COVER STORY

Ch. Sandgreg's Foxmoor (Ch. Sandgreg's Editorial x Ch. Sandgreg's Charity) pictured winning the Stca Nat. speciality at New York under noted Terrier Authority Ric Chashoudian.

Johnny's show career has been very limited; not shown in the last year and a half. He finished with 3-5 point majors in STCC Spec at great Western, Beverly Hills K.C., and WSTC Spec.

We would like to thank John & Barbara DeSaye (Sandgreg) who bred Johnny, for their long years of association, for allowing us to own Johnny and show some truly exceptional scotties.

As for Johnnys future he has sired some wonderful puppies and we can only hope he can do for the breed what Charity and Tory have done. He will be shown on a limited basis.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The S.T.C. Of Greater New York certainly did an exceptional job of hosting the National Rotating Specialty in February '86. The Hospitality room displayed an exceptional selection of delicious food, drinks, and desserts. Hot foods were hot, cold foods were cold, and believe me, everything was just great. At this event, organization just filled the air everywhere, the Hospitality, Dinner, and the Show. I personally want to thank the New York Club for a surpassing job, well done!!

No doubt, by now perhaps everyone is wondering, "where is our Handbook"?? ... There was an abundance of research and correspondence necessary to compile this edition properly. Even our Constitution & By-Laws needed minor corrections, in fact one correction had to be mailed to the membership, to receive their approval. In essence, time schedules were delayed, however, as of this writing, we are very close to completion. Mike Cook has come up with an excellent format, and Mike has informed me that all the Committees responsible for the contents have done an exceptional job. Our new Handbook should be in the mail no later than July 1st.

Please refer to the National Show Chairmans report listed in the Summary Of The Meeting Of The Board Of Directors, February 8, 1986, elsewhere in this issue. The Sweepstakes for Montgomery County will be held on Saturday, October 4, 1986 at a site in close proximity to the Westchester Inn at 2:00 P.M.* We have requested an early Judging Schedule from the Devon Kennel Club so they would not conflict. This is expensive and requires a lot of additional work (more or less the same as preparing for an independent show) However, Kathy Brown, National Show Chairman, has this well organized, it should be a great event.

I would like to close, by informing all of you of some real good news. The Board Of Directors at our last meeting in Cranford, New Jersey, voted unanimously to have the marked catalog, results only, reduced in size and printed in the Bagpiper.....CHEERS!!

John H. DeSaye, President

SUMMARY OF THE MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE SCOTTISH TERRIER CLUB OF AMERICA

Coachman Inn, Cranford, N.J.
February 8, 1986

President John DeSaye called the meeting to order at 9:30 a.m.

Officer and Board Members present were:

President	Mr. John DeSaye
Vice President	Ms. Kathi Brown
Corresponding Secretary	Mrs. Jackie Seelbach
Recording Secretary	Mrs. Betty McArthur
Treasurer	Mrs. Neatha Robinson
Delegate to the AKC	Dr. T. Allen Kirk, Jr.
Directors:	Mr. John Cohen; Mr. Michael Cook; Ms. Cindy Cooke; Mr. Richard Fowler; Mrs. Sandi Hach; Mrs. Helen Prince and Ms. Ann Wooldridge.

The chair entertained a motion to accept the minutes as received. John Cohen requested clarification regarding his opposing vote of new members. Clarification: There was a blanket motion to accept new members as presented including one additional application received after the two week deadline. John Cohen opposed the additional applicant, not the new members in total. The Recording Secretary advised she had left out a motion in the minutes of the After Dinner Meeting under Old Business. The Motion by Cindy Cooke/Michael Cook to amend the SOP under Nominating committee guidelines to accept professional handlers for Board positions. Motion failed—2 ayes/7 nays/ 3 abstained.

Corresponding Secretary's report: A list of the correspondence sent and received since the last meeting was distributed and the following action was taken:

Regional Club Specialties approved:

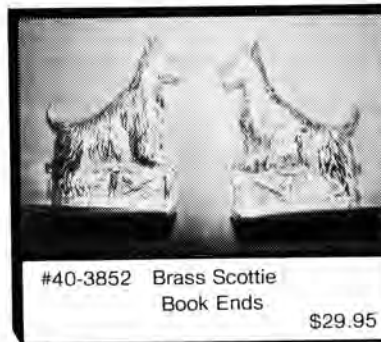

Heart of America STC	March 14, 1986
Greater Dallas STC	March 21, 1986
Greater Dayton STC	March 29, 1986
San Francisco Bay STC	April 12, 1986
STC of Greater Atlanta	April 13, 1986
STC of Greater Baltimore	April 18, 1986
STC of New England	May 30, 1986
Washington State STC	June 6, 1986
STC of Chicago	June 14, 1986
STC of Greater Houston	August 7, 1986
STC of Greater Louisville	August 29, 1986
STC of Michigan	September 9, 1986
STC of Western Virginia	September 19, 1986
STC of Greater Washington, D.C.	October 10, 1986
STC of Northern Ohio	October 25, 1986

Requests received from both Dog Fancy Magazine and Dog World for a columnist from the STCA. Both Kennan Glaser and Cindy Cooke volunteered. Motion Seelbach/Wooldridge to accept Kennen Glaser as columnist for Dog Fancy, advising his columns be written by him as an independent Scottish Terrier breeder, not as a representative of the STCA and to keep his columns on a pet medium. Motion carried. Cindy Cooke accepted the position with Dog World Magazine.

Request received for assistance in obtaining registration papers for a puppy imported from England. The owner purchased a puppy at 7 weeks of age, advertised in Vogue Magazine. The advertizer of Princeton N.J. has been importing puppies from England as early as 5 weeks of age. Corresponding Secretary Jackie Seelbach contacted the AKC, however they have no power to control this action. Motion: Brown/Wooldridge to correspond with the STCE., notify them of the situation as we see it, request they notify their membership to be extremely careful, and to advise us of any information they come across. Motion carried Our letter is to be sent to the Breeders and Exhibitors with a postscript to Miss Blackstone and Mrs. Wright requesting they publish this information through-out the local regional clubs within Great Britain and Ireland.

Letter of resignation Ms. Jeannie Passmore sent in a letter resigning from the Board of Directors of the STCA advising that unforeseen circumstances would prohibit her from attending future board meetings.

Treasurer's Report: Neatha Robinson distributed reports of the General Ledger Trial Balance; the Income Statement and Balance sheet and the Proposed Budget for 1986. Her full report will be listed in another section of this issue. She also proposed that the monies from the Stalter Fund be placed in a Money Market Account instead of a C.D. as they could be entered into without penalty. Motion: Robinson/Wooldridge to accept the proposal Motion - Cohen/Cooke to amend the proposal to keep the $10,000. Stalter Fund in the C.D. and the interest earned in a Money Market and any interest that accrues on the CD annually be placed in the interest account. Amendment accepted, Motion carried. Neatha also advised she was having difficulty with bounced checks and requested a policy be established to correct this problem. Motion: Kirk/Wooldridge A ten (10) dollar charge be placed on every bounced check and this notice be placed in the Bagpiper. Motion carried.

Committee Reports:

National Show Chairman: Kathi Brown advised the deadline dates for Montgomery County and forwarded this information to the Corresponding Secretary, Advertising Ch. and Trophy Ch. She also advised that the West Chester Inn has reserved a block of 80 rooms for the STCA. If their planned construction is completed an additional 40 rooms will be available to us.

The AKC has advised her that new regulations limit a Regular Class Judge to 150 dogs when a Sweepstakes is to be held on the same day. Based on our entries at Montgomery County three options were considered:

- a. If a judge overdraws assign an extra judge to complete.
- b. If a judge overdraws only a few, assign an extra judge for the non-regular classes.
- c. Have the Sweepstakes the day before.

Motion: Wooldridge/Cook to move the Sweepstakes to Saturday. Committee to check on available sites immediately. Motion carried.

Handbook: Editor Michael Cook advised he was waiting for the Breed History, a Health Article and the update on the Constitution and By-Laws. Everything else was typed and ready for printing.

President John DeSaye proposed we establish a Constitution Amendment Committee and recommended it be chaired by Marjorie and John Cohen. Motion: McArthur/Seelbach to accept the proposal. Motion carried.

Mini Workshop Proposal: Kathi Brown submitted the following outline for Mini Workshops:

- a. That all requests for workshops be submitted in writing to an individual designated by the Board. This administrator will not be a funded presenter and shall report directly to the Board. He/she shall have the authority to grant Workshops up to an amount specified by the Board for that year.
- b. A list of presentors be developed utilizing the combined talents of the STCA. This list be by region.
- c. The administrator shall notify the applicant's of the designated presenter for that region. We pay travel expenses only.
- d. Those desiring another presenter shall be funded up to $100.

A PERFECT TEN!

It may not make the Guinness Book of World Records, but we sure are proud. Ch. Wychwyre Liberty was bred to Ch. Sandregg's Second Edition and, 65 days later, this was the result.

The Clan is pictured at eight weeks of age and are all happy and healthy, totally unaware of their accomplishment.

But Libby is; she'd settle for five or maybe six next time, thank you. Incidentally, there were six girls and four boys.

The Board suggested a committee to set up a format to include—1. Grooming. 2. How to present a Specialty 3. How to present Hospitality for guests/exhibitors. 4. Travel arrangements and hospitality for judges. To consider presentors from all areas to work within their regions. The financial limit to be controlled by the annual budget. Motion: Brown/Wooldridge to accept the proposal. Motion: Brown/Fowler the Corresponding Secretary be the administrator. Motion: McArthur/Cooke the committee be comprised of Helen Prince, Jackie Seelbach, Ann Wooldridge and chaired by Kathi Brown. All motions carried.

Committees and Chairman for 1986:

Advertising	Armando and Berenda Perez-Gili
Awards	Helen Prince, Betty McArthur and Richard Fowler
Bagpiper Editor	Nancy Van Meter
Constitution Amendment	John and Marjorie Cohen
Gazette Columnist	Evelyn Kirk
Historian	Ann Wooldridge
Judges Education	Nancy Fingerhut, Betty Cooper and Bart Lapin
Mini Workshops	to be determined
Obedience	Ruth Tryon Ch., Faith Erlacher, Faith Harrop and Susanne Moodie
Regional Clubs Rep.	Marjorie Cohen
Specialty Arrangements	Robert and Margaret Young
Annual Tally	Ken Spradling, Ch., Claudia Leffler and Larae Shafer
Trophies	Barbara DeSaye
Ways n Means	Conrad and Donna Ambrette and Faith Harrop
Working Terrier	Claudia Leffler

Honorary Member Status: The constitution, by-laws and minutes were researched for policy on the status of honorary members. There is no written policy on record. Motion: McArthur/Fowler To add to policy—Honorary members shall not be entitled to vote in Club affairs or eligible to hold office in the Club, but shall be eligible for annual trophies and awards offered by or thru the Club. Amendment: Wooldridge the Corresponding Secretary incorporate this statement in her letter offering honorary membership. That the complete letter be attached to the Corresponding Secretaries duties in the SOP. Amendment accepted, motion carried.

Veterinary Donations: John Cohen suggested that rather than donate the $100.00 allotted annually, keep the allotment. At such time as we all agree on deserving fund distribute a larger amount which would be more effective. Motion: Cooke/McArthur to ask our Regional Club, Rep. Chairman Marjorie Cohen to have the Health Chairman investigate a likely candidate or project. Motion carried.

Clarification of a Professional Handler: Cindy Cooke requested a more defined clarification of a professional handler than our guidelines outline. Motion: Kirk/Wooldridge. That some committee or individual write their definition of what they think a professional handler is and bring it to the Board for discussion in June. Motion carried. John Cohen nominated Dr. Kirk to chair this committee, Ann Wooldridge volunteered to serve on it.

Ways n Means Chairman Conrad Ambrette a proposal to have past West Minister winners reproduced under a limited edition for a new Ways n Means project. The details of his proposal is outlined elsewhere in this issue.

Bagpiper Report: Nancy Van Meter sent in her report and outlined that this last issue was the largest issue ever (80 pages). She advised that the mailing date was 6 to 8 weeks after the published deadline date. Because of complaints received regarding advertizing she requested that advertizers with specific layout requirements send their ads in camera ready. Nancy also reported she would like to solicit the Dog food companies back as advertizers. The Board discussed her requests and reviewed the complaints which had been received. The following decisions were made: a. It was suggested that Sandi Hach offer assistance and direction where

New Business:

Why Rotating Specialties were formed: Dr. Kirk reported that the first rotating specialties were formed to stimulate interest, show quality dogs from all areas, educate people about the breed and help form regional clubs. The idea was to rotate to areas away from the existing regional clubs who already had the opportunity to have specialties. With this in mind he suggested we consider rotating to areas where there has been an interest in showing and a desire to form a regional club. Motion: McArthur/Kirk to table any decision until the next meeting when the new format for workshops will be presented. Motion carried.

New Members: Corresponding Secretary Jackie Seelbach presented the list of new member applications received. There were 28 units—43 members. Motion: Brown/Fowler to accept the new members as presented. The new members are listed in the Welcome Wagon Section of this issue.

Nominating Committee: The Nominating Committee selected for 1986 are: Chairman Berenda Perez-Gili; Sanford Rosenfeld and Linda Nolan. The alternates are Gail Gaines and John Sheehan.

Judge Selection Montgomery County 1987: The Sweepstakes and Regular Class Judges were chosen for 1987. Notification shall be published upon receipt of acceptance.

Membership Suggestions: The following suggestions were received by President John DeSaye.

1. To have the Marked Catalog, results only, reduced in size and printed in the Bagpiper. Motion: Kirk/Fowler to accept the above suggestion. Motion carried.

2. To present our Montgomery County and Rotating Specialty Judges with a gift. Motion: McArthur/Brown to accept this suggestion starting with Montgomery County 1986. Motion carried. Motion: Seelbach/Brown to determine the price and type of gift at the June meeting. Motion carried.

3. To list the Champions of each Dog/Bitch who place in the Top 10 of our annual awards. Motion: Prince/McArthur to accept this proposal. Motion carried.

Field Trial Certificates: Helen Prince presented a letter from the STC of Greater Baltimore requesting the STCA recognize and award a certificate similar to the Working Terrier Award for those Scottish Terriers that have completed the requirements for these trials. Motion: Brown/Wooldridge to submit the petition to our Chair.

Board Replacement: The replacement to fill the vacancy on the board created by the resignation of Jeannie Passmore was chosen. Notification shall be published upon receipt of acceptance.

Summer Meeting Location: The next meeting of the Board of Directors will be held at the Hilton Inn, Burbank California on June 20, 1986.

Motion to adjourn—Seelbach/McArthur, motion carried. The meeting was adjourned at 6:27 p.m.

STRIPPING, PART 2

In this issue we will discuss two methods of bringing a Scottie's coat into show condition, Rolling and Staging. Staging is sometimes referred to as Sectioning; we will however refer to this process as Staging. Staging is a method of stripping different parts of the Scottie at different times to achieve different levels of hair length. Those areas requiring fill will be stripped first and those areas that should be kept short are stripped last. For example, the withers, which is usually a low area is stripped first and the rump which is sometimes high is stripped last and is kept short. In this way the topline will appear level. The advantage to this method is that you can prepare the Scottie for a specific show or series of shows and he will be in peak condition. The disadvantage to staging is that the coat will not last in peak condition for very long.

In Rolling, all hair is not stripped from sections of the dog, but only a percentage of hair is stripped. In those areas where the hair is to be kept short, like the rump, a higher percentage of hair is stripped at each time; where fill is required, a smaller percentage of hair is stripped. To maintain peak condition on the rolled coat, it must be worked at least once a week. Because the hairs to be stripped at any one session will be the longest hairs, if you look closely at a rolled coat you will see hairs of several lengths covering the area.

The advantages of rolling is that the dog can be kept in peak condition almost indefinitely, and by adjusting the percentage of hairs pulled in any area, you can camouflage faults and enhance good qualities. The disadvantage to rolling is that it must be done on a routine basis.

LETTERS TO THE GROOMING CORNER

Dear Joann,

I was happy to see the BAGPIPER start the "The Grooming Corner" in the November, 1985 issue. I have a grooming tip which you may want to use in your column.

I have just discovered a great stripping knife guaranteed not to cut coat. It has no teeth but will greatly aid in hand stripping. I call it a "poor man's stripper". The device is Dr. Scholl's Countoured Foot Beauty File. The approximate cost is $3.40 and it comes with a handle and a countoured blade to comfortably fit your hand. The foot beauty file can be purchased at most pharmacies.

If you need further information, please contact me at (713) 481-0773.

Yours truly,

James L. Justice
12010 S. Downe Court
Houston, TX 77089

The Grooming Corner will be published in every issue of the BAGPIPER. If you have a comment, tip or question, please address your inquiry to Joann Glaser, 18600 W Edwards Rd. Antioch, IL 60002 or call at (312) 395-3436.

GOING PLACES

NEW JERSEY

STONEHEDGE KENNELS      ANDOVER      Tom Natalini and Don Massaker

For the past thirteen years, "Stonehedge Kennels" has been located in the northwestern county of New Jersey—Sussex; we're 48 miles from New York City, in the township of Byram. The Sparta and Kittitany mountains give us our glens, vistas, large pine trees, and clear water. Besides the main house and guest house, there are two separate buildings on the property. One is the Boarding Kennel (all breeds), indoor/outdoor covered runs, heated and air conditioned. The other concrete building is our office, grooming room, kitchen and bath, with a room with 6 runs for the show dogs. On the outside of this building are 18 covered runs.

We started out with a pet shop Scot—didn't most of us?! He died at four years old of Hodgkins disease—but he did his job—we fell in love with the breed. I called Dr. Tonzola, the vet I had worked for during college. He told me of Johnny Murphy, who became our mentor. Johnny told us of a beautiful litter at Raab Hill Kennel in Wycoff, which was owned by Bob and Pat Marshall. We purchased "Raab Hill Rockette" who became our first Champion. Don showed her and Tom learned to groom from Pat. "Julie" as she was called, was a black, typey, beautiful bitch who is STILL missed. This bitch went on to finish her Championship by going WB, BW, and BOS at the National Specialty in New York. She became our foundation. Combining Barberry Knowe, Raab Hill, and Marlorain lines have produced a number of Champions and Specialty winners. Due to Tom's handling, Stonehedge has had a low profile for the past several years. However, two of our Stonehedge bitches, Stonehedge Daisy Mae" and Stonehedge Sand Pebbles" have recently been RWB at the National Specialty and Columbia all terrier specialty respectively. Our breeding program continues with the best lines of Barberry Knowe.

We have been very fortunate in the Northeast to have had some of the best kennels and their stock to choose from. Recently we have been involved with the Anstamm line. Perhaps the Scot we're most proud of was Champion Ramtree Stonehedge King Arthur "Hermie". This wonderful dog went on to produce a number of Champions, two of which went on to Best in Shows in Canada.

Going back to our beginning, in the early sixties, we can't help reminis on all the help and guidance we received from the Stalters, Barbara Kingsbury, Martha Melekov, Lorraine Davis the Marshall's, Seth Campbell, Paul and Evelyn Silvernail and in particular, Johnny Murphy, "Mr. Scottie". We still miss this wonderful man and through him we follow his credo "always help the newcomer, for they are the future breeders and exhibitors." We welcome all visitors to Stonehedge, and are willing to help and assist any newcomer—even though we ourselves are still learning.

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK

In 1978 I got my first Scottish Terrier Mactavish's Raggamuffin, better known as "Miss Muffin". She was everything you didn't want in a scottie except for that indomitable terrier spirit. We nicknamed her "Betty Grable Legs" for they were that noticeable. We had our share of dermatological and allergy problems. We sulked hours on end for imaginary slights. I thought this is really not what I expected a scottie to look like and maybe a companion would improve her disposition.

So I decided to buy a show dog. I wanted a scottie that looked like a picture and a friendly one at that. However, finding one in the New York Area was not easy. A friend of mine was a member of the STCA and loaned me his Bagpiper. So the calls began. I called Breeders in the area but puppies were not available. I started calls outside the area and finally got in touch with Cindy Cooke than in Ohio.

Upon confirmation that she was connected with Anstamm Kennels, I stated that I would like to buy a black male show dog. There was silence on the other end and I repeated myself. Cindy finally said, "Is this a joke?" Stunned I replied, "I beg your pardon?" Cindy explained "Nobody calls for a male show dog, everyone wants a bitch". At that point, I was not interested in procuring a bitch since I was not about to breed. I wanted a dog that could become a champion and I wanted to learn about dog shows and Breed standards etc. We got down to business. She had a brindle male, very cobbie. My response "what's cobbie?" Cindy explained that he was a very short backed dog. No, I wanted a black dog. Eventually a black 7 mos. male was agreed upon and in August of '82 I obtained Anstamm All American, Harmon. He went into the capable hands of Tom Natalini and so began Harmon's and my entry into the show world.

Harmon's first 2 week-ends brought him 10 points and a major. Our third week-end was to be Montgomery County week-end. Don Massaker at Stonehedge told me "Don't expect too much. If the judge pulls him out for a second look—it's an honor and a second or Third place ribbon would be wonderful." With that knowledge in mind, I went to the show and chatted around ringside, putting half an eye on the ring. It was MY first Montgomery County and lots of people to meet. All of a sudden the Judge, Steve Shaw pulled out Tom and Harmon and now both my eyes were riveted to the ring. He kept going back to "Harmon" and then he won the Open Dog Class. At that point I shrieked "He won!" Other knowledgeable veterans broke in with "You have to win over the other Dog Classes." OH! However, Harmon did go Winners Dog and I remember running a mile to find a phone and tell everyone home, "He won and got a 5 point major. He finished and he's a Champion." Now I came back ring side and looked at those trophies. Linda Nolan was there and I asked her what all those trophies were for and she explained as best she could, probably in disbelief. Well, Harmon went BOB and BOW that day. Linda came back and said "For someone who doesn't know about trophies, you sure did win half the table". I was in a daze! Trying to smile is hard when you're in shock!

I'll never forget that day and the Champagne and dinner up at Stonehedge Kennel that night. My precious Harmon came home for a few days. "Miss Muffin" was not impressed and promptly beat up on him for being away.

It's been 3½ years since that eventful day. Harmon has gone on in limited showing, placing in the top 10 under various systems. He has sired sound, happy puppies and has 6 champions to date and others pointed.

I have since procured a bitch and gotten into the whelping box. I have been out in the ring showing and have every conceivable grooming tool that every self-respecting novice can afford. There are still many mysteries that grooming presents but give it a few more years and I'll lick half of them. There are times when I think why not a Jack Russell or a Smooth Fox Terrier? But then I see those Scots sitting in a row watching me and I know why I'll fight the ever growing hair. My dignified Harmon, my ratty "Miss Muffin", Night and Day; Bringing pride laughter, Loyalty and Comfort.

There have been many ups and downs. Dogs are a tricky business but as a member and Officer of the STCGNY I've learned so much and met so many interesting people. I wouldn't change a day of it!

So Beginners, Take Heart! That special dog is out there. Browse at shows, ask questions and determine what type you want and like. Then go to a reliable Breeder and Take the Plunge! You may find your ALL AMERICAN DREAM!

OBEDIENCE

By Ruth Tryon

We all love all our Scotties and yet every so often one comes into our life who seems to be set apart and above the others. We usually attribute this to an especially attractive personality, sweet, lovable and intelligent, and we often are drawn closer to this special dog. Yet, without realizing it, we have touched and developed one of the key factors in any dog and human relationship—the quality of understanding. Somehow you have made this particular dog understand more than the others that you love him. Dog, as a species, responds to this for devotion to man is one of his reasons for his life. In Obedience, it is the key that unlocks the door to that very special rapport held between you and your obedience dog. Conformation dogs you love, while Obedience, field dogs, working dogs you not only love but you share a special understanding and devotion.

As you train Mac, no matter how well you conform to the teaching techniques being used, if Mac does not understand what you want him to do, he is certain not to do it correctly or at very best only on occasion. If you do not understand where Mac is confused it is going to be doubly difficult not only to teach him but to help him over the places in the exercise with which he is having the most difficulty. Therefore, analyze what you are doing, what you are teaching him. Are you asking him to do something for which he does not have the proper learning foundation? Go over what he knows well and what relationship it has to the new exercise, go over how you are teaching him—remember no system is sacred. Before discarding the entire system, try variations of it—think them up yourself and watch Mac's response carefully. We all know Scotties have minds of their own and it is easy to attribute their errors or even failures in the ring to stubbornness, determination to "get even" with us for something we have thought up in our minds, etc. but usually it is because there is still considerable confusion in Mac's mind about the exercise. Maybe you have not been consistent in making sure he does it correctly every time. It all goes back to understanding—once you are sure he understands not only the exercise but that you mean he does it every time, your problem will clear up. Confusion is the same thing as lack of understanding, and understanding is a two way street, as well as Mac understanding what you want, you must learn to read Mac and understand what his problem with a particular exercise is. This is not as difficult to do as it might sound, for Mac, as you watch him carefully, will clue you in.

Watch, too, and see what seems to encourage him. Praise, of course, is always essential—genuine praise, not just saying "Good boy" in a meaningless tone, but saying it with enthusiasm and affection. And then there is food. Many trainers absolutely refuse to use it or permit those training under them to do so. Every dog is different and it seems reasonable to believe that every dog should be handled according to what works best with him. If Mac seems to need more encouragement, try some tid bits—only remember not to overdo it. This is an easy trap to fall into. Use of food with discretion can be, with some dogs a tremendous assistance. Don't hesitate to try it. You will quickly learn when you are overdoing it for Mac will tell you by his attention on the food and not the exercise. At the end of a training session a few special goodies can be a great reward. Heeling is the basis of all Obedience work—and proper and close heeling is often the most difficult exercise to teach. Here food can be of great value in getting Mac not only to stay close to you and right beside you but also to reinforce the "Watch Me". Particularly on the Figure 8 exercise, on the outside turn can you encourage Mac to hurry as he must to keep up with you. This is where we see most of the Figure 8 lagging and if Mac realizes occasionally he may be rewarded on that turn you are going to see an improvement in his work. A few Macs may not be too interested in regular dog goodies. Try very special ones—think about what he seems to particularly enjoy—bits of apple, grapes, put your mind to it and you will find something that will be very special to Mac, maybe even a squeaky toy or a ball. As you think about how to interest him, you will find you are understanding Mac more and more and it will become easier to make Mac understand what you want.

Don't hesitate to use physical force in training—not brutality—but gentle, firm force.

On the halts and sits in the heeling exercise, as you halt, push Mac's rump down so that he sits straight and close to you and then praise him. Just don't do it once or twice but consistently until you suddenly realize that as you reach down to sit him he has already sat in the proper position. Super praise that time! However, the slightest deviation from the correct position calls for you to go back to pushing his rump down for the proper sit. You will be amazed how quickly a nice straight sit by your side will become the only way Mac thinks he should sit. And why a straight sit if you never plan to show him in an Obedience Trial? Remember the more you insist on Mac doing things correctly the more control you will have of him and the quicker response you will have in an emergency. Sloppy work indicates sloppy training. Somehow, the more you demand of Mac, the more he gives and the closer you two become.

Playing with Mac is one of the great parts of Obedience training. Before and after a training session always remember to take a few minutes and play with Mac. Maybe throwing a ball or stick, maybe a brief walk so he can see some new things but let it be a happy relaxed period you two share. It need not be long, but it should be a special time for you and your Mac.

Along with working with Mac and trying to find the areas of his confusion, your attitude can be a great help, or a discouragement to him. Scotties are independent dogs with minds of their own, but they are smart and they respond to their handlers just about in the exact ratio of what their handlers give and ask of them. Too many Scottie people approach Obedience training with the attitude that since Mac is a terrier he will be difficult, stubborn and slow to learn. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Scotties have a great love of life, great exuberance and a great curiosity about everything going on. With that in mind, in our training periods we must always be alert to what they are about to do and remind them they are working with us. They are not difficult, they are simply busy with life. As for stubborn, it is again confusion as to what you mean for them to do. Being strong willed, if they do not understand they will resist doing anything until they do understand, or will do it as they think it should be done. The more you claim Mac is stubborn, the more you should look at how you are handling and teaching him. He loves you, he loves to do things with you—if he could speak he would probably tell you he is confused as to exactly what you want—please explain it more clearly and he will do it. And slow to learn? No again—Scotties are smart. Often if they don't seem to be doing an exercise correctly and pleasing you they will try to do it another way—often resulting in you throwing up your hands and saying Mac is impossible when actually he is trying to please you. You are simply not walking down that two way street of understanding so instead of giving up remember you are really smarter and you are really top dog and use your talents to clear up his confusion.

Terriers, Scotties, Mac included are said to be tough and this is all too often an excuse for not giving your training of Mac your best. To many, tough means stubborn but it actually is tough physically—they must be able to handle physical discomfort easily to be the hunters they are and to go down to an unknown hole after an adversary. Hence, your Mac can take much stronger leash correction than a softer dog. That does not mean that you should mistreat him but it does mean that you should give firm corrections, followed by that great praise ALWAYS. Weak or uncertain leash training is like training without a collar and leash. If that is what you are doing, no wonder Mac does not understand, he is not even getting a message to understand.

Give Mac his chance in Obedience training—which means understanding him—and making sure he understands you, which means a special time for you two together—to learn together, to grow together; which means you won't give up but you two will climb the hills and valleys of learning together and that you will always expect him to be a fine working dog and companion—and he will.

the number of practices from 4 to 1 per month. This change increased the dogs' interest and vastly improved the attitude of the owners.

The following spring our ace construction team went back to work. They dug the extension for the long tunnel. Then they installed a hinged door at the end of the short tunnel that closes off the bait box and allows the dogs to make a right-angle turn into the extension.

As soon as both tunnels were in working order, we realized that having good facilities makes a significant difference in how quickly the dogs progress. Our Scotties made rapid improvement. After months of silent observation, the dogs began to work the bait for sustained periods.

We've also streamlined our "training" for new dogs. We start them in the above-ground, straight tunnel. When they enter and exit that tunnel readily, they graduate to the short underground tunnel. Once a dog has scored 100% in the short tunnel, he can try the long tunnel. This sequence seems to move the dogs along at the fastest pace.

Earlier we tried starting inexperienced dogs in the underground tunnel, but that proved to be a mistake. Most new dogs either refused to enter the tunnel or refused to come out once they got inside. Fortunately, each time a dog failed to come out, we had a compatible dog we could use as a "pusher" to clear the tunnel. Deciding not to push our luck, we changed to our present procedure.

We've found that dogs under 1 year of age seem to have little difficulty learning to go through the short tunnel. However, most take several months—depending on their age when they start go-to-ground work—to reach the point where they will work the bait long enough to get a qualifying score in the short tunnel.

As with any type of activity, the adult dogs progress at their own rates. A very few are working the long tunnel successfully by the end of their first or second practice sessions. However, most advance more slowly, and the advancement is often sporadic. Our dogs reach plateaus that try the patience of us owners to the maximum, but then, that's life with a Scottie. We wouldn't own Scotties if we wanted dogs that always did as they were bidden.

Once we got our equipment working smoothly, we decided it was time to try our hand at hosting a field trial. We held our first trial in June 1985; thirty-four terriers participated. Our Scotties did exceptionally well with 10 qualifying for certificates for receiving perfect scores in the long tunnel. (At our trials, a dog must get a score of 100% in the long tunnel at 3 different field trials to become a champion working terrier.)

Then in November, we held another successful field trial, which we co-hosted with Potomac Cairn Terrier Club. Of the 54 terriers entered, 35 were Scotties and our Scotties did a super job. Two Scotties were the overall winners of the flat and hurdle races and were awarded sporting certificates. (A sporting championship is earned after a dog has been awarded a sporting certificate at three different field trials.)

In go-to-ground competition, 13 Scotties were awarded working certificates for scoring 100% in the long tunnel. This was the third perfect score for three of these dogs so we now have three champion working terriers. Five more earned their second certificates and hopefully will gain their working championships next year. This certificate gave one of these Scotties her field championship since she had previously earned another working certificate and a sporting certificate. (Any combination of sporting and working certificates totalling three is required for a field championship.) In addition, four Scotties received ribbons for scoring 100% in the short tunnel and soon should be competing for their certificates.

We now have 17 Scotties who have earned at least one certificate at a field trial. Dogs that are breed champions, that are working toward their championships, that have earned obedience titles or are in training classes, and that are loving pets participate in our go-to-ground activities. They range in age from 3 months to 11 years. Thus, our go-to-ground practices and trials are providing an opportunity for all our members to participate in a club activity with their dogs as well as providing an opportunity for our Scotties to develop the skills for which they were bred. And, the best part is that both the owners and the dogs are having fun.

Kidding with Scots: Some Special Juniors

by Carole Fry Owen

Copyright 1986, Carole Fry Owen

First North American Serial Rights

How does it feel to have a child on the floor at Madison Square Garden the final night of Westminster?

Pretty special, think Frank and Carol Boatwright, Downers Grove, Ill. Their son Andrew was the young handler with the Manchester in the Terrier Group there.

"I'd like to know how many 13-year-olds have ever shown in the group at Westminster," was his mother's proud comment.

"Andy was practically born at a dog show," laughs Carol Boatwright. "He's grown up in crates."

Andy started showing his family's Westies several years ago, but these days he's exhibiting Scotties in the breed ring and in junior showmanship, too. In fact, Andy was the lone entry in junior showmanship at the STCA National Rotating Specialty in Elizabeth, N.J., during February. He was also in the breed ring there with his new Scottie bitch, Lochnel Sae Sonsie O'Charlain, placing fourth in the stiff 6- to 9-month puppy class against all adult handlers—in both sweepstakes and the regular classes.

"I just hope I make it to the finals," said Andy as he waited for his juniors class to go in the ring at Westminster two days later.

Andy gives much of the credit for his success to his trainer, STCA member Charlene Hallenbeck, Winfield, Ill. The first Scottie he showed in juniors was Mrs. Hallenbeck's Ch. Terriwall's Fire 'N Ice, dam of the young bitch he now co-owns with Mrs. Hallenbeck. Last summer Andy was instrumental in finishing a Canadian championship on another of Mrs. Hallenbeck's bitches, Ch. Quercus Thistle Down. Andy put on most of Thistle's Canadian points, but did let his dad in for a bit of the glory.

What's it take to get to Westminster juniors, let alone the group ring? Eight first places in the open classes of junior handling during the previous year (Jan. 1 to Dec. 31) is the requirement juniors must first meet to enter Westminster, explains Andy. They must be at least 10 years old and under 17 at the time of each qualifying win. This was the second year Andy had qualified for Westminster and competed there.

Among the 77 junior showmanship entries at Westminster, Andy was one of only seven juniors handling terriers. Though he didn't realize his dream of making the junior finals in '86, being before the TV cameras in the group ring must not have been a bad consolation prize.

Some juniors with terriers feel handicapped competing against the large showy breeds. Andy, however, hasn't found judges to be particularly prejudiced against terriers. In fact, he says some judges will tell juniors that the big breeds are harder to handle.

"The Westie I use, she's eye catching. I feel that helps. If you can catch the eye of the judge . . .," muses Andy.

"Want to" is the most important advice Andy gives to other youngsters interested in getting into junior handling with a Scottie. "Just be able to have the nerves that sometimes you need, because like here (at Westminster) you get real nervous waiting."

Andy suggests juniors watch the professional handlers carefully: "Last year at Westminster—George Ward with the Scottie—I have the video tape of that, and it showed me plenty of things to do with a Scottie."

Andy won't admit to modeling himself after any one professional handler, but: "If I see something I like, I'll try it. If it works, I'll use it."

Something as little as holding the lead is important, emphasizes Andy. "I can see all the pictures of George Ward and how he holds it. It's always the same, and it controls the dog."

Andy likes to show terriers as naturally as possible. Training his new Scottie bitch,

"I let her be spunky. She's aggressive...very active. I think that's best," says Andy, "so you can stack them, set them up, and they're still alert. It's better to calm them down than try to perk them up. The Scottie should be as under control as possible, but also as terrier as possible." He likes to show a Scottie bitch "nasty like a female, but also like a lady."

"I've never watched myself," says Andy, looking forward at Westminster to the video taping of junior handling classes there this year. Videotaping is an idea from which he thinks other Scottie juniors would benefit.

"Don't push your kids," Carol and Frank Boatwright advise STCA parents. "If they don't want to do it, don't force them."

"Andy's two older brothers started, but we kind of pushed them," remembers Frank. "They did it just to keep us happy for a year or so."

Some children, "they're just doing it because their parents are insisting. It's a shame. They really don't enjoy it. Then when they lose, they feel guilty," adds Carol.

Should a parent give advice or keep his mouth shut? "That depends on the child. I could give Andy ideas, and he pays attention, but if someone else gives him the same idea," says Carol, "it's not just hair-brained, he pays more attention. He's a typical kid."

Like Andy's trainer Charlene Hallenbeck, Claudia Leffler, Houston, is another STCA member who has coached junior handlers. Her student Naina Gross missed qualifying for Westminster by one win this year. Naina shows Ch. Claudon's Bairn, a dog bred by Mrs. Leffler.

"She took a few classes, but learned mainly from me, from junior books and from in the ring experience. We went to matches, too. I encourage her to watch juniors and professional handlers, and point out handlers I like," describes Mrs. Leffler. Also, I give her various dogs to show at specialties—always fiesty and not terribly trained."

"Naina sets her own goals," continues Mrs. Leffler, "not necessarily to win every show and is pleased at reaching those goals. She is a very serious, intelligent and intense child. The last thing I always tell her before going in the ring is to smile. She is in open juniors now—fun to travel with, a good helper with common sense about taking care of our dogs at the shows—the perfect student, in other words."

Claudia Leffler has coached several other families like Naina's: "I get a good home for the dogs, and they have a chance to get a Scottie in the ring and learn. I have reaped many rewards from the experience—not only a helper, but it makes me feel good to see them perform. Bairn is a super showman. Not easy to show, but always up. He never lets down, even when Naina gets frustrated with him. It's not easy to show a Scottie. I wish more judges appreciated some of the hard parts of showing a Scottie."

One suggestion Mrs. Leffler makes to juniors showing high-powered Scotties is: "Carry them in and out of the ring."

"My biggest panic," the Houston breeder emphasizes, "is getting Bairn in and out of the ring. He is a big, aggressive male. I fear someday he will nail somebody because the juniors in Naina's class don't watch their dogs closely enough. It's up to the junior handling the Scottie to do all the watching!"

Books juniors and their parents may find helpful are: Secrets of Show Dog Handling by Mario Migliorini; The Art of Handling Show Dogs by Frank T. Sabella and Shirley A. Kalstone; Handling Your Own Dog for Show, Obedience and Field Trials by Marcha Covington Thorne; A Guide to Junior Showmanship by Alice J. Boyer; Preparation and Presentation of the Show Dog: The Complete Handling Guide by Betty and Jeff Brucker; Junior Showmanship by Brown and Mason; How to Show Your Own Dog by Nichols; Successful Dog Show Exhibiting by Nicholas; Successful Dog Showing Guide by Jane Forsyth. As well as being available at show concessions, a number of these books can be ordered from Cherrybrook, Route 57, Box 15, Broadway, N.J. 08808.

And so, Scottie parents, be prepared to bow to your juniors. The end product of junior showmanship, according to Frank Boatwright, can be a blow to the parent's ego: It's those times "the handlers say, just let Andy take the dog in. You leave it alone, Frank."

ROTATING SPECIALTY

Elizabeth, New Jersey

Critique of Regular Classes, Mr. Ric Chashoudian

I just got through judging Scottie dogs and I was very pleased with what I had. The kind of dogs that I like are the low, short kind of dogs. I don't like any weediness in Scotties and what I ended up with really pleased me. I'm not too much of a head hunter if I have the right type—but then when it comes down to it, you gotta have the right head and expression.

Winners dog is a beautiful, beautiful little fella. He was in marvelous shape, he walked good, he looked at you good, and low to the ground, right length and shape, short tail. I was real pleased with him.

My Reserve Winners dog was close. I think he came out of one of the minor classes and (I was) very pleased with him. He just fell just a bit in head, but with maybe a little bit more whisker and stuff then he would look better, but he was very close. But I was very pleased with my Scottie dogs.

This is my critique on the bitches. I think they were a very good bunch and I noticed that mouths are awfully good all the way, dogs and bitches; a few missing teeth, but not many. If anybody's observed my judging, I like to see them stand on four feet and show, I don't like to see them 'propped up'. So I do pay a lot of attention to the way a dog stands on four feet and looks at the other ones. I do believe that breed character is very important. I realize that Scotties are stubborn at times so I try to allow for that, but I like to see dogs stand on four legs and look at each other.

My Winners Bitch I thought was a beautiful thing, not over done anywhere, not over done in head, but just generally all around balanced. The Reserve bitch was a beautiful headed one. The coat might be a little tighter on her. She just didn't come at me as good as the other one and I decided the Winners Bitch would come out of the Bred-By-Exhibitor Class. But all in all, I was very pleased; I was especially pleased with temperament.

My Critique of the Best of Breed Class was that I had a few very tough Scotties. I ended up putting up a wheaten dog, which I don't know if it's been done here before, but I really liked him. I think he's one heck of a dog. He is a beautiful sized dog, a great coated dog, a good goer on both ends. As far as wheatens go, they don't have the extreme heads, but he's plenty good in head and has a beautiful pair of ears...I think one of the best wheatens I've ever looked at in my life.

My Best of Opposite Sex was a bitch that I've seen many many times and she's beautiful. She looks at you just as keen as I've ever seen. I've seen her in a little better coat. She pleases you because of the beautiful way she looks at you; she's good going around. I think her condition hurt her a little bit today.

My Best of Winners was the Winners Dog who I think is one very very good dog in great coat.

I had a wonderful time doing this and I hope everybody had as good a time watching as I did doing it. Thank you very much.

First, I want to thank the Scottish Terrier Club of America for asking me to judge the 1986 Rotating Specialty. I was pleased with the assignment and even more pleased with the marvelous entry of 44 Scots. Nearly all of the six classes were well-filled with entries and I had my work cut out in selecting the placements.

I looked for Scotties that filled the picture that I have in my mind, of what a good Scottish Terrier should look like. I like them to be well-bodied and low to the ground, good boned, small ears, nice eyes, clean heads; I like Scotties that move with conviction and that show the true terrier spirit...tail and ears up, with a look of confidence.

I liked all three of my winners: in the six- to nine-month class, Bar-None's Spellbound, owned by Christine and Mike Cook; 9 to 12 month old class, Sandgreg's Society Page, owned by John & Barbara DeSaye; 12 to 18 month old class, Charthill Worthy of Colwick, owned by Tom & Charla Hill. The winner was Charthill Worthy of Colwick.

From the time this dog walked into his class, he was worthy: He stood square on all four legs; was well-muscled up; showed with spirit and with the correct Scottie gait; and was put down very well. The two girls who were vieing for the top spot were also very worthy and any three could have been the winner on any given day. But on that day—the male got the nod and the Best in Sweepstakes rosette.

The Specialty Show was held on March 29, 1986, at the Dayton Airport Inn. This year's Specialty was the finest yet with many hard-working dedicated members. We were able to purchase new four-foot wide green mats this year and our beautiful motel setting was enjoyed and appreciated by all. We were well attended with an entry of 51 in Regular Classes and 28 in Sweepstakes, in spite of the Easter weekend! Sweepstakes Judge was Jon DeSaye and Michelle Billings judged the Regular Classes. The results are as follows:

Reserve Winners Dog: Colwick Time for Calico, owned by Virginia and David Luken
Winners Bitch: Anstamm Frisky Business, owned by Linda Nolan and Anstamm Kennels
Reserve Winners Bitch: Hughcrest Double Shot of Gin, owned by Duane Erickson and Judy Hughes
Best of Opposite Sex: CH. Deblin's Back Talk, owned by Debby McGrory and Lynn Struck
Best of Breed: CH. Balgair's Redoubts Take a Bow, Owned by Dr. James and Elizabeth Boso and Joan Duke

The STC of Greater Dayton has an average of 35 members in attendance at each meeting. One featured speaker is a veterinarian talking on emergency procedures in dogs and trauma related events. A Match is planned for August and plans for the 1987 Specialty are already underway. We invite all our Scottie friends to visit this energetic and fun-loving club!

The Fun Match is planned for June 8, 1986, and will be held at Halcar Kennels, with Hal Wainwright judging. A Working Terrier Trial Match seminar, to help with Scotties going to ground, will be part of the day's festivities. This is always a "fun" day, ending with a pot-luck and general meeting.

On February 15th, the club had "Dog Nite at the Movies" at Dick and Lil Martin's. The buffet table was loaded with exceptional goodies and the films shown were: Scottie Cramp, Natural Whelping, and the Oakland K.C. A fine time was had by all. Election of officers will take place at the meeting on April 19, and the speaker at that meeting will be Eli Barlia, an Animal Behavioral Psychologist.

STC of NEW ENGLAND "Scottie Tails"

The Spring Match was held on March 22, 1986, with Susan Carr judging. The results are: Best Adult in Match: Skye Boat Winter Solstice, owned by Trea Moon
Best Puppy and Best in Match: Anstamm Amescot Double Agent, Owned by Carol and Harold Ames

Up-coming is the Annual Specialty on May 30, 1986, and Supported Entries at Ladies Dog Club and Framingham District Dog Clubs the same weekend.

STC of GREATER NEW YORK "Scottie Scoop"
Donna Ambrette, Editor 16 Radcliffe Road, Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004

The STC of Greater New York hosted the 1986 STCA Rotating Specialty on February 9, 1986. (Results are printed elsewhere in the BAGPIPER.) It was a fun-filled weekend and the STCNY hosted a fabulous pre-show hospitality buffet on Saturday night. Even the weather, which began as a big snowstorm on Friday night, cooperated, and the sun shone the day of the show.

At the February meeting, the program featured dog show photographer John Ashbey, who gave a presentation on how to photograph your dog. He showed how we amateurs can use our own equipment and achieve better pictures by just knowing how to do it. (Reporter's Note: A summary of John Ashbey's talk on photography was published in their newsletter. I am sure that Donna will be happy to send you a copy if you write to her!)

STC of NORTHERN OHIO "The Clan News"
Tony Hines and Cindy Heavilin, Editors 125 Star Circle, NW, Massillon, OH 44646

A grooming seminar beginning at 10:00 am and followed by an AKC Sanctioned Match will be held on Saturday, May 17, 1986, at the Clippity Clop Shop, 12930 Chippewa Rd., Brecksville, Ohio. Match Chairman is Sue Greenberg.

The August club meeting will feature a trainer to present a program on behavioral pattern and testing.

Looking ahead, the STCNO is planning its 1986 Specialty Show (which will be held at the same site as last year) for October 25, 1986. Louis Auslander will judge Regular Classes, and Evelyn Meyer will do Sweepstakes. Contact Cindy Heavilin, Show Chairman, or Viola Gupp, Show Secretary, for information.

SAN FRANCISCO BAY STC "Bay Scot Bulletin"
Isabelle McCool, Editor 2174 33rd Ave, San Francisco, CA 94116

Our first show for 1986 was held on April 12, 1986, as part of the Northern California Terrier Association's cluster of shows at the Sacramento Expo Fairgrounds; Judge Barbara Keenan made the following placements:

Best of Breed: CH. Sandreg's Sweet Lux, owned by Dr. James and Elizabeth Bozo and Barbara DeSaye

Best of Opposite Sex: CH. Simonsez Charlie the Charmer, owned by Louise Simon
Wimmers Bitch: Merriland Gypsy Moth, owned by Thos. and Linda Lee
Reserve Winners Bitch: Glenby's Special Touch, owned by Jana Trent
Winners Dog: Wychwyre's Foxy Boomerang, owned by Donna and Fletcher Abbey
Reserve Winners Dog: Mollimac's Square Shooter, owned by Jack and Maggie Diem
(No puppies were entered)

Up-coming activities include a Fun Match in July, held in conjunction with the Westie Club of the Bay Area, and will feature games and competitions for Westies and Scotties. An Obedience Match is also planned. Lyn Kelley is the Fun Match Chairperson.

The September Specialty will be held, as always, in conjunction with the Sir Francis Drake Kennel Club at the Marin Community Center. Nancy Fingerhut will judge the Classes and Muriel Lee will judge Sweepstakes. This is a beautiful show grounds and a great weekend!

Officers for 1986-87 are:

President: Fred Koch
Vice President: Peggy Burge
Secretary: Helen Hendrick
Treasurer: Anne Moos

Directors: Betty Pengra, Ken McArthur, Ken Spradling, Lyn Kelley, and Ann Wooldridge

The club holds monthly dinner meetings at a local restaurant. Club activities, besides the two Specialty Shows, include a grooming seminar in June open to both members and guests, and speakers at club meetings on topics of interest to members. The Bay Scot Bulletin, published monthly, contains many articles of interest to both breeders and pet owners, and keeps the membership informed of show wins, new litters, new champions, and the dates for future area shows. Isabelle McCool does a super job of keeping everyone informed!

STC of GREATER WASHINGTON, D.C. "Tartan"
Helen Prince, Editor 7415 Newburg Drive, Lanham, MD 20706

The STCGW is a busy and active club. We have weekly obedience classes and walking classes, a monthly practice for go-to-ground, regular grooming classes, and, of course, our monthly club meetings.

Up-coming activities include our presenting a demonstration of flat and hurdle racing with the Potomac Cairn Terrier Club at the Gaines 1986 Regional Obedience Championships on April 26th in Richmond, VA. Our annual AKC Sanctioned Match is scheduled for June 7, and a Go-to-Ground Working Terrier Trial is planned for June 15th.

October 10, 1986, is the date for our Specialty Show, with Ruth Johnson judging Regular Classes, and Jane Anderson judging Sweepstakes. This show is the first in a series of shows—a four-show weekend!

Officers for 1986 are:

President: Norman Prince

Vice President: Nancy Burleson

Secretary: Karen Campbell

Treasurer: Art Prahinski

Board of Directors: Larry Breese, Bonnie Casely, Kathie McKessor, Trish Martell, and Dick Passig

New officers for the year 85-86:

President: Mr. Kim O. Stein

Vice President: Mrs. Katharine S. Munro

Secretary: Mrs. Evelyn D. Kirk

Treasurer: Mrs. Sandi Hach

Board of Directors: Mrs. Claribel Graham, Dr. T. Allen Kirk, Jr., Mrs. Catherine V. Dubose

The Scottish Terrier Club of Western Virginia is holding a Plan B Sanctioned Match on May 5, with our own President, Kim Stein as the judge. Covered dish dinner will follow.

Pending AKC approval for our Fall Specialty Show, date planned is September 19th. This will be our 22nd Independent Specialty Show. Location will remain the same as the two previous years, due to the high praise of the exhibitors! We will again have our Sale Table and Cocktail Hour before Dinner upon completion of judging. Come on down and join us for the Specialty on Friday evening, and two all breed shows on Saturday and Sunday, all within an hours drive. Ya'll come!!!

A MATTER OF THE HEARTH

To satisfy his canine whim
I'm asked to keep an honored space reserved in front of the fireplace, which he's convinced is lit for him.

WHY ADVERTISE?

If you've just . . . Bought a Puppy
Whelped a Litter
Finished a Champion
Started a "Special"
Earned a Title . . .

Then you should TELL SOMEONE!

Thank the folks who helped you along the way!
Tell it to The Bagpiper.
Eight hundred people will be listening . . .

CH. RUFF-ME-TUFF ROYAL STUFF

(CH. Reanda Royal Sovereign X Ruff-Me-Tuff Runaround)

With limited showing, "B.J." began strutting his stuff as a 7 mo. old with back to back 4 pt. majors, best in sweeps—STCM, best of breeds & finished with a 5 pt. major at the STCA rotating. We are so proud of 'Mr. Personality' and are grateful to the judges who found B.J. as promising as we do.

B.J. is proven and we have some promising puppies for serious show homes—puppies by B.J., out of Sandgreg/Anstamm bred bitches.

As always, bitches serviced at MAC CAL are handled with T.L.C.—
Easy access to Milwaukee Airport.
