GROOMING AND CONDITIONING THE SCOTTIE

PART VI

By Ann Gilkey

The last article in this series is presented mainly to help you solve some of the many problems which plague any breed of dog, namely those problems of the legs, and the movement which accompanies any faults in this area.

In Scotties, as in most terrier breeds, the bones of the legs should be ample, with no indication of "fineness." Scotties in particular, being a low, well-built breed, should carry ample bone and substance both in body and legs. Unfortunately, not all Scots are blessed with this quality, and we must try to create this "illusion" of substance in our grooming and trimming, if "Mack" is finer in bone than desired. This can only be accomplished by grooming the leg furnishings, fore and aft, in such a manner that they are at all times, dense and full, compensating as much as possible for any lack of bone.

In trimming the forelegs, we must try to create the illusion of a straight front, with feet well covered and blending evenly into the leg furnishings. Even the most perfect front, improperly trimmed, may create an undesirable illusion, as is illustrated in Figure 1 of Diagram F. Here we see plainly that excessive and untidy furnishings can make the best front seem "out at the elbows," wide, and plainly unkempt. Below this, in Figure 2, is illustrated one of the faults which plague our breed. The "Chippendale" front, as I call it, where the dog is obviously bent in forelegs, toeing out, and often being out at the elbows, can be "minimized" by proper trimming. In this case, we find that a little "extra" left on the sides of the forelegs, coupled with tight trimming on the outside of the feet and at the elbows, with a little extra left on the inside, creates the illusion of a more desirable, straighter front. Generally, however, this type of front will become fairly obvious in movement, even to the point where the dog "crosses" in front, but our attempts in trimming will "minimize" the fault.

In Figure 3 another problem is "minimized"; that of the extra wide front, which may also be accompanied by toeing out. Here we try to "minimize" the fault by trimming the shoulders more closely, and leaving a little "extra" on the inside of the forelegs and feet. Allowing the chest furnishings a little "extra" length to serve as added "fill" will also create an illusion of less space between the legs. Other problems involving shoulder placement are illustrated in Figures 8 and 9. Figure 8 shows a dog that is obviously straight in shoulder, lacking proper layback, and therefore a bit "leggy." Here we find it advantageous to trim the chest furnishings more tightly, and allowing a little "extra" again on the back of the forelegs. Also, we have allowed the under body fringe a little "extra" length so less "air" is evident between the dog and the ground. This will tend to create a less "leggy" appearance, and should also create the illusion of a shorter body. Although few Scots are too well angulated in shoulder, you would do just the opposite in this case.

In handling the hindquarters, Figure 4 illustrates a perfectly good rear left so untidy that it defies the judges to realize it. This generally "unkempt" quality is shown in PROFILE in Figure 7. Don't just stand there . . . do something about it!

One of the most typical rear-quarter problems in our Scots is the "open-hocked" structure illustrated in Figure 5, and "minimized" by leaving a little "extra" on the thighs, the inside of the stifle, as well as the outside of the feet. In Figure 6, the opposite fault is illustrated . . . the "cow-hocked" rear, "minimized" again, in just the opposite fashion, by trimming the thighs more tightly, and leaving the "extra," but only a slight amount, on the inside stifle, the outside of the hock and the inside of the feet. The inside hock should be trimmed as tightly as possible without leaving "Mack" completely naked here.

SHOW OF THE MONTH

TERRIERS at HARBOR CITIES

The Terrier entry at the 1963 Harbor Cities Kennel Club show made it far and away the largest in 1963, if not the largest in several years nationally. There were 476 dogs entered with absentees at a minimum. This was due primarily to the large number of Terrier Specialties held in conjunction with this show. Of particular note were the 91 Miniature Schnauzers entered to celebrate the First regional Specialty of their Parent Club. The Welsh Terrier Club of America also selected this show as its Specialty, and produced the largest entry seen on the West Coast.

With the unexpected large entry, the judging was divided between several excellent specialty and all-round judges. Mr. C. K. Rickel had the honor of placing the Terrier Group, and selected an imported Welshman, who had come from the Open Dog class to top his breed. First then, to MULLACRE MORGAN (Felstead Flypast — Quayside Cocktail), Welsh Terrier owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Marck, and handled by Ric Chashoudian. Second went to the well-known Lakeland, CH. BRAZEN BLOND OZ (Ch. Rendale Rattlem — Cabinhill Compact) owned by Kerryall Kennels, and handled by Harry Sangster. Third to another class dog, a lovely Wire bitch, DARK STAR OF CASA BLANCA (Warrior of Casa Blanca — Ch. La Condesa of Casa Blanca) bred and owned by John Lasch, and handled by Daisy Austad in the breed. The fourth place winner was also up from the class, the Cairn, CAIRNDANIA CLANSMAN'S KLIPPER (Ch. Cairngorm Clansman — Cairndania Foxglove's Kilver) owned by Nina Matzner and handled by Earl Gullikson.

The Brace and Team competitions were won handily by the Miniature Schnauzers, owned and handled by Jean Fancy. One of these was also the Best of Breed winner of the day, Ch. Winsomor Critique.

Unless otherwise noted, the entire placements in all the Terrier breeds follows, in catalog order:

AIREDALE TERRIERS

Mr. George Skelly judged the entry of four dogs, four bitches and three Specials. First in American-Bred, and Reserve Winners Dog to Seaside Mark (Ch. Copper-Dale's Troublemaker — Ch. Dusty Star) owned by S. M. Calkins. First in Open Dogs, and Winners to Elroy's Yankee Tweedsbairn (Bengal Kresent Brave — Siccawei Jackpot) owned by Bernice and Ed McElroy, and handled by Chashoudian. Second to May Pridham's Sierradale Dust Devil, and third to Sierradale Apache Mike, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hogan.

of Hi-Fi; fourth to Bambi's Classy Miss. There were 11 in the 9-12 class, with first to Calkerry's Bronwyn; second to Rackety Packety Pixie Sue; third to Hale's Cover Girl; fourth to Hale's Irish Imp. Best in Sweepstakes went to Joan Vough's Bambi's Irish Mike.

SEALYHAM TERRIERS

The Sealyham Terrier Club of Southern California considered this entry as their Specialty. Mr. E. E. Vary judged the three dogs, four bitches and one Specials.

The singleton in Puppy Dogs and Novice was Skymaster's Trouble (Skymaster's Marshall's Albert — Skymaster's Bambi) owned by Edgar and Laurel Folliott. The two Open dogs were the Winners and Reserve: Skymaster's Marshall's Albert (Catapult of Artabracka — Ch. Skymaster's Patty) owned by Anne McGrath, and handled by R. Chashoudian. He was also BOS. Reserve to Bridgets Preferred Stock (Ch. St. Margaret Strollaway — Etherdens Bridget) owned by June Shultice.

The Open class of four in Bitches produced the ultimate Best of Breed winner in ROBIN HILL SWEET FORTUNE (Ch. Robin Hill Cannoneer — Robin Holl Sweet Promise) owned by Mrs. Dorothy Love, and handled by Jimmy Butler. Second and Reserve to Jane Anderson's Little Boy's Sally (Skymaster's Little Boy — Princess Eyllt) third to Michael Nemeth's St. Margaret Sonata, and fourth to Bonnie Lassie, C. fanciers. Terrier Type is truly an outstanding and long-needed magazine.

"We in the canine world often become so absorbed by show ring activities that we neglect to consider the original intent of breeders a half century or so ago . . . that is, to breed dogs with characteristics such that they may perform a specific function. I think we in terriers are more guilty of this oversight than people in breeds of other groups. For this reason, I am enclosing the attached newspaper clipping from the Dundee, Scotland Sunday Post of March, 1963. This article proves that a terrier is a "working" dog and can successfully complete a task for which he was bred. I hope you will find this little episode of interest and will pass it on for the approval of the many readers of Terrier Type.

"Please compliment Mrs. Goddard for me for the fine job she is doing with her column . . . Mostly Westies. May I wish you continued success with your magazine.

Royal Fuchs

Assoc. Member, W.H.W.T.C. of America"

Although the article mentioned is rather lengthy, it can be summed up rather simply. "Gyp," a real terrier, with the title, "best ratter in the country," was called upon by a neighboring farmer to rid his place of rats which were slowly overrunning his place, causing much damage. The rest of the story bears quoting:

"Gyp and the farmer went to work in the pig-sty. The farmer shoved an iron crowbar under the flagstone floor and levered it slowly up, inch by inch. What a panic six inches down!

"Dozens of rats scurried backwards and forwards along their tunnels as the roofs started to collapse. Wham! Gyp grabbed the first, snapped its back with one quick jerk of his head, and threw it over his shoulder. Wham! Wham! Wham! Gyp went wild, slaughtering the rats one by one as they bolted.

"When it was all over, the farmer counted the tally. Gyp had killed 35 rats in just over ten minutes!"

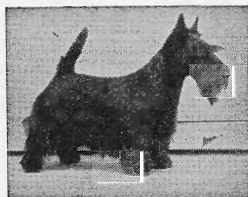

Interesting? "Gyp" may never win a blue ribbon, but he certainly has an equally fine distinction!

Won't you take the time to write us. . . . Tell us the news in your area. . . . Do it right now. . . . I'm sure Jean will appreciate our "holding the fort" for her, and surely I will. (The Editor.)

Of course the big news of the month was the Annual Specialty of the Scottish Terrier Club of California, held again this year in conjunction with the Harbor Cities Kennel Club, June 23, 1963. On hand to judge the excellent entry of 37 in the three divisions of the Sweepstakes was Mr. William Kendrick. His placements follow:

Puppy Stakes, Dogs (9): First to Merrilland Trump, owned by Merrilland Kennels; second to Merrie Oaks Trademark, owned by Mrs. Edmund Masure; third to Charves Rory O'More owned by Mildred and Robert Charves; Fourth to Ayrloch Rost About, owned by Florence Wolman.

Puppy Stakes, Bitches (10): First to Crescent Hill Jigger, owned by Dorissa Barnes; second to Crescent Hill Independence, owned by Mary Conger; third to Marlorain Forever Yours, owned by Mr. & Mrs. E. E. Ogden; fourth to Crescent Hill Small Fury, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Don St. Lawrence.

The eight winners then competed for additional honors, with First going to "Trump," second to "Jigger," third to

"Trademark," and fourth to "Independence."

Junior Stakes, Dogs (5): First to Marlorain Black Seal, owned by Marlorain Kennels; second to Anstamm Blue Blazes, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stamm; third to Revran Vivace, owned by Harvey and Louise Cedarstrom; fourth to Mary Mac's Lord Jock, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ron Sherman.

Senior Stakes, Dogs (2): First to Balachan Grenville, owned by Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Kirk, Jr.; second to Haydenhill MacTavish, owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Limon.

Junior Stakes, Bitches (6): First to Crescent Hill Portia, owned by Alfred and Sally Lathrop; second to Crescent Hill Shela, owned by Doris Johnson; third to Ballantine's Fashion Model, owned by Celia Desmond; fourth to Marlorain Trudi, owned by Marlorain.

Inter-competition gave first to "Portia," second to "Shela," third to "Grenville," and fourth to "MacTavish."

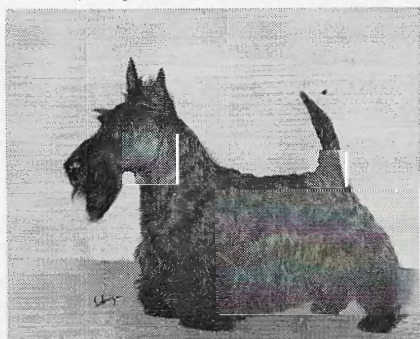

Mr. E. E. Vary judged the excellent entry of 65 actually present in the Regular classes, and club members were particularly proud when all winners and reserves were found in member bred and/or owned dogs. Both point winners were also Sweepstakes youngsters, which surely speaks highly for the "young 'uns." The total entry was divided between 23 dogs, 29 bitches, two Veteran and 13 Specials. Mr. Vary's placements are as follows:

Puppy Dogs, 6-9 months (9): First to Charves Rory O'More (Ch. Gilkey's Johnny Come Lately — Ch. Balachan Gambit) owned by the Charves. Second to Merrilland Trump (Ch. The Charves brace, consisting of "Rory O'More" and "Maggie Lauder" went on to place second in the Terrier braces, five competing.

"Boy Blue" won the Stud Dog class, and Frances Moore's Ch. Garlu Haggis Heather won the Brood Bitch class.

The night following the Specialty, the club held its "Judges Dinner," with Mr. Vary, the guest of honor. After President Kenneth Coty congratulated the winners and thanked all the workers and exhibitors for the very successful Specialty, Mr. Vary spoke to the group, praising the extremely fine quality of the entire entry. He cheerfully answered the many questions asked by those in attendance. Mr. Vary was then presented with his gift, a beautiful attache case, and the festivities were terminated.

A new record in producing bitches has been achieved recently by Ch. Edgerstoune Troubadour. Her second, sired by Ch. Friendship Farm Diplomat, contained six, two of which were sold and never shown, and the other four were finished. Her third litter, sired by Ch. Todhill Cinnamon Bear, contain four, all of which finished.

Bob Bartos continues to score exciting wins with Ch. Carnation Cynthia, the most recent being another Best in Show at the Multnomah County Dog Fanciers Assoc. Show in Portland, Oregon, at the end of June. This is a repeat for a "Carnation" Scottie at this show.

show on June 16, where "D.D." (which they say stands for "damned dog") came from the Junior Puppy Class to go BOB, and First in Group! He is Ch. Low Firs Grande Mist ex Young's Fey Girl. They also send news of a new champion finished at the Mt. Baker K. C. show on June 30. Young's Merlin, owned by Ralph and Monica St. Romain, went BOB and Group Third. He is the second champion out of a litter by Int. Ch. Westpark Derriford Baffie ex Ch. Silver Eve's Anastasai. Apfel's Charcoal Pattie took the bitch points and BOS; Glad-Mac's Wave of Seaglen was reserve in Bitches and Braemar Bold Voyager in Dogs.

Louise Ellsworth finished her homebred, Ell-Scot-Ts Van Guard (Ch. Blantart Bondsman — Amberglo's Golden Glo) at the Greater Miami Show, June 23. Earl and Florence Buch's Buchlan Miss Brocade (Ch. Viewpark Dictator — Ayerscott Angie) also picked up a major here, going BW, and BOS. Best of Breed went to the Buchs' Ch. Viewpark Dictator (Ch. Greeba Hawesgarth Robin — Valencia Queen). Reserves to Crusader's Victory, owned by Marion McCaughey, in Dogs, and her Ell-Scot-T's Telstar in Bitches, both from American-Bred.

CH. BALACHAN GIBSON GIRL, recently finished, shown taking Best of Breed honors at the Scottish Terrier Club of New England Specialty under judge Charles Stalter. She is owned by Dr. and Mrs. T. Allen Kirk, Jr., Balachan Kennels.

While the Stammers are being "international," visiting England, their Am. & Eng. Ch. Bardene Boy Blue, added his Canadian title by winning four Groups and three Bests in Show at six recent Canadian shows, in British Columbia. The BIS wins were scored under Mrs. Hilda Balshaw, Mr. Robert Waters and Mr. Mark Gordon. Along with handler Lena Kardos on the trip was Mildred Charves, whose Charves Maggie Lauder scored Winners Bitch at all six, and was BOS over Specials at three of these. That must have been a "fun" trip for Millie and Lena!

A letter recently received by an exhibitor (who prefers to remain anonymous) bears quoting as it points out a quality which is most unfortunate.

"We in Scottish Terriers should be ashamed of the fact that a member of our breed club, a so-called breeder, and one who is apparently sure that she is the only one that knows anything about the breed, is such a poor sport. Showing dogs is, after all, a sport, at least that was the original intention, but some few seem to be making it a cut-throat business. This exhibitor was much upset at the judge's choice for Best of Breed at a recent show and proceeded to conduct anyone willing to accompany her to the stall of the Best of Breed winner, to point out the faults of the bitch and emphasize the poor judging! It behooves all exhibitors of Scottish Terriers at benched shows to remain in sight of their dogs or have someone sit with them in order to prevent a recurrence of this distasteful display of poor sportsmanship."

Not a very cheerful note to end this month's column, but certainly worthy of note.

Two other problems may also be in evidence in rear quarter trimming; the over-angulated, and conversely, the straight stifle. In Figure 8, the straight stifle is "minimized" by trimming the area beneath the tail as tightly as possible, while leaving a little "extra" on the rear of the hocks. Again, just the opposite methods should be used in "minimizing" over-angulation; trim the rear of the hocks tightly and allow a little "extra" on the rear of the thighs, beneath the tail.

Throughout this last article we have emphasized the word "minimize" simply because that is all that can be done. A fault is still just that . . . a fault, and any alert judge will not be fooled by your artistic efforts. Perhaps one final rule would be helpful. In all trimming, you should remove hair where the dog can be improved, and leave the "extra" where it will create the more perfect illusion.

In conclusion, let me remind you again that your Scot is an individual, and if some of the methods discussed do not apply specifically to "Mack" you may find it necessary to devise some more individual techniques. Remember the "watchword" in creating the most perfect job . . . BALANCE. It will take time, and a great deal of experience, but it can be done, and by YOU.

(Editor's Note: Should any problems arise which further discussion or illustrations will clarify, send your request directly to me, and if there is an answer to the problem, we surely will attempt to handle it in a future article . . . DAN KIEDROWSKI.)

NEW CHAMPIONS

Each month we present pedigrees of new champions. This gives our readers all over the country an opportunity to see and study the individuals and bloodlines which are producing today's winners. This department will be of value only if all breeders and owners of champions will send in the necessary information as soon as their dogs are confirmed by the American Kennel Club. Include breeder, owner and date of birth.
