COVER STORY

Champion Hughcrest Bottoms Up went Best of Breed from the Veterans Class at the S.T.C.A. National Specialty in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, October 6, 1985. This win added the crowning glory to her illustrious show career.

"Cricket" has always been a tough contender, winning 14 Specialty Best in Shows and 10 Specialty Best of Opposites. Three of those Best of Opposites were won at Montgomery County. She is a Best in Show (all breed), and multi group and breed winning Scotty.

We are so proud of our girl. She has always given us her very best and continues to do so not only in the show ring but at home as well: she went to Montgomery leaving home a litter of 5 puppies, 13 weeks old.

Long remembered by Bar None will be that one special Sunday afternoon in October. We thank you, Mr. Graham, but most of all we thank you, "Cricket"...

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

What a Great Show! You must agree that Montgomery County is the place to be in October. It has all the ingredients—super dogs and super people!! This year was no exception, the near record entry and fine weather made for another special Specialty.

Obviously, for me this occasion held a particular significance, and I was deeply warmed by the well wishes so sincerely given and so gratefully received.

Functioning these past three years as National Show Chairman has given me considerable insight as to the scope of this endeavor, and the contribution of so many unselfish, dedicated individuals to its overall success. To thank each one would clearly be an impossible task, so may I simply extend a large collective THANK YOU to one and all!!

Next I must inform you that I was in error with regard to the mailing of the marked catalogs to the membership. Presently the only approved mailings are to the advertisers. Perhaps it was wishful thinking on my part. Maybe someday soon we will find a way to include our entire membership.

It is a singular honor for me to have been chosen to serve you, and to this end I feel that the key word is SERVE. Be assured that I will always endeavor to be deserving of this high trust. This is a period of tremendous growth for our club, with many exciting projects on the horizon—but unless we remain in touch with the Individual needs of our membership and be responsive to those needs, we lose the entire purpose of our existence. How may we serve YOU?

"We have but one goal" To be the very best! After all—What else is there?

John DeSaye, President

—Attention—

In the November issue of Dog Fancy (which featured the Scottish Terrier) there appeared a vastly untrue statement: 'Another problem inherent in Scotties (and mysteriously, only Scotties) is "Scottie Cramp."'

A letter from President, John DeSaye has been forwarded informing the Editor and Publisher of their negligent and poorly substantiated statement of our breed.

We urge all members of the STCA to also write, to making them aware of the damage done; in hopes that they will print a full correction with the true facts!

Motion—Kirk/Cohen that this sentence be added to the last paragraph of the Nominating Committee guidelines 'All officers are Considered members of the Board.' Motion carried.

f. History/Archive Library: Cindy suggested a committee be formed to keep and maintain a referral library accessible to all members, also that there be an annual Historian report.

3. Breeders Lists: The Corresponding Secretary has received many requests of mailing list of our members. Motion Brown/Cohen The Corresponding Secretary shall not furnish mailing labels of the membership to any parties for commercial purposes, this is to be added to the SOP under Corresponding Secretary guidelines. Motion carried. This motion was amended to include all members of the board, amendment accepted and carried. Motion Cohen/McArthur that we correspond to all Dog Show Supt. not to furnish a list of members to any outside organizations. Motion carried.

4. Hastings Letter: Letter of withdrawal from Mr. Lee Hastings advising that he was no longer available for a position on the Board of Directors due to personal reasons.

5. Bulk Mailing Problems. Complaints have been received regarding the Bulk mailings not being received in time for—Room/Dinner/Trophy/Advertising etc. Discussion proved the 'savings' did not warrant the 'loss in revenue'. Motion McArthur/Cook That all documents whereby the membership must reply by a given date be sent via first class mail. Motion carried.

6. Centennial Show of Scotland 1986: Letter from Mr. and Mrs. Parotti advising the Centennial Show and inquiring the STCA procedure. Motion Brown/ Cooke Under normal procedure we send $105.00 pound sterling as a trophy donation and a letter of congratulations. Motion carried.

Recording Secretary's Report: S.O.P. revisions/additions were distributed dated from 6/81 thru 4/85. If no additions/corrections they shall be distributed to the Regional Clubs. Also reported that 891 ballots were sent, due to Mr. Lee Hastings withdrawal from the slate, a return count was not required.

Treasurer's Report: Neatha Robinson distributed a detailed report for the year to date of 9/30/85.

Income	$54,751.15
Expenses	30,603.60
Net Profit	$24,147.55

Reflected in the Income the sum of $11,825 of Handbook advertising receipts set aside for the upcoming new edition. A full detailed report elsewhere in this issue. Neatha also submitted the delinquent member list as of 6/1/85, a total of 38 dropped from membership for non-payment of dues.

Committee Reports:

Handbook: Michael Cook reported that there were still three articles outstanding and the updated Constitution and By-Laws pending AKC approval. If received within the next 30/60 days the Handbook should be out the first quarter of 1986. Also discussed a. How many to order, b. When to print, and c. better preparedness.

Motion Fowler/Roszman To order 3000 Handbooks for next five years. Motion carried.

Motion Fowler/Prince To print new Handbook after 5 years. Motion carried.

Motion Fowler/Prince To select with in 1 year, a new editor for the 1991 Handbook. Motion carried.

Advertising Ch. Ann Wooldridge reported the income of $11,825.00 received. That every attempt was made to honor each donor's request for placement as orders received. With the assistance of Sandy Rosenfeld, the layout was completed in the order it is to appear and forwarded to Sandi Hach.

Trophy/Awards: Helen Prince reported the trophies were received and ready for the Show, however the membership support was disappointing with only 10% of the membership donating, this of course is reflected in the quality of the trophies. Helen also

- Limit the function of the National Trophy Ch. to soliciting, purchasing and setting up the trophies at the showgrounds.
  - Organize an Annual Awards Chairman to have the responsibility of the Annual Awards along with the Gaines Medal, Anstamm Achievement and Silver Service recipients.

Motion—Robinson/Roszman No current Board member be eligible for any awards while serving since they are voting as a Board for the election of the winners of these awards. Motion amended by McArthur to add to the SOP under Annual Awards. Amendment accepted. Motion carried.

Ways n Means: Betty McArthur displayed the new STCA EXCLUSIVE—Wood Placemats in Dinner size, Luncheon size and Coaster and napkins to match. They are not available in any store or catalog, only thru the STCA. She reported they were on display at the SFBSTC Specialty which resulted in a $400. gross sale to the STCA. (Look for the ad elsewhere in this issue & place your orders now . . .) Also the aprons and totes are again available by order.

The meeting was recessed at 6 p.m. to resume at 1 p.m. on 10/6/85.

Vice President John DeSaye called the meeting to order at 1:25p.m.

Bagpiper: Nancy Van Meter sent the following report: As a 'newcomer' her goals are to actively try and stimulate advertising—bring in new faces thru her 'Going Places' column—adhere to deadlines so the publication is out on time. She reported the last issue, her first, was a break even cost factor. She looks forward with much enthusiasm to please the Officers, Board, and all STCA Members.

Unfinished Business:

AKC Delegate Report: Dr. Kirk reported on the 'Dog Biting Rule' as proposed in the June Gazette. The ruling failed, however it will be reworded and voted on again in December. The original article was written "a dog who attacked or seemed about to attack or threaten another exhibitor, judge, owner or anyone else would be disqualified." Discussion proved it was not specific enough and too much leeway was given to the judge. The amendment will be reworded for clarity and revoted on at the December Meeting.

STCA Amendments: Article 1 Sect. 2 A and Article 1 Sect. 2 B were approved, however Article 1 Sect. C was not approved (Jr. Membership). Dr. Kirk will resubmit this amendment at the December Meeting submitting the required information to the AKC and is confident of its passing.

Tempermandibular Osteopathy: Richard Fowler has contacted the clubs in Dallas for the original article on this subject and requested they be sent to our Corresponding Secretary.

New Business:

Election of New Members: The list of new member applicants was presented and reviewed. Some were in need of their sponsors letters and/or proper payment. One addition was made (after the two week deadline required by standard procedure), this addition was made to clear the books in order to turn all papers over to the new Corresponding Secretary. Motion Brown/McArthur To accept all new members except those still pending sponsors/dues. Motion carried John Cohen opposed, recorded as requested. New Members effective 10/6/85 are listed under the Welcome Waggon Section of this issue.

Judge Selection 1987 Rotating: The Regular Class Judge and Sweepstakes Judge were selected for the 1987 Rotating to be held at Dallas, TX on March 2, 1987. Results will be announced upon receipt of acceptance.

Motion: McArthur/Kirk to adjourn. Motion carried. The meeting was adjourned at 3:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Betty McArthur, Recording Secretary

THE MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SCOTTISH TERRIER CLUB OF AMERICA

WESTCHESTER INN, WESTCHESTER, PA OCTOBER 5, 1985

Vice President John DeSaye welcomed everyone and advised Pres. Edward Ingrams absence due to business.

The meeting was called to order at 9p.m.

John requested a minute of silence for those members who deceased last year. Mrs. Gladys Apfel; Mr. Joseph Haiton; Mrs. Mary Kelly; Mr. Stephen Spector and Mr. Alfred R. Mitchell.

Roll Call of Members: Each member stood up and identified themselves and the Regional Club they represented.

It was moved and passed to dispense with the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting.

President-Elect Message. John reported that this organization was in a healthy status with both the membership and financially. He thanked the entire membership and the Board of Directors for their assistance in correcting the financial crisis we had. Just three years ago, our Treasurer advised that we could barely hold our Nat'l and Rotating Shows and we did not have the capital to expand to other much needed projects. Because of these efforts, he was proud to announce that the New Yearbook would go to print in January of 1986 and that we would further our obligation to the membership by providing ongoing new educational programs. As President-elect of the STCA he would do everything in his power to keep this organization running in a sound manner.

Montgomery County 1986: John announced the following plans for next year.

- a. Thanks to Mr. Gilbert Robinson, who volunteered to head this committee, the National Specialty would be Video taped. Copies would be made available for our membership for a nominal fee.
- b. As of today we have reserved a block of 80 rooms for next years specialty. The Westchester has advised completion of a new wing prior to next year, if no construction problems. With this in mind we have requested an additional 40 rooms for a total of 120 for our membership.
- c. A private room will be available for a Continental Breakfast on Saturday and Sunday mornings starting at 6 a.m. We also have reserved the large Ballroom for our Annual Dinner.

Under the above conditions there will be a minimum reservation for two nights stay required.

Mailings: Per the Boards vote this afternoon, from this day on all mailings will be First Class for correspondence that requires a deadline date for membership response.

Regional Representatives Meetings: John urged that all Clubs send a representative to address this group to share your club's experiences and knowledge with each other.

Standing Committees: John thanked all the Standing Committees that have put forth so much time and effort for the STCA this past year, and relieved them of their responsibilities so they may have a rest and return again.

Rotating 1986: The next Rotating Specialty will be held on February 9, 1986 and will be hosted by the STC of Greater New York. The Superintendent is Moss Bow; Local Show Ch. Ric Weingart; Judges are Ric Chashoudian, regular classes and Muriel Lee, sweepstakes. A block of 50 rooms have been reserved at the Coachman Inn, Cranford, NJ. An alternate location in the area is the Red Roof Inn.

With great pleasure, John announced that Mr. Lehman Byck has increased his already generous donation to the sum of $750.00 for the Bred by Exhibitor Bitch Class. Also Armando and Berenda Periz-Gili have donated $150.00 for 1st place in the Bred by Exhibitor Dog Class. We welcome any and all donations to complete this class.

Treasurer's Report: Neatha Robinson gave the Annual Report as submitted elsewhere in this issue.

ANNUAL AWARDS: John introduced Awards Ch. Helen Prince who assisted in the distribution of the Annual Awards.

OBEDIENCE AWARDS: Ch. Ruth Tryon thanked her committee Mrs. Faith Harrop, Faith Erlacher and Susan Moodie for their assistance. Ruth again requested the membership to seriously consider entering their dogs in obedience. She then presented the awards.

WORKING TERRIER: Ch. Claudia Leffler announced that this past year 11 Scottish Terriers received certificates, 9 of them belonged to members of the STCA. Claudia described the requirements to receive these certificates, and then presented the awards.

The recipients of the above awards are listed elsewhere in this issue.

Election Report: Betty McArthur reported that due to Mr. Lee Hastings withdrawing his name from the slate there was no need for ballot counting in accordance to our Constitution and By-Laws. She then announced the Class Directors for 1985-1987 and also introduced the New Officers and Board. (See list on page 2).

It was moved and seconded to adjourn. Motion carried. The meeting was adjourned at 10:30 p.m.

The West Coast

CARNATION FARMS Bellevue, Washington FRANK J. BARTOS, JR.

In regard to your inquiry on Carnation and Bingo there are of course many outstanding imports and homebreds that made up Carnation's "Scots" though the many years. The kennel originated in 1931. After many years managing Deephaven Kennels for T.W. Bennett I went to Carnation in 1947 for E.H. Stuart, this just after WWII.

I brought over the first of the famous "trio" Masterpiece sons—Ch. Reimill Radiator in 1947. Ch. Trevone Tartar was imported to California by Bryce Gillespie in '48 and in 1955 Ch. Westpark Rio Grande came to Carnation.

Ch. Reimill Radiator was a most outstanding individual as a showman and prepotent sire proving to be the foundation sire for several top kennels including Irene Robertson's "Glad Mac's".

At the same time I brought back Ch. Deephaven Red Seal, whom I had bred and raised at Deephaven. On my leaving Deephaven we sold "Red" to Maurice Pollack, Marlu Kennels in Feb 1949, at just under two years of age. Johnny Murphy finished him for his championship, then I brought him to Carnation in June 1949 where Red Seal, a Francis G. Lloyd Trophy winner went on through his ten years to gain a most outstanding show record and produce 24 champions to become one of the truly great sires of all time. He developed a line uniquely his own and is the foundation sire of many of America's most outstanding winners and kennels.

In 1955 when Mr. James closed his kennels I brought over Eng. Ch. Westpark Rio Grande and his grandson Eng. Ch. Westpark Derriford Baffie. Rio Grande a Masterpiece son, half brothers to Ch. Reimill Radiator sired 14 English Champions then after seven years of age sired 21 American Champions. Baffie won 35 Challenge Certificates in England with a record shattering career and the nearest to Ch. Heather Realization record of 43.

Showing Baffie for Carnation in 50 all breed shows, he won 50 Best of Breeds, 39 1st Group, 22 Best in Show All Breed, 4 Best in Show Specialties to add to the 35 CC won in England. Winner of the 1958 Francis G. Lloyd Trophy and the Robert Chapman Trophy. He sired 20 American Champions plus his English and foreign champions.

Both Rio Grande and Baffie gave a tremendous boost to many breeders in the 50's—60's as they transmitted excellent dispositions with quality.

In August of 1964, I brought over Eng. Ch. Bardene Bingo. To qualify him for Westminster with a blue ribbon win, I showed him in Open Class thirty days later (Sept 27) at Tacoma winning Best In Show. I stripped him out. Then in January 1965 as a training class for the American ring showed him at Portland winning Best in Show. Entered in Westminster in February, 1965 he had the possibility of winning his American title from the Open Class with 3 consecutive Best in Shows including the Garden. As it turned out he went Best of Opposite Sex to "Fanfare" who went on to Best in Show.

Bingo is well known and documented with a spectacular show career. For three successive years won Best in Show at one of America's 3 largest shows—Beverly Hills in '65, Santa Barbara in '66 and Westminster in 1967. His record as a sire continues to be perpetuated in his line through these many generations. Of many, one example of today—"Shannon"—Ch. Braeburns Close Encounter who is predominately Bingo breeding on both sides of her pedigree.

All these dogs were of the Necessity-Fashion Hint line with the American bred Red Seal line and Bingo's. Both were very prepotent, and perhaps the two most dominate individuals through these many years.

There were many outstanding homebreds at Carnation, perhaps one of the most striking was Ch. Carnation Golden Girl, the first wheaten to win a group and Best in Show in 1951.

Away from his public image Bingo's private life was as our house dog where he ruled our routines and lives both day and night with his best pal, the yellow labrador "Sunny". The two lived and died as gentlemen within a few days of each other and are together in a very special plot, and in our hearts.

GLENBY KENNELS    Oregon City, OR    Fred and Christine Stephens

Glenby Kennels has been in existence since the early 1940's when Bertha Russell, Christine's adopted mother, got her first Scotty. Bertha started showing in conformation but eventually found obedience more to her liking. She had many Champions and handler Ben Brown was winning group placements with Ch. Glenby Captain. Bertha learned grooming from Ben, the Murphy brothers, and Marie Stone. Bertha's knowledge was later passed on to Christine.

In 1967, through Bertha, we obtained our first Scot, a well bred bitch. We were living in Sacramento, California when Bertha called us with instructions to meet Lena Kardos in Pleasanton. We built our first crate. It was so big that it is now our favorite whelping box. We loaded it in the back of our Rambler and we went away.

We found Lena at her motel, introduced ourselves, and waited eagerly as she opened the door of a little crate. Out stepped what to us was the prettiest little black bitch we had ever seen. We signed the papers, paid the money, and asked if she was a "show dog". "No, she is too small," Lena said. We didn't really care . . . she was so pretty. All the way home "Tammy" stood in the middle of the giant crate.

A fun match was our beginning in dog shows. Our Tammy earned a blue ribbon and a trophy for the terrier group; five terriers were entered that day. One match led to another, and then on to point shows. Chris started making a 400 mile trip to Bertha for grooming lessons twice a month. After more than a year of showing and earning several points, it became time for our first breeding. We decided to breed to a half brother (Merryscots Mr. Marty) who shared a common sire with our Tammy. Both were Eng. Ch. Reanda Roger Rough grandkids. The breeding produced two champion bitches. At this point, Bertha was about to retire from her boarding kennel and from dog showing. We decided to adopt the Glenby prefix instead of letting it fade into the past. This was our way of saying thank you to Bertha. Since Bertha sanctioned our use of the Glenby name we have tried to do our very best for it.

From one of the two champions in our first litter (Ch. Glenby Merry Marchioness) bred to a Happy Venture son (Ch. Kenjo Venturesome Commander) we produced our first really big success: Am. Can. Ch. Glenby's Leading Lady (Jenny). Jenny was #2 bitch in the country for two and a half years. She has produced 5 champions to date and gave us our top producing dam: Ch. Glenby's Special Blend, mother of 8 champions to date.

There are a total of 22 Glenby champions; only two of these we did not breed ourselves. We had a lot of help along the way. Bertha Russell gave us so many hours and so much of her knowledge. Lena Kardos was there when we needed her. We try to do the best we can with our dogs and hope someday to benefit others with whatever we accomplish for the Scottish Terrier Breed.

BARRAGLEN SCOTTISH TERRIERS

Is Pleased to Announce
The Anticipated Litter

By Ch. Whiskeybae Yankey Stunt Man

Out of Am/Can Ch. Barraglen's Bachelor's Bait

"TRINA"

Due the Second Week of November, 1985.

We will also be having two other exciting litters as well.

Ross & Ann Bower
150 Detrick Drive
Grants Pass, Oregon 97527
503-479-0509

BARRAGLEN started in Colebrook, Connecticut under the name of Tigh Mor (pronounced "Teek More" . . . Scots Gaelic for "Great House"). Due to pronunciation difficulties, we changed our name to BARRAGLEN about a year later.

As novices we purchased our first Scottie from a breeder who assured us he was "show potential". He did not turn out to be a show dog, but, in the process, we discovered the world of shows including the joy and heartbreak of showing Scotties. Our first Scottie was an apt lesson in incorrect conformation, but his super personality was a moving influence in causing us to persevere in this wonderful breed. When the Colebrook Zoning Board and Board of Appeals would not allow us to build a Boarding Kennel on our property, we conducted a survey of the eight states we were interested in and ended up in Oregon. Like most Easterners, we had little idea of the vast distances involved in travelling in the Pacific Northeast. San Diego really didn't look all that far from Portland on the map . . . little did we know!

Our two foundation bitches were purchased from Daniel Leahy. One was a black, adult Woodhart bitch (Woodhart Whimsical . . . "Bee") whom Dan had purchased directly from the Hartleys. The other was a brindle puppy from Dan's Stand Kennels (American & Canadian Champion Stand's Fire Witch . . . "Misty"). Bee had acquired a few points with Dan and we put a Three Point Major on her as well as some minor points, but she never finished due both to our lack of experience in the show ring and the fact that she was such a wonderful brood matron. As a puppy, Misty was nice, but as an adult she was outstanding. She finished easily in both the U.S. and Canada with heavy competition at prestigious shows. She also turned out to be an exemplary brood bitch and it is from her that most of our present day Champions descend.

We were fortunate along the way to get help and advice from many people. The late Johnny Murphy made a lasting impression on us when he gave Bee her Three Point Major and then told us, in the ring, to learn how to groom correctly! Bergit and Clay Coody helped us a great deal with grooming tips and showed several of our dogs for us. With a busy Boarding Kennel, it is often difficult for us to get to shows and we rarely attend shows together since one of us must be here at all times to care for the boarders as well as our own dogs.

Southern Oregon basically has two seasons of the year . . . rainy, cold Winters and hot, dry Summers. Spring and Fall are of very short duration so Winter goes directly to Summer to Winter again without much of a Spring or Fall hiatus. Our Scotties are all "house dogs" so we had to build an outdoor, covered exercise area for them in Winter. Coats grow well in the cool, moist outdoor atmosphere, but they have to be worked more often to keep them rolling since the house is warm in the Winter. Summer schedules dictate being outside only early morning and late evening with just a short "out" mid-day for the Scotties to relieve themselves, then back into the fully air-conditioned family/living room. Show training, roadwork, etc., has to be accomplished on the same schedule as in and out periods depending on the time of year. This is particularly difficult in Winter when it rains for days on end, making us very grateful for the use of a Grange Hall one evening per week for Conformation Classes.

Most of the Scotties in the Pacific Northwest are located in California, Northern Oregon and Southern Washington (in and around the Seattle area). Their numbers seem to be staying fairly static, possibly increasing a bit.

The past fifteen years in Scotties have been ones of accomplishment in seeing our homebreds finish with wins at Montgomery, Westminster, etc., having one of our Studs in the Top Ten Scottie Stud Rankings, having two of our bitches in the Top Ten Knight System Scottie Bitch Rankings before they even finished their Championships, and seeing our Breeding Program prove out as we hoped it would. We look forward to the years ahead with great enthusiasm and anticipation.

WINNING THE SAN FRANCISCO BAY SCOTTISH TERRIER CLUB SPECIALTY

JUDGE; MRS. RUTH JOHNSON
BARBARA DUNHAM PRESENTING THE TROPHY

SHOWN BY ANN WOOLDRIDGE
FOR SANFORD ROSENFELD

The years melt away. It's 1964. I've just started a new job after moving to California.

The first time I saw Tom he was accompanied by two regal Airedales, Duke and Laddie. Being the first of their kind I had ever met in the flesh, I marvelled at their size and their gentleness. I was to learn later that Duke and Laddie were litter brothers. Duke finished his championship with ease—Laddie usually being reserve to his slightly more handsome brother. They were always breeder, owner conditioned, handled and obviously adored. They also held obedience titles, where they competed as a brace—quite an accomplishment for two male terriers. Duke and Laddie were the first actual show dogs I had ever met.

Tom retired a short time later and except to see this tireless threesome driving around town occasionally, I lost track of them. Little did I know what a strong and positive influence they, and Tom's very special wife, Ruth, would be when next our paths would cross almost five years later.

Tom and Ruth were charter members of the local all-breed kennel club and were the obedience instructors when I arrived to sign up my first purebred, companion puppy—a four and a half month old bundle of energy, a Scottie pup, Mysti. I was determined that she was going to be a well-rounded, obedient family member. Looking back, what folly! Being a Scottie, she was well rounded, but obedient? We never missed a class. She loved going, running up to say hi to Tom and Ruth with such sincerity and promptly blowing almost every exercise. What novices we were—what fun we had!

Tom and Ruth encouraged me, gave me stripping lessons, talked me into joining the kennel club and entering my first match—I was hooked.

As time passed they were always there—for everyone. Tom, at 70 was the club's hardest working member and strongest supporter. No job was too menial, no job was too hard. He was always in charge of grounds for the matches and shows—first to arrive, last to leave. Always a smile, a pat, a friendly word. He always gave 110% to everything he did.

Tom was best man when Tony and I got married. When we look at the pictures, his is the face you are drawn to. He was a man who had found himself, knew what he wanted and usually how to get it. He was a devoutly religious man whose life style reflected his beliefs.

Because of Tom and Ruth, Mysti was followed by a number of others. From her first litter we finished our first champion, and got a dear girl who would bear our second champion. Hence, the beginning of Mystigael.

They are all gone now and we mourn. Wednesday, we lost our Am/Can Ch Glad Macs Globe Trotter rather unexpectedly. The twenty five miles to the vet's office to claim his remains were driven in silence, reflecting on the events leading up to his death. What should have been done that wasn't, what could have been done. Guilt is a consuming emotion. The seventy miles to Santa Barbara where we took him for cremation were driven with tears and anger. The reality was that little, if anything, done differently would have had any effect on the outcome. I felt my world was shaken to its foundation. The loss of this lovely, lively four year old Scotsman was devastating. I seriously considered getting out of dogs, of quitting. I could easily handle the thrill of victory. Trotter's Best of Breed from the classes at the San Francisco Bay STC Specialty will always be a highlight. But the agony of defeat, of death, were harder to cope with and accept.

Hearing of Tom's death the following Monday was almost too much to bear. His funeral was simple, loving. The tears flowed freely, the memories filled my mind and warmed me. If I quit Tom would be disappointed. He'd forgive, he'd understand, but he'd be disappointed. He didn't approve of quitters.

Three days later we held our ten year old Mysti granddaughter, Nutmeg, as she received release from the pain she was suffering. She had been under treatment for liver failure. Again the tears flowed.

The following Thursday we had a litter of four. In two short weeks the full cycle of life—the deaths of three very special friends and the birth of a new generation.

As I sat watching these four little black new squirming, squealing lives, I knew I wouldn't quit. I was already dreaming and planning their futures.

I could feel Tom smiling.

A TRUE STORY

Neatha Robinson

I sold a three months old Scottish Terrier male approximately 11 years ago to a family that have had Scotties in the past. Throughout the past 11 years he has had no health problems of any kind. He is a strong, muscular, vigorous dog of great intelligence with an extraordinary love for his owners, who call him "Robbie".

Approximately two weeks prior to Feb 10, 1985, Robbie, was not feeling well. He was warm to touch, with a warm dry nose and was drinking a large amount of water. After cooling off (it was a cold day), he would come inside and lie down. This behavior was repeated all day, causing concern, but there was no discernable reason to take him to the vet. The next day he appeared to be well over the problem, and it was felt he had probably had a '24 hour flu'.

A week or so later, Robbie began stumbling and falling. Walking became increasingly difficult. By Feb 10th he could not walk at all and was unable to urinate. He was taken to the emergency veterinary clinic for catherization.

Shortly after being catherized, he was taken to his own vet, and numerous tests were performed. Cushings disease was ruled out (his sire died of it, and his litter brother has been treated for Cushings for the past five years). Dr. K spoke to a Neurologist at a local hospital, and a diagnosis of Polyradiculitis Neuritis caused by a virus, was made. "Coon Fever" was also mentioned. Dr. K suggested that Robbie be given home care and advised his owners to 'wait it out'. This went along for eight weeks with no sign of improvement. It was necessary to carry Robbie everywhere, and since he was so well housebroken he would not relieve himself in the house. His owners learned how to use a catheter and catherized him three or four times a day. He would cry if left alone, seeming to realize he was helpless without his owners. Several times a night he would cry for water, then settle down for sleep again. He was also placed in warm water for therapy with a demin sling fashioned over the bathtub in such a way his legs would hang down and his head supported by another sling. He was given physical therapy in this manner several times a day for 10-15 minutes.

Twice his owners nearly gave up thinking it might be too cruel to subject Robbie to this. A spot in the garden was made ready. Still Dr. K, and another vet, Dr. B., felt Robbie would come out of it, given time. His owners were encouraged to continue the excellent care they were giving Robbie. By this time Robbie had lost five pounds. He was limp and 'rubbery' when carried.

One day, he started to try and push himself up with his front legs . . . from then on, little by little, almost imperceptably he grew stronger, but very, very slowly. Then, when he did manage to walk, it was a strange rolling walk. It was felt he would be permanently crippled and not have his perky Scottie prance (as if he owned the street). But even that improved, and now at the end of May it is amazing to report that Robbie has made a remarkable recovery. He runs again, jumps out of the car by himself, and is just as alert as before. It's wonderful to see! His weight regained to the present 26 pounds and his coat is healthy and shines.

Even though he is now 12 years old, he has come through with flying colors . . . a real tribute to his owners who were not ready to give him up.

This dog is GILWYN CLANSMAN owned and loved by Bernt and Mary Sween, Sunnyvale, California.

We began our breeding program with West Highland White Terriers a number of years ago. We purchased a nice puppy bitch and with selective breeding, we have produced a Specialty winner with every litter. With an appreciation of the difficulties and length of time involved in improving your breed, we recognized the importance of beginning our Scottie endeavor with an exceptional bitch. Our acquisition of Ch. Sandreg's Sweet Luv was a very fortunate and exciting way to begin.

Our first interest in Scotties came about seven years ago. We decided to look at a litter of puppies belonging to a young Scottie breeder and handler, Mark George. Although he did not have what we were looking for at the time, it was the start of an invaluable relationship with Mark in Westies, Lakelands and Scotties. We have worked very closely with Mark over the years and have reaped the benefits of his expertise. It was through his longtime association with Barbara DeSaye (Sandreg) that the connection was made to purchase "Lovey." We had met Barbara at Montgomery County and had seen a number of Sandreg Scotties in the ring, one of which was Lovey. We were impressed with the quality of the dogs Sandreg was producing; while at Westminster in February of this year, we talked seriously with Barbara about the plans we had for Lovey. It was through mutual agreement about those goals that she decided on a co-ownership with us.

Because we knew from our own personal experience that most breeders tend to retain their top bitches, it makes one as exceptional as Lovey even more cherished by us. It is true that given just the right circumstances such an agreement turns out to be beneficial for the buyer, seller, and the dog. I think if we have any advice for those starting out with goals such as ours, it would be to remain patient, be flexible, and develop good contacts.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY KENNEL CLUB Terrier Breeds Only

What traits do the following Scottish Terriers share?

Rookery Repeater of Hitofa, 1931
Ch. Flornell Soundman, 1934
Deephaven Sensation, 1949
Ch. Edgerstone Troubador, 1954
Ch. Blanart Bewitching, 1959
Ch. Carmichael's Fanfare, 1963 and 1964
Ch. Schwer's Dynamic Happy Boy, 1973
Ch. Braeburn's Close Encounter, 1984

Best In Show at Montgomery County!

So, what is Montgomery County?

To dog people who remain sans terriers, that question seems innocent enough. Terrier "types" like you and I are practically born knowing the answer. To us, Montgomery County is not just another dog show. It is the Ultimate.

Imagine 1800 terriers in the same place at the same time . . .

Since 1929, interrupted only for the Second World War (1942-1947), this show of shows has continuously attracted all the famous names in dogs, handlers, breeders, and spectators. At present, 14 Breed Clubs hold their National Specialties here at Montgomery. The show is usually held on the second Sunday in October and culminates a three day circuit. Extra large terrier entries begin on Friday at Hatboro, continue with Devon on Saturday, and crescendo on Sunday with Montgomery County. With each day, the number of entries and tensions increase, as the hours of sleep decrease. Food, gossip, and grooming fill the "empty hours" between shows. Some folks renew longstanding friendships, while others find new ones. Perhaps some longstanding rivalries surface and new patterns of conflict emerge. Never a dull moment on this fall weekend in Pennsylvania.

Rumors abound before the show. Beginning in July or August, it seems that every fancier has a different version of who will be there with whom. This year's favorite rumor was that George Ward would bring back "Shannon." He didn't, of course, although it might have been interesting. Had she won Best In Show we would have had two Scottish Terriers (Bitches!) with consecutive wins. As it stands now, the great Ch. Carmichael's Fanfare still holds the honor of being one out of only three terriers to have consecutive Best In Show wins at Montgomery.

Win, win, win! The talk of dog shows inevitably comes back to winning. So, while we're on the subject . . . It is somehow true that at this particular show even the "losers" feel like "winners." Just to be present at the show, to see such beauty everywhere, to hear the dogs eager voices, to feel every little charge of excitement . . . to watch, listen, learn, and love is the very heart of dogs and dog shows. Each moment in the show ring at Montgomery is pure exhilaration (sometimes tinted with pure panic). You know that your little dog or bitch is good enough to compete with the best of them.

If you are a breeder, you know that you are there with the best that you have. The little beauty on the end of your lead is a being that you created. You are responsible in a very real way for its pride, its health, its life. Perhaps you look at your dog and see its ancestors; perhaps at this show you can feel their legacy as nowhere else. People always remember ancestors at Montgomery County. At ringside we so often hear, "He looks just like . . . He acts just like . . ." It's a credit to our fancy that we remember our past so lovingly.

This year something very special happened in our breed. The coveted Best of Breed went to an 8 year old Veteran Bitch. Politics put away at the speed of sound, most people clapped and hollered; more than a few eyes filled with tears. The Veteran stood her ground, strutted her stuff, barked, posed and "showed like a two year old." Three times in her illustrious show career she had won Best of Opposite Sex here at Montgomery County. In 1985, she went home with the gold. Congratulations, Ch. Hughcrest Bottom's Up!

SWEEPSTAKES

BY BARBARA KINGSBERRY

I'd like to begin this critique by thanking our club for the honor of being asked to judge the sweepstakes at Montgomery County, my stewards for their valuable assistance in the ring, and the exhibitors who provided me with such a lovely entry.

First of all, I must say that the puppies were presented in beautiful condition. I appreciate how much work was involved, and I congratulate all of you.

In general, I was very impressed with the entry. The heads on all of the youngsters were pleasing, I saw no "downfaces" and very little "cheekiness". The ears were, for the most part, of nice size and set, and the mouths good. All of the above, in my opinion, have improved a great deal. There were some round and light eyes, but we all know how difficult they are to breed out of any line. Top lines, body lengths and tails were also pleasing, and all of the youngsters showed well.

In my opinion, though, certain faults exist that we must not overlook. I found quite a few straight shoulders, crooked fronts and weak hindquarters. As I was "growing up in Scotties", symmetry and soundness were stressed, and I often heard "it takes a sound dog to go-to ground effectively". I feel that we must all address ourselves to these problems for the love of our breed.

To an old-time dog show judge there is "something special" in doing a breed specialty. But to judge your own breed at its National Specialty is indeed a rare treat and honor—and I'm no exception to this philosophy. It was a once in a lifetime wonderful experience. Thank-you S.T.C.A. for selecting me and a special thanks to all of you who entered.

I think everyone detected that I was operating with a slight physical handicap. It seems that the Montgomery weekend was my first outing as a judge in three months during which time I underwent major surgery (new artificial knee joints) with lengthy hospitalizations. I, therefore, appreciated the consideration of all concerned.

Now to the Scotties. There was a substantial variation in specific characteristics between different dogs, which is what judging is all about. On the whole, the quality was above average, especially among the exhibits that placed in the ribbons in nearly every class. On the plus side were such noteworthy features as size, body, ears, tails, bone, bite, temperament and possibly movement. For example, there were very few questionable mouths and a similar number that wouldn't put their tail up—which I consider satisfactory breed performance for such a large entry. Most judges become fairly sensitive to temperament, and I'm happy to report almost flawless performance in this important area.

In evaluating the negative factors I would have to place the numerous bumpy and down-faced skulls at the top of my list since many exhibits were so afflicted—some to an alarming degree. Next would be elbows. Our Standard clearly states "Scottish Terriers should not be out at the elbows". Several exhibits were in jeopardy in this department from just a "little" out to "very much" out. Next on my minus list came that challenging area of coats where texture and condition on several otherwise attractive exhibits left much to be desired. On the other hand, most of the class winners were presented in superior coat and condition. I could be over-reacting but last on my minus list were the eyes. Admittedly, only a few had what I consider to be too light an eye, but there were others whose eyes were just not dark enough or small enough for me.

A common judging procedure followed by me and many other judges at the start of each class is to lineup the entire entry for a brief visual comparison. This first impression, also available to all spectators, frequently signals the final placements after the judge's detailed examination of each exhibit. Not so in this Specialty! The negative characteristics listed in the previous paragraph are NOT readily visible on this first look and, consequently, compelled me to revise my so called first impressions, which proved to be in error most of the time.

Sometimes at the beginning, but more often in the final lineup of a class I requested the exhibitors to stand upright with only their lead to hold and control their Scotties. This was to avoid the kneeling down and hands-on "propping up" which is something that I abhor, and is becoming far to prevalent in our breed. In my humble opinion, the stand-up procedure presents a much more attractive display of showmanship with a picture of the correct Scottie. Only a few terrier breeds seem to be exhibited in the propped-up positions which I hope will eventually disappear from our show-scene.

Some of the intangibles that an old time judge hopes for are:

- |                                   |                        |
|-----------------------------------|------------------------|
| 1) good ring space and conditions | 4) a good entry        |
| 2) good weather                   | 5) good stewards       |
| 3) good sportsmanship by all      | 6) on-time performance |

All of these ingredients were mine, so how could I possibly not enjoy and have fun? I do hope that my pleasure was shared in part by the STCA and all the participants, I wouldn't have missed it for anything! Thank you again for putting up with me. Robert Graham

FIRST TIME, FIRST PLACE

Terry Strong-Donaldson

About six months ago when my husband and I began showing our then six-month-old puppy Spartan My One and Only, "Joy", we were encouraged to get her ready for the Montgomery County show. As good as it sounded we held little hope that we could get time off from our jobs to go. As Joy grew up through the summer we thought more and more of how we could get to Pennsylvania from Michigan without having to take too much time off work. Finally I was able to arrange for a day off.

On the day of the Montgomery County show I was simply in awe. I had never seen so many Scotties in one place. I had entered Joy in the Bred-By-Exhibitor class and when I bought my catalog I flipped to that section first. There were sixteen bitches in that one class! That was as many as the total entry in many of the shows I've been to. I then counted the entries in the other classes. There were many almost as large but none with sixteen.

I don't remember ever being as nervous as I was as they lined us up to go into the ring. There were so many lovely bitches. . . . When the judge, Mr. Graham, made his final trip down the line and stopped to indicate that I was first I am very surprised that I didn't fall over. I remember carrying the dog over to the first place but it was not until Mr. Graham handed out the awards that I realized that the first prize in the Bred-By-Exhibitor Bitch class was $300.00. Mr. Leymann Byck, who generously donated all of the money for the awards in the class, met me as I exited the ring and congratulated me. At the time I was so overwhelmed that I can remember babbling my thanks to him. Looking back, I can only hope I was coherent.

I am still overwhelmed at the thought of actually having gone to Montgomery County for the first time, winning my class and eventually going up as Reserve Winners. If I had not won a thing I would still cherish the memory of this wonderful show. Just watching the Best of Breed Competition enter the ring was an incredible sight. Perhaps best of all, however, were the people I met who were so kind to me. I will always be grateful to the people in the Scottish Terrier Club of Michigan for all the help that they have given to my husband and I since we started showing Scotties five years ago. This may have been my first year at Montgomery County but I am now determined that it won't be my last.

Postscript by Helen Prince

Several years ago, Mr. Byck attended the show at Ambler, and commented to Blanche Reeg, one of our long-time members and supporter of the Bred-By-Exhibitor class, that he was very disappointed in the small entry he saw in the Bred-By class, compared to other classes, since it was considered to be a class where breeders showed the "world" their stock! Blanche replied that, yes, it was supposed to be a breeders' showcase, but that the Open class was generally where the winner was picked from, so most people entered that class.

Lehman Byck decided, then, with the advice of Blanche Reeg, that he wished to encourage breeders to show in the Bred-By-Exhibitor Bitch class, by offering a cash award as an incentive for their hard work! This award is offered at both Montgomery County and the Rotating Specialties, and has tripled the entry in the class since its inception. It is certainly evident that Lehman Byck's idea is working, when one sees the beautiful examples of our breed entered in this class each year.

The Scottish Terrier Club of America is greatly appreciative of members like Lehman Byck, who seek to encourage the continual improvement of our breed. Thank you, Lehman, for your generosity and good will. And, Good Luck with your own brand new litter of four!

OBEDIENCE

By Ruth Tryon

Now is the time to start planning not only your summer vacation but also Mac's. Taking Mac with you adds an extra dimension to your vacation and once you have done this you will always want him with you. But, YOU must plan ahead to obtain the fullest enjoyment for both you and Mac. Don't wait until 2 weeks before you leave to start working with Mac.

Wherever you go, plan to take him. If you have let his Obedience work slide, now is the time to start working with him so you both will have confidence in his behavior in unusual situations. If you are training Mac and he will soon be ready for entering Trials you can have some very special days ahead. Why not think about entering shows on your vacation? People with Scotties always have a door opener in Mac's wagging tail, quizzical look, and innate dignity. Entering a Scottie in distant Obedience Trials will quickly bring you new friends, acquaintances, and experiences. While AKC Obedience Trial requirements are the same throughout the country, you will see different methods of handling, different commands, and in talking to others you will gain many helpful tips in training methods. It will be a great experience for both of you.

Consider Canadian shows. You will find the competitors there friendly, helpful, and interested in how you and Mac are making out in the ring and wishing you great success—and equally sympathetic when things don't go as you had hoped. The Canadian Kennel Club rules in Obedience are very similar to those of the AKC. Novice exercises in the U.S. and Canada are basically the same with the exception of the Stand for Examination. In the States the exercise is done off lead while in Canada it is done on lead. The points for each exercise are a bit different with more points being allocated to the free heeling in Canada. In the recall your hands can be other than hanging at your side but must remain still once placed. There can be as many as 15 in the group exercise in Canada while the AKC limits the group to 12. There is a difference in the rules governing entering Novice A from those in this country. There are a few differences in the Open and Utility work but none so great that you and Mac cannot quickly make the adjustment. The work is essentially the same.

Write to the Canadian Kennel Club, 2150 Bloor Street West, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M6S 4V7 for their "Regulations and Standards for Obedience Trials" and for a list of Trials to be held in the area you plan to visit. Along with learning Canadian rules you will refresh your knowledge of AKC rules as you compare the two. So add a foreign title to Mac's name and enjoy the camaraderie, good sportmanship and friendliness of the Canadian exhibitors—and see a different part of the world. Although Mac is not presently registered with the Canadian Kennel Club Mac can be entered in Trials by paying a small "Listing Fee" which is noted on all entry forms and enclosed with the entry fee and when you are at the shows you can obtain the information necessary to register him. It is not difficult and worth the effort for Mac cannot add a Canadian title to his name until he is registered.

You can do lots of practicing in the winter to prepare for your vacation shows. If it is impossible to work outside, there are many areas in the house where you can do very effective training. While you may not be able to do long heeling patterns, this is the time to straighten out those crooked sits, wide turns and slow starts. It takes only a few steps but it offers a great opportunity to quickly correct some of Mac's problems. You go into the ring with a score of 200 but all those small errors keep chipping away at that 200 and it need not be. A few minutes every day can eliminate those minor, but frequent infractions from a good performance. Recalls need not be 40 feet long—a prompt response, a good front and nice finish can all be accomplished in a few feet. Don't forget you can leave Mac in one room and call him. Not only does he learn to come to you wherever you are but he adjusts to a straight sit in front regardless of what angle he comes to you. Training long sits and downs in the kitchen is very effective for there are so many great temptations with fragrant scents of food the possibility of something delicious falling on the floor. The Stand for Examination can be done anywhere—on lead or off lead so the house does become a great training area. Novice people have NO excuse not to practice every day regardless of the weather and Mac will enjoy the time and attention given to him.

As for the Open work, few dogs do perfect fronts, finishes, etc. So the heeling work can be practiced just as the Novice work is done. There is always room for "polishing"! The same applies to the recall—and you can include the drop at all sorts of distances and even out of sight which, of course, will re-inforce Mac's realization that he must drop on command whether or not he sees you. This alone could save his life someday if he were running into danger. As for the stays, out of sight is a breeze as you go about your work in various parts of the house. And you can practice retrieving—throw the dumbbell at odd angles, under chairs, out of sight even. Mac will soon learn that wherever it goes he must bring it back to you, not just when you throw it out straight and in sight. There will be days when it will bounce strangely in the ring and be anything but a nice straight retrieve. Here is your opportunity to prepare Mac for such an eventuality. As for retrieving over the high jump, don't forget a board across the hall will provide that solid jump—and Mac will learn over the jump is the only way to go out and bring the dumbbell back. As for the broad jump, if you have room, then the two boards can be brought inside for you do not need great distance for this exercise. If your practice boards are too wide, make two "boards" out of books covered with white sheets and to be as close to regular boards as possible and placed as the two boards would be. Send Mac over. He may be a bit confused at first but work with him and very shortly he will understand—and you will re-inforce the idea when you say "over", it is over objects other than those two white boards in class and in the ring. It will help eliminate a great deal of splashing around in puddles! So again, Open people—you can work inside and Mac will be a more consistent and dependable worker for it.

Practicing Utility inside can be done too. The hand signals can be worked in any room or hall as can the scent discrimination exercise. If you don't have the width of the ring in any room, you can still do the glove exercise—just put them closer together and Mac will realize he must watch you and think. Unless you have a good size basement or attic, the directed jumping may have to wait for better weather. You can accomplish a great deal working inside.

It all comes down to the fact that neither rain, sleet or snow should keep you from practicing—these are only feeble excuses—and Mac deserves better than that.

BROTHER'S KEEPERS

Who draws his water, makes his meals, and takes him out for walks?

Who brushes him and plays with him?
Who listens when he talks?

Who trims his nails and cuts his hair:
who takes him to the Vet?

And who makes sure he gets his bath in case he should forget?

It seems I take good care of him
as far as folks can see.

But why I gladly do all this,
nobody questions me.

Whose cool wet nose comes nuzzling to smile-start my day?

When it comes time to leave for work,
who wags me on my way?

And who barks me back home again when my workday is done?

Who takes my troubles off my mind and makes me Number One?

If I should scold or bawl him out, who doesn't hold a grudge?

Who always loves me as I am and never stops to judge?

It looks like I take care of him
as far as folks can see.

In fact, the opposite is true and he takes care of me.

Am/Can. Ch. Passmore's Fantasia

Cub's a little Mexican . . . a little Canadian
But All American

"Cubby Sue" has gone international. She's crossed the border . . . north and south.

Following up her American Championship finish at the 1985 Greater Dallas Scottish Terrier Club Specialty, Cub completed a Canadian Championship in August. She also is halfway to a Mexican title. Her Canadian finish was owner-handled at the C.K.C.'s largest outdoor show, the Barrie Kennel Club, under Judge Robert Moore. After her first litter this winter, Cub will head south of the border again to finish what she started in Mexico with two Group 2 placements. She's co-owned by Jeannie Passmore.

D-DAY PLUS 21

by Carole Fry Owen

D-Day was back-to-school day. My children were in classes again. Why not the dog, too? Passmore's Fascination had completed her American and Canadian championships—graduated, so to speak—and I needed another challenge. What more appropriate day than this for her matriculation into graduate school. The thesis would be basic obedience commands. It was time she knew them.

Like many Scottish Terrier owners who show, I had been reluctant to attempt structured obedience work while my bitch was out after championship points. Would it take away that beautiful fire?

I knew it hadn't ruined Cubby's companion, Lucky. That "what-a-cute-puppy"-sized Scottie had earned her AKC Companion Dog Degree and even the STCA's beautiful 1984 C.D. bowl. She heels, sits, comes, stands, downs and stays on command (well, usually), yet still bristles with the best of them when an alien threatens her territory. Lucky's terrierness is still intact after obedience training.

That same spirit, but more so, is what I've loved in Cubby. My greatest delight has been to watch Cub do her Boss Dog act, threatening doomsday daily to every dog on our 1½-mile morning circuit. She's sent all but the foolhardy black pug into regular retreat.

For months I debated whether to train Cubby. The fact was: she seemed not to think. She acted. This is the dog that munched a Doberman whose careless owner brushed him against her outside the Scottie ring in San Marcos. This is the dog that in El Paso charged a collie to cries of "Oh, those terrible Scotties." This is the dog that in Abilene forsook her mistress, who was spread-eagled under the stationwagon, to fly after a passing German Shepherd.

Was this a trainable dog? More important, did I want to risk "wimping" her? What even made me think this dog could learn? Certainly nothing in her past, but my curiosity finally won. Then, too, I was a bit embarrassed to have a dual champion who was un-schooled. It was a bit like an un-churched minister's child in the parsonage.

On Sept. 3, 1985, Cub and I started school. With no local obedience class in the offing, I determined it'd have to be a private school, the home classroom type with me as governess. Disney trainer William Koehler's movie book was our text. Koehler, however, would never approve the way we by-passed his attention-getting chapter, "The Foundation."

Our first two weeks were spent out the front door on the street. I'd command, "Cubby, sit," while pushing her reluctant black bottom against asphalt. Koehler said this stage should take at least four days. At least! I smirked, having trained one terrier already.

Cub's problem-solving had never impressed me, so I stretched the show-and-tell sits into two weeks. We'd "heel" then "sit," "heel" then "sit," breaking occasionally for "stand" and "stay." Long past the time Cub had a glimmer of the concept, I continued to apply bottom to street.

Only at the end of two weeks did I permit her to sit unassisted upon command. That day was her first opportunity for an "F" in sitting. Upon her eventual and inevitable failure to sit, I used one of Koehler's humane corrections. If that piques your curiosity, check out The Koehler Method of Dog Training from your public library. Suffice it to say that on that very day Cubby accomplished dependable automatic no-command sits each time we'd stop.

Anyone training a veteran of the breed ring has an advantage. Obedience groundwork already has rubbed off painlessly. Heeling will be easy to teach. The stand for inspection will be a snap. The stays are not hard either—whether "stand-stay," "sit-stay" or "down-stay." The fact is: none of the novice commands will be hard for the ring-wise dog, at least in the pristine environment of the backyard.

"But what about outside my yard?" you might rightly ask. If you want to see the innovative interpretations of commands, take the Diehard some place new. More important, take him somewhere new if you want him to learn.

Keys to both testing a dog's competence and cementing its learning are distractions. You won't find them at home. Safeway's electric eye door and the rattly grocery carts that roll out it worked wonders for me when training Lucky. So did a shopping mall sidewalk. Next on my own training itinerary is a workout beside the corrals at the county livestock auction. To a dog, these adventures equate with a trip to Europe, and Scotties are Chevy Chases of the dog world.

But by D-Day Plus 19, we weren't ready for The Big Trip. We just needed some downhome distractions Cubby couldn't refuse. A rendezvous was arranged with her arch enemy, the neighborhood Airedale, Fitzgerald. His silhouette on the horizon had always sent Cub into a barking, raging charge. Her war strategy—"first bite is last bite"—heretofore always had been averted only by the confines of a lead, certainly by no command.

As Cubby innocently practiced her repertoire of heels, sits and stays in our usual spot on the street, Fitzgerald turned the corner. I wasn't surprised when Cub suddenly forgot "heel" and flew at Fitzgey.

Bill Koehler had suggested a mighty surprise, an instant turn in the opposite direction. I followed his advice. The choke chain and lead flipped her into position at heel once again. My obliging neighbor continued to move his temptation nearby, and I heeled the charging Cub by Fitzgey again and again. In no less than 15 minutes, Cub was strutting past him at heel. What's more, she was civil at each "sit-stay" command in his presence. That was D-Day Plus 19, a turning point.

A few days earlier we had started kitty-testing. Just around the same corner Fitzgey had turned is the Land of Cats: white and yellow ones, skinny black ones, calicoes, tiger stripes, Siamese—at any time of day. Cub's enthusiasm for what my daughter calls "the night-stalkers" knows no limits. She hits the front door in a hissy if one should bebase her yard. Properly harnessed when in pursuit, she surely could give some tot a merry dogcart ride.

With this feline prejudice in mind, on D-Day Plus 14 we moved sit-stays to where Cubby would enjoy a panorama of cats. Persistence soon had her staying when she'd rather be chasing. Each day the cats were more inquisitive—brazen, Cub would say. They came closer . . . and closer.

Today was the ultimate test, the reason I title this piece, "D-Day Plus 21." Today Skinny Black Cat minced right into Cubby's face and sniffed her nose (I mean TOUCHED IT!) Cub maintained her composure and SAT-STAYED.

Next we heeled back and forth past Skinny Black Cat. Cub looked quite coy. She'd faced off the enemy! I'll admit it still took abrupt about-faces to keep her heeling with me, and not with the cat. However, I could see my shows of force had not broken Cub's spirit. Had I, in fact, ever seen her so alert, so pulled-together?

When I finally called time, Cubby's tail was a virtual flag of victory. She knew she hadn't said "uncle." She'd simply internalized her passion, and it showed in the way she carried herself. Was it actually delight with which she rubbernecked the little pest which trailed us home. Envisioning a perpetual parade of felines, she must have been certain, "Now the world will be out of my window."

Has obedience wimped this Scottie? I'd say not. Her fire's not out, just under control by the volunteer fire department.

Thus far, I've restricted obedience work to a special choke chain collar and leather lead. Whether it's right to let a dog shed obedience as easily as a choke chain, I'll not venture. However, Cubby can tell the difference between leads. She does not sit on an exercise or show lead. Apparently she recognizes that her exercise lead means no commands: she's Boss Dog. That lets me still have the pleasure of her free expression—rowdiness, if you please. It's that little sugar, a little spice, a little Jekyll, a little Hyde that I love. Obedience has not destroyed it.

Will he carry on into the obedience ring? I don't know. Three minutes off-lead wedged between Rottweilers, Doberman Pinschers and a dozen such big-big dogs is a long time for a Scottie, and an eternity for any terrier handler. Can I trust this bundle of impulse that far? Ask me somewhere around D-Day Plus 120, or better yet D-Day Plus 365.

THE GROOMING CORNER

The Grooming Corner will be presented every quarter in the Bagpiper. If you have a grooming tip or grooming question, drop a note to the Grooming Editor, Joann Glaser at 18600 W. Edwards Rd. Antioch, IL. 60002.

USING PUMICE STONE

Ann Wooldridge gave us this tip to make stripping or plucking the Scottish coat much easier on your hands. Ann fashioned a piece of pumice stone roughly the shape of a robin's egg. The small stone is held in the crook of your index finger. You simply grasp the hairs between your thumb and the pumice as if you are hand stripping.

The pumice stone is fashioned to fit your individual hand. This is done by gently rubbing against some concrete such as a sidewalk.

Pumice stone may be a little hard to find. Ann purchases her supply from a swimming pool maintenance company. Pool companies call this "Pool Stone". They use this to clean the tile on pool walls.

For more information you can call Ann Wooldridge at 415-388-6520.

An Open Letter to My Fellow Members

Dear Friends,

For the past two years I have served as your National Trophy Chairman, and have communicated with many of you by letter as well as by telephone. I am writing this letter to you because I am truly concerned about the relatively small number of our membership who support the Trophy fund drive each year. With over 650 member units, our response is usually 60-65, or about 10% of our total membership.

For the faithful whom I can always count on, many, many thanks for your continued support. For the others, please note well. We have seen an increase of over 20% in the price of silver in one year. We need the contributions of everyone, no matter how big or small, if we are to continue to give quality trophies at our shows. Please respond when you receive your next trophy solicitation letter!

This is your club and it needs your support!

Thanks . . .
Helen Prince

P.S. It is too late for the 1986 Rotating Specialty, but there is always Montgomery County, 1986!

In Memory

Dorothy K. Morris-Speight

Scottish Terrier fanciers were very saddened to learn of her sudden death on October 14, 1985.

Dorothy had been active in Scotties for almost forty years. She had been a member of the PHA for about thirty years, during which time she exhibited a variety of other breeds as well.

Her "Scot's Delight" prefix was a well-known one on the east coast. She exhibited and finished a number of champions: among them were Champion Scot's Delight Gay Flirt, Champion Scot's Delight Gidget's Gadget, Champion Scot's Delight Rough Rider, Champion Scot's Delight Short Stop and Champion Scot's Delight Wild Honey.

Dorothy was active in a number of dog clubs and had held offices in the STCA, STCGW and STCGB.

As a professional Handler, Dorothy excelled with all she showed and was always sincere in her efforts to help any Scotie fancier. Although semi-retired the last few years, Dorothy had been a fixture at local shows, specialties and Montgomery County. She loved to get together for a good feast afterward and "talk dogs." She had a most remarkable memory and could cite show-judge-dog and handler without hesitation.

She is survived by her loving husband, John and a son, Bill.

Her ready smile, eagerness to help and her cheerful laugh will live on in the memories of all who knew her.

CH. SIMONSEZ CHARLIE THE CHARMER

BOS Montgomery County, 1985
BOB Devon, 1985

#1 Scotty Mid-year, 1985 (TT Knight Systems)

“Charlie” is proudly owned by his breeder, E. Louise Simon, and is under the excellent management of his agent, Bergit Coady. Shown 75 times, Charlie has accumulated 48 BOB’s, 23 BOS, and 21 Group Placements. We are extremely grateful to Bergit and her staff, and also to the judges who have acknowledged the quality of this lovely little fellow.
