Occasionally we get a despairing letter from the owner of a male Scot who is just not interested in servicing a bitch. Even with the help of a handler, they tell us, the dog is lethargic about the whole thing.

On further inquiry, it usually turns out that the dog normally lives closely quartered with one or more bitches, and when they are in season, conditions do not permit too much isolation.

Assuming that a sperm check has proved positive for the dog and that the time is right for the bitch, this could be the reason. Because of the close proximity to bitches in season, the dog seems to build up an immunity. When his turn actually arrives, the scents do not intoxicate him as they should, and he will not work.

If a dog and one or more bitches are housed together, and the dog is supposed to perform as a stud, the bitches should leave the premises as soon as they are in season and not return until the season is over. That way, the scents are saved for breeding time, and are not so omnipresent that the stud will get used to them to the point of ignoring them.

Margaret Freemantle sends us the results of the Scot judging at the recent Vancouver Island Terrier Club Specialty. Mrs. Delpha Jordan judged an entry of 6 dogs, 1 bitch and 2 Specials. Best of Breed honors went to Mrs. John Dressen's Can. & Am. Ch. Dressen's Post Script, handled by John Hahnlen. Winners Dogs, BW and on to Best Canadian-Bred Puppy in Show went to Mrs. G. serve to the Open winner, Scottish Emigrant, owned by Mrs. Doris Watton. The lone bitch, Mr. and Mrs. E. Richardson's Kildoran Dobhran Dubh was Winners and BOS.

Mrs. Ken Coty called to confirm that her Marlorain's Heather's Astro-naut (Ch. Marlorain Proud Piper — Ch. Garlu Haggis Heather) got six Bests of Breed on the Texas circuit, including two majors. This puts him within 1 or 2 points of the title.

Mrs. E. Ogden sends us the results of the Ogden and Salt Lake shows where Scots enjoyed the best entry in the Terrier Group. Joseph Murphy enjoyed an entry of 6 dogs, 6 bitches and 1 Specials at Ogden where BOB honors went to the Stamms' Ch. Anstamm Dark Venture, handled by Lena Kardos. Winners Bitch, BW and BOS went to Vena Fryer's Lomond Lustre (Ch. Crescent Hill Chuck A Luck — Crescent Hill Bonanza), with Reserve to Mr. and Mrs. Ogden's Marlorain Forever Yours (Ch. Mar-

Had a long distance call from Jacksonville, Fla. with the good news that a 6 month old bitch pup from a repeat breeding of the above mentioned "Forever Yours", called Marlorain V. I. P. of Waybroke, was BOB under Dr. Mitten at Charleston, N. C., May 16, and this her first show! She is owned by Madison Weeks and Hugh Thomas.

The following item, sent to us by someone who prefers simply to be known as "Sidney", should bring a few "thought-provoking" chuckles:

Conversation

Small Child: Daddy, what do handlers do?

Father: They take dogs into the show ring, dear.

Small Child: Daddy, why do we have a handlers?

Father: Because handlers know the judges, and the dogs they show win.

Small Child: Do the judges only give ribbons to dogs the handlers show?

Father: The one you're watching does.

Small Child: Daddy, are handlers worth what you pay them?

Father: Your mother and I have often argued that point.

Small Child: Daddy, why can't I have a pony?

Father: Because we have a handler, dear.

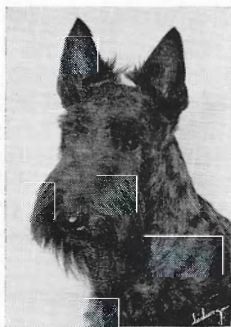

Sidney

The newest Scottie enthusiast reported, arrived early on April 25th. She is the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Humphrey. Carol Humphrey, the proud mother, is Secretary of the Heart of America STC, and husband, Dean, who is in the Army stationed in Germany, was able to be home for his daughter's arrival. Won't be long before little April will be making her debut in Junior Handling!

Ch. Lynhaven Commander and Ch. Brymstone Bittersweet, have made "top producers" out of two more scots. Ch. Lynbrier of Zelwyn, the sire of both "Commander" and "Bittersweet", now has sired three, while "Bittersweet's" dam, Ch. Siegel's Bon Imptomatic, also has produced three.

The Kansas Circuit, April 3-4-5, brought out entries of 10 at Salina, 10 at Wichita and 8 at Hutchinson for judges, Virgil Johnson, Dr. E. S. Montgomery and J. J. Duncan respectively. Best of Breed at the last two was Ch. Lynbrier of Zelwyn (Ch. Wyrebury Wrangler — Ch. Crescent Hill Lyliia) owned by Zelwyn Kennels, while BOB at Salina was Ch. Lynhaven Commander (Ch. Lynbrier of Zelwyn — Odd-Me-Dodd Tartan Doll) owned by Chuck Boyles. Winners Bitch all three days was Brymstone Bittersweet, to complete her title. Owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Leathers, she is a son of "Lynbrier" out of "Imptomatic", both mentioned previously. Winners Dog the first two days and Reserve the third to Gilkey's Johnny (Ch. Gilkey's Johnny Come Lately — Anstamm Harmony), owned by Margaret Brown. Winners Dog at Hutchinson was Blackacres Blackstone (Ch. Lynhaven Commander — Lynhaven Molly) owned by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baker. "Blackstone" was also Reserve at Wichita. Reserve Bitch all three days was Windsor's Dorcas of Zelwyn (Ch. Cantie Captivator — Ch. Lycee of Zelwyn) owned by Mrs. J. Eldon Windsor.

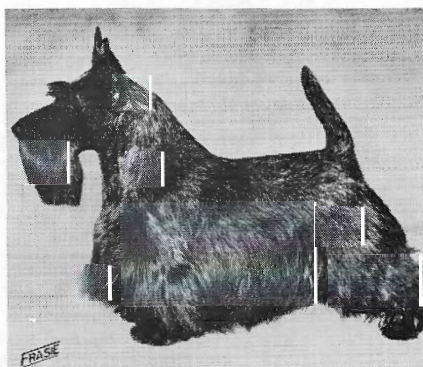

This club continues to be real "go getters" with many plans for the future, and enthusiastic enough to keep us posted on members "doings" so that we can then report to you.

An entry of 39 came out for the Southern California Club Puppy Match, held May 3rd at the Cambria Kennels. Mr. Haig judged the entry, where classes were divided from 2 to 18 months. First in 2-4 Puppy Dogs to Jamie Boy (Niddbank Extra Headline — Crescent Hill Kate) owned by James Kennedy. First in 4-6 Dogs to Kenneth Coty's Garlu Heather Dirkson (Marlorain Heather Astronaut — Garlu Cinder Dawn). The blue in 2-4 Bitches went to Lathrop's Signal Circuit (Edgemoor Extra Headline — Crescent Hill Portia) owned by Al and Sallyann Lathrop. First in 4-6 Bitches and Best Junior Puppy to Florence Wolman's Ayrloch Sunny Doll (Ch. Bardene Boy Blue — Ch. Cambria's Doll), with BOS in Juniors to "Dirkson". In Senior Puppy Dogs, Best to Scot's Guard Royal Tarter (Scot's Guard Troops the Colors — Fashion Fury) owned by Ben Brown. BOS in Seniors to Mrs. Richard Swatsley's Revran Melodist (Ch. Niddbank Topic — Niddbank Fairy). Best Adult (12-18 months) went to Short-Scot Little Dzagood (Ch. Lynbrier of Zelwyn — Short-Scot Silver Widget) owned by Jack and Eleanor Nottekovon, and BOS Adult was Richard Slinger's Garlu Lee Impish (Ch. Garlu Heather Lancelot — Maggie Lee Scott).
