure the question will arise as to the value of a specialized magazine as an advertising medium, as opposed to such mass media as daily newspapers and all-breed publications. You surely will agree that this is an age of specialization in every field, including the "dog game." Specialized publications, of which TERRIER TALK is one, are a primary requirement in marketing services, products . . . and dogs. We are the first to admit—we are not quite ready for the products field. Commercial advertising has basic requirements for which we are not quite ready. But the most important—your dogs—we ARE ready for.

Everyone must fully realize the business aspects of our chosen avocation, regardless of whether your operation is simply a litter or two a year or a full-scale kennel program. Part of this should be a down-to-earth system of advertising.

The problem to be considered next is WHERE to advertise and WHAT is the product you want to sell. First, you must decide whom you want to reach; and if you have show stock to sell or stud service to offer, your market is apparent. You are seeking those who will appreciate a good dog and would like to add show or breeding stock to his present operation. Who are these people? They are those who ARE or WILL BE reading TERRIER TALK . . . readers willing to pay a proper price for what they want. This is a concentrated market . . . with no wasted circulation. Remember . . . a TERRIER is a TERRIER, is a TERRIER!

It is unrealistic, however, to expect results from a single advertisement. It doesn't happen that way in ANY field. An advertisement placed advantageously, changed with continuity and meaning, stands a far better chance of paying dividends than any other way.

Successful breeders have worked out a system. Ask them! Most allow from $5 to $10 per puppy or stud service to be put back into future advertising. This is budgeted over a 12-month period. You have to plan ahead. Operators of successful programs are the first to acknowledge that such a thing cannot be profitable without advertising. We will gladly assist in any possible way to provide plans and layouts which will best satisfy your individual needs. Look at the ads already being presented. . . . Have you ever seen any more attractive? We try to please . . . and we can, given the opportunity.

While no publication could possibly make claim to satisfying all your needs, TERRIER TALK, devoted exclusively to TERRIERS, should be your base of promotion for your kennels.

And besides . . . we NEED your support! It takes a little to give a little. It takes a lot to GET a lot more. Think about it . . . and let us hear from you . . . soon.

Among the letters received, there have been several expressions of approval that the column is not confined solely to show reports. Of course, the GAZETTE covers the shows, but the winning exhibitors are gratified to read the results while they are still news. True, it is hard to glorify the reporting of show wins . . . nothing very exciting ever happens at Dog Shows, except for the winners.

This affords me an opportunity, long awaited, to share with other fanciers a classic bit of reporting of a show in England, written by the late Mrs. Dorothy Caspersz, and printed in the February 3, 1961, "OUR DOGS." It proves that ex-

GARLU CINDER BONNIE shown taking WB & BOS at Santa Ana on Sept. 23rd under judge Joseph Murphy, with Daisy Austad handling. "Bonnie," owned by Frances M. Moore, Long Beach, Calif., now only lacks one point to attain her title and become the seventh champion sired by Ch. Marlorain Dark Seal.

California boasted of a show a week in September. Available results from Glendale on Sept. 8th where Chris Shuttleworth judged an entry of 7 were: BEST OF BREED to Dr. & Mrs. Kenneth Grow's CH. GARLU HAGGIS BAGGIS (Ch. Marlorain Dark Seal—Ch. Garlu Merry Haggis), who went on to Group 3 handled by Daisy Austad. WD and BW to Mr. & Mrs. Lawrence Pearce's CRESCENT HILL RAMROD (Ch. Marlorain Imogene) while the Pearce's "RAMROD" gained WD and BW for the final points to the title, we understand.

At Santa Ana, Sept. 23rd, Joseph Murphy placed the 11 entries as follows: BEST OF BREED to "HAGGIS BAGGIS" and WB and BOS to Francis M. Moore's GARLU CINDER BONNIE, Ch. which took place over the Labor Day weekend. The first day at Redding, Calif., Judge Harriman had an entry of 16 Scotties and found as his Best of Breed, CH. MERRIE OAKS HARDTACK, owned by Mrs. E. F. Mansure and handled by Lena Kardos. Best Opposite to CH. SCOTSDALE SUNSHINE, the Carnation Farm entry handled by Bob Bartos. WD and BW to MERRIE OAKS TARTAN, also owned by Mrs. Mansure and handled by Kardos. We understand he finished for the title at this show. Reserve in Dogs to Reanda Royal Raven owned by Mrs. W. M. Robertson. WB to still another Mansure entry, MERRIE OAKS BLACK JOSIE, also shown by Kardos, making it almost a clean sweep. Reserve in Bitches to Gayclan Reanda Amanda owned by Gayclan Kennels.

Mr. E. E. Ferguson had the same number at Klamath Falls, Oregon, the next day. He switched the Breed and Opposite, giving "SUNSHINE" Best and "HARDTACK" Best Opposite. His placement in Bitches was the same, with "JOSIE" WB and "Amanda" Reserve. In Dogs, Winners to GARLU HEATHER LANCELOT, owned by Dr. & Mrs. A. Floyd Gardner, completing his championship, we understand. Reserve to Glenkerry's Mr. MacPherson, owned by Mr. & Mrs. W. H. Dunham.

The third show found Mr. F. W. Bilger doing the 16 entries at Medford, Oregon, giving Best of Breed to "SUNSHINE" and Opposite to "HARDTACK." The Bitches again were placed the same as the previous two days, and this finished Mrs. Mansure's MERRIE OAKS BLACK JOSIE. WD to REANDA ROYAL RAVEN, and Reserve to Frangan Counselor.

"I am the un-named Scottie breeder mentioned in the September issue as advertising a 'rare miniature' puppy. I shall not reply to all the remarks made by your columnist but will say that there is no cause for worry about being besieged with calls for such a pup. The general public was supremely indifferent to the ad which was noted only by certain breeders with much time on their hands.

"The entire matter is one of semantics. I described the puppy according to the meaning of words as defined in Webster's International dictionary: RARE: Seldom met with or occurring; unusual; infrequently seen. MINIATURE: A representation on a much reduced scale; a small copy.

"The different interpretations people put on words has always been a major problem in human communication and this matter is an excellent example of it."
