COVER STORY

Ch. Deblin's Back Talk started the New Year off in fine style by going Best of Breed at the New York Specialty under Breeder Judge Jerry Roszman — with very stiff competition. This was Tony's first show of 1988 since his win at Montgomery County in October. Because of our heavy work schedule Tony is not campaigned at all-breed shows. We are delighted that he is a natural showman and, regardless of the time span in between shows, he's always up and ready for fun in the show ring.

We are very proud of his winning record with limited showing. His record to date at Specialties is 8 Bests of Breed and 3 Bests of Opposite.

Tony is the sire of 3 Champions finished last year, with all 3 having Specialty wins. Several more of his youngsters are presently on the scene and are pointed. It is very exciting for us to have a dog who not only has the quality and spirit to be a Specialty winner, but is also able to produce bright promise for the future. Quantity is not the important factor, the quality that Tony produces speaks for itself. We want to thank all the judges who have appreciated Tony and made these memorable wins possible—also our many friends in the Breed who have wished us well.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

HAVE YOU MOVED?

The increase in postage rates will be felt by everyone and when an item weighs anywhere from 4 to 6 ounces the increase is significant. That is the situation with the Bagpiper and it is disturbing that copies of the Winter issue mailed to members were returned from the Post Office with the information that the addressee has moved and the Bagpiper couldn't be delivered.

If you have a new address PLEASE inform HELEN PRINCE, Recording Secretary, 7415 Newburg Drive, Lanham, MD 20706. Helen works hard to keep the Club's records current. It is important for you to let her know when you move, acquire a new phone number or change your marital status. If the changes apply to all members in your family membership please let her know too.

Bagpipers for the following have been returned. If you have contact with any of these people please ask them to send me their new address and enclose 85 cents postage. Their magazine will then be mailed to them.

BAGPIPER ADVERTISING

The Cover on the Winter Issue wasn't pleasing to many, including our Printer and this Editor, but there are instances when all efforts fail to produce a satisfactory result. It may be that a picture's background is too dark; it may be that it is not in balance for its intended purpose or there may be other factors responsible. In any event advertisers should evaluate the pictures submitted and keep in perspective their intended use.

"Sharkey" is a beautiful dog and deserves to be shown to his best advantage. His picture on the back cover of this issue tells you how handsome he really is.

Going For Gold

The Scottish Terrier Club of America is pleased to announce that artist Margie Hall Cooke has again donated a painting to be raffled off at the annual dinner meeting at Montgomery County. This year's work, entitled "Going for Gold," features a wheaten Scottish Terrier. Last year's painting was a big fund-raiser for our rescue fund, and we hope to take in even more in 1988. Tickets are available from Ways and Means Chairperson, Faith Harrop, 3512 Riverside Avenue, Fergusonville, PA 19007, 215-788-8142, at $1.00 each, or 6 for $5.00. Tickets will also be made available to regional clubs for sale to their members.

A.K.C. DELEGATE'S REPORT: Dr. Kirk distributed a report of activities with the AKC since our last meeting. The following changes/additions were reported:

1. The proposal to eliminate Best of Winners and to bar dogs from a championship until the age of 18 months was defeated.
2. The fee to file a protest at a dog show was raised to $25.00.
3. The notice that a show is unbenchd is no longer required to be displayed, and the show superintendent does not have to arrange for a Vet; it is now up to the Club.
4. It is no longer necessary to send original entry forms to the AKC, but the show secretary/superintendent must keep them for 6 months.
5. Negative letters concerning judges may now be seen by those judges, upon request.
6. Professional handlers, breeders, and long-time owner/handlers are now eligible to judge Junior Showmanship.
7. Monitoring of judges from ringside by AKC was dropped and a hands-on examination will be added to the judges' testing procedure.

Since the AKC has not acted on the issue of adding the 12-to-18 month puppy class at all-breed shows, Dr. Kirk was requested to continue to advocate our position of having this class.

The expenses for our AKC Delegate will be increased to reflect the increase in cost of traveling to the meetings. Motion — Lehrack/Prince. Passed unanimously.

SELECTED COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Annual Awards: Carla LaCoe requested that the Board consider deleting the requirement for a Committee, since there is no longer a need for more than one person. Motion — Cooke/McArthur to eliminate Committee and have only a Chairman. Passed unanimously. The Board also approved the addition of an award for Junior Showmanship, to be donated by Neil and Charlene Hallenbeck. The Award will be a cash prize of $100 and will be presented at the Annual Meeting in October.

THE LOCHNEL JUNIOR SHOWMANSHIP AWARD, presented to that Junior Handler who achieves the most number of wins while handling a Scottish Terrier during any given competition period. It is not necessary for either the handler or his/her family to be a member of the S.T.C.A.

Motion — Cooke/Luken to accept this award. Passed Unanimously.

It was also reported that we need a new base for the Lloyd Memorial Trophy since there is no more room for engraving. Motion — Kirk/Luken to authorize Lorayne Lapin to proceed with having the work done. Passed unanimously.

Handbook, 1991: Editor Muriel Lee has appointed Kathy Bowers as the Handbook Advertising Manager.

BAGPIPER: Marjorie Cohen met with the Board and gave some facts and figures on the cost of publishing it. She felt that, although our inside black and white pages are self-supporting, we are losing money on the front covers, especially the ones in color. Motion — Lehrack/Taylor to charge $100 for front or back cover in black and white, with the color cover to be contracted with the Editor for additional cost at the current cost of color. (Front cover will be $100 additional color expense.) Passed unanimously. Accepting advertising from commercial advertisers and non-members was discussed. Motion — Cooke/Prince that we not accept advertising from non-members. Passed unanimously.

Here Comes the Judge! Justscott's Judge Roy Bean

"Bear" (Ch. Charmar's Enchanter X Ch. Rigadoon's Just in Time) is shown here with his friend, Susan Justice, going Best of Breed under William Harvey. Special thanks also go to Fred Ferris, Roger Hartinger, and Fred Stephens for giving him his majors. "Bear" excels in coat, bone, movement and headpiece. Look for him to "hang" his competition in 1988.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

In the recent issues of the Bagpiper there has been some discussion as to the number of English, American, Canadian Champions.

I might offer the following information on two dogs which may be helpful for the records, as memories seem quite short.

Eng. Am. and Can. Ch. Westpark Derriford Baffie winner in England of 35 CC's, second only to Realization 43 CC's, plus Best in Show All Breeds, the last one at Bournemouth in September, 1955 just before being imported to Carnation Farm Kennels.

In 1956 Baffie won three Best in Show All Breed from the Open Class to gain his Canadian Championship. Baffie, a Francis G. Lloyd and Robert Chapman Trophy winner, shown 50 All Breed Shows on coming to Carnation Farm Kennels and the U.S., won 50 Best of Breeds, 39 1st Group, 22 Best in Show plus 4 B.S.S. in the years 1956-1958.

Eng., Am., and Can., Ch. Bardene Bingo, shown his first show at just over 9 months of age, won not only the C.C. but was placed Best in Show at the National Terrier Event at Leicester. He went on to gain 16 CCs including S.T.C. of England Ascot 1962-1963, plus Best in Show All Breeds such as Blackpool in an entry of 6982 (3288 dogs).

Imported August, 1964 Bingo won 3 Best in Shows from the Open Class to win his Canadian Championship. In the U.S. Bingo's record was outstanding; it included winning Best in Show at one of America's largest shows in 3 successive years: Beverly Hills - 1965; Santa Barbara - 1966; Westminster - 1967.

Baffie in 1956 is probably the first — Bingo in 1965 — thus both on becoming English, American and Canadian Champions were also the winners of Best in Show all Breeds in the three countries.

There are two other dogs I wish to mention — Ch. Glendoune Gauntlet, owned by H.L. Walley of Toronto Canada and Ch. Gillie Wrockwardine Sirius owned by Wishing Well Kennels, and handled by Bob Gorman. Both of these dogs became English, American and Canadian Champions, and possibly Sirius was a Champion in a fourth country, Cuba.

I do not know either dog's show record — only that I did show with them. I trust this will be of some help.

PET EXPO

In the Letters To The Editor section of the November, 1987 issue of the Bagpiper, Barbara DeSaye wrote about a proposed plan to hold a "Pets & Puppies Fair" in Detroit. Breeders who would participate were to pay a commission to the promoters on all animals sold during the activity. The plan didn't get off the ground in Detroit, but now Barbara sent us information about a "PET EXPO '88", sponsored by an organization known as Pet Expo Educational Events, Inc. This event is to be held at the Detroit Michigan Exposition & Fairgrounds on May 20, 21, 22, 1988, and is advertised as "A New Concept in Education, Fun & Living with Pets In The Modern World"

The advertising states that the first Pet Expo was held in Sao Paulo, Brazil in 1983, another in Buenos Aires, Argentina in 1985, another in Mexico City, Mexico in 1987 and future Expos are planned for Japan and in Europe. This one in Detroit is, apparently, the first in the United States.

The contract for breeders to apply for booth space requires a deposit of $110 which is to be refunded within 48 hours after closing of the Show provided the promoters rules and regulations are adhered to. Some of the rules apply to maintaining certain conditions in the booth space, but the contract specifies that the breeder will show only "pedigreed animals with proof of registration." Place or type of registration isn't specified. No dogs under 6 months of age, or cats under 4 months of age may be exhibited. The contract also states that no pet shops may exhibit dogs or cats and breeders may not sell dogs or cats at this exhibit. They may "exhibit their animals, divulge information on their breeds, distribute material pertaining to their kennels or catteries, such as cards, literature, t-shirts, keyholders, etc."

If any of our members attends this event please fill us in on more of the details.

For the past eighteen years, I bred, groomed and occasionally showed brindle Scottish Terriers under the kennel name "Aerie". We were more than moderately successful, breeding a number of Specialty and Group Winners, and the multiple Best-In-Show winner, Ch. Aerie Almost Heaven. During those years, I heard whispers from my fellow "Scottie Fanciers": black Scotties have totally different coats, necessitating totally different grooming techniques. Tales abounded of all-over baths, special rinses, razoring coats and, worst of all, actually cutting the hair. I occasionally wondered exactly what all of this arcane grooming technique consisted of, but I was busy with my own brindle dogs and didn't look into the matter. Having been taught that cutting a coat was a cardinal sin, I was silently grateful to have brindle coats to groom!

And groom I did! My grooming consisted almost entirely of stripping and blending the hair. My grooming tools included finger and thumb, various stripping knives (including my beloved Twinco — and I don't need to be reminded that I'm probably the only terrier person who actually loves that stripper!), scissors, combs, and clippers. Despite my occasional purchase of the latest and most wonderful stripping knife, my tack box contained nothing particularly exotic.

I really began to wonder in earnest about the differences between black and brindle coats when the first black puppy made its appearance. Stripping, after all, was just stripping, and what would happen if I groomed this little black dog just like I had been grooming our brindles. Since I only knew one way to groom a Scottie, I groomed the black coat just like the brindle ones. To my amazement, nothing was different. I used no extraordinary measures, and the coat turned out just like the brindle ones. "Aha" the experts claimed." That's because your black dog comes from strong brindle lines." I accepted that and went, as they say, on with the show.

Circumstances have changed my life in a number of ways, and one of the most dramatic, from at least one perspective, is my recent acquisition of a BLACK DOG! Hesitantly I explained my grooming procedures to the "BLACK DOG" breeders, and asked about what new techniques I would need to learn. What new supplies would I need to purchase? I inquired if they would teach me how and where to razor the coat. Truthfully, I was really dreading having to unlearn my old habits and to take extensive lessons in that most heinous of sins: coat cutting. The breeders listened to me, looked at each other, and chuckled. They told me: "What you've been doing is just fine!" My eyes must have been huge with relief, because they laughed and asked me if I would write this article.

I'm relaxing now with my black Scottie. I enjoy working on his coat and on the coats of his brindle house-mates. They are very much the same. The differences between them are the same differences that I have seen over the years between individual brindle Scotties. I can even blend the black coats, which was a nice surprise, as blending is one of the "fun" parts of grooming for me.

As I always suspected, stripping is stripping! That is the bottom line. I have learned that there are all types of black coats, just as there are all types of brindle coats. All must be stripped, all over, to get that truly beautiful Scottish Terrier show coat. There are no short cuts. A lovely coat does not happen overnight, nor does it happen with one stripping. "Working" a coat is the only reality for that professional advantage in the ring. An "easy" coat didn't just happen. It has had hours, days, weeks and months of continuous hard work put into it.

Every groomer learns through trial and error, over lots of time, what works best for him or her. How many or how few tools you use is an individual decision. We are in a breed that requires more work than almost any other. It is not easy — it is a challenge. I love putting my "signature" on each dog I groom, especially when I can say with pride and joy and I did it right. I am just thankful that I can strip my black dogs just like the brindles. How sweet it is!

Now I'm wondering about wheaten coats . . .

MONTGOMERY COUNTY . . . 1988

Headquarters for the 1988 Montgomery County weekend will be a new facility this year — the Brandywine Hotel and Resort, Downingtown, Pennsylvania. It is expected that there will be rooms available for all our members who wish to attend this exciting weekend. The weatherman should smile on us after his dastardly tricks last year, but if he doesn't, the puppies won't mind because the Third Independent Sweepstakes will be held indoors at the Resort on the afternoon of October 8th.

Miss Gail Gaines will judge Sweeps and there will be a Sweepstakes catalog. Mr. James G. Reynolds will judge the Regular Classes at Montgomery County on Sunday, October 9th.

Flyers will be sent to all members in adequate time for you to make plans to attend.

Scotland in '88

Hey, all you lads and lassies — dust off that passport and pack your suitcases. The place to be this summer is Scotland!

The Scottish Terrier Club (Scotland) is celebrating its Centenary Year and has planned a special weekend of festivities August 26-28, 1988. Headquarters will be The Popinjay Hotel, Rosebank, located in the heart of the Clyde Valley, just south of Glasgow. The Specialty Show, judged by Archie MacLaren (Viewpark), will be held at the hotel on Saturday, August 27th, and will be followed in the evening by a formal Dinner Dance.

Many other activities have been planned for visitors from abroad — sightseeing, shopping, and antiquing. Edinburgh is just an hour's drive away.

Plans should be made quickly. Although the Popinjay Hotel is all booked, the Club has arranged for accommodations in other nearby hotels. The Dinner Dance reservations, however, are limited. For Hotel and Dinner reservations, please contact: Mrs. Lorraine Hutchison, Sgiathanach, Elliot Place, Larkhall, Lanarkshire, Scotland HL9 3EW.

When my husband, Larry, and I read the poem of the little breed champion dog who lived out his life never knowing anything but the kennel, we cried. We hate jails and didn't know why Scotties should be punished, especially the ones with all the ribbons. When we looked at the crew that "Buffy" had started, we told each other that there would be life and joy for our Scots.

In our quest for this life, we visited the Scottish Games and discovered the terrier trials. What fun they were having — racing, chasing, going-to-ground, barking, jumping, doing terrier things. We were so inspired by seeing these animals behaving naturally that we decided to give this joy to our own Scottish Terriers.

We spent the winter planning and talking with fellow members of the Scottish Terrier Club of Greater Washington in an attempt to set up a go-to-ground facility — no luck! Finally, in the spring, Larry and I collected leftover flue tiles from a recent remodeling project and built a makeshift tunnel with a right angle turn formed out of old cardboard boxes! What to use for bait? We had no rats or rabbits — we lived near the city after all! So Tigger, the cat, stood in, safely packed in a dog crate at the tunnel's end. In disgust, she turned her back to the gated opening of the crate and slept away in the back corner, while the Scotties learned how to work the tunnel.

Alice Longworth quickly became our star performer, and at the next Scottish Games, she was top Scot scorer in the go-to-ground. As puppies became old enough and as new bitches came to live at our kennel, Alice introduced them to the excitement of going-to-ground. She was the ramrod who pushed the reluctant ones through! We could see that she wanted the others to love the sport the way she does. Now when we go-to-ground, ten enthusiastic Scotties of Hiwood scramble into the van and can hardly wait to get to the gathering of the clans.

Through rain or storm or howling gale, intense heat or drifting snow, even beautiful weather, they rendezvous, each dog intent on having a wonderful time!

From the limited backyard of the first Hiwood Kennel, with three people and four scotties, our group has moved to a permanent facility and grown to over sixty dogs and owners.

Larry and I are proud of the five of our "girls" who have been recognized for their go-to-ground ability by the STCGW and the STCA. Three of the five are Breed Champions and with the other seven Scotties are happily living their lives beyond the kennel door!

We welcome Sue Pazdzior and Marsha Smith as new members of the Annual Obedience Committee. Don't forget to send your scores to them (with complete information) or to Faith Harrop, Faith Erlacher or Sue Moodie. We have a number of Scotties in Obedience and we want to hear of your progress.

In 1969 Sue Pazdzior was bitten by both the Scottie and the Obedience bug. She was a Junior member of the K-9 Obedience Training Club in Wisconsin until 1974. She moved to Colorado, married and had a son, and in 1979 joined the Pike's Peak Obedience Club. She is still a member. She has served as an officer, and instructor, newsletter editor, steward and Obedience Chairman and has worked with the Humane Society on a program of encouraging Obedience for adoptees. She was also a member of the El Paso County Obedience Club and served there as an officer, instructor and newsletter editor. From 1980 to 1985 she wrote an Obedience column for the STC of Greater Denver. She is a member of the Front Range Dog Training Club (UKC) and the Dandie Dinmont Club of America as well as the STCA. She is an approved UKC Obedience judge for all Obedience Classes and her Scottish Terriers are the first Scotties to earn UKC Obedience titles. As a Chiropractic Assistant, Sue is interested in chiropractic care for dogs.

Marsha Smith is also no newcomer to Obedience since she started in that field in 1978. When she lived in Baltimore she was a member of the Oriole Dog Training Club and served as an officer, instructor, on Trial Committees and was involved in many facets of the Club's activities. She now lives in Pennsylvania with her husband and two children and assists a large number of Obedience fans in how to start a dog in Obedience and works with problems they may have. Many of these people are now showing successfully in various classes. They come from as far as New England, and, as her time is limited, must be recommended by a veterinarian, personal friend or someone she has helped. She has shown Scotties in Obedience for some time and, during the year 1982-83, her Becca earned the STCA H.S. C.D.X. Trophy. In 1984-85 her Heather earned the STCA H.S. C.D.X. award and went on in 1986-87 to also earn the STCA H.S. Utility Trophy. Marsha has run many Obedience matches and given demonstrations to various groups.

Sue Pazdzior sent an article on Obedience in the United Kennel Club explaining the differences between the AKC and UKC requirements for a C.D. and C.D.X. title. The differences are interesting and many of the UKC's requirements are very challenging. Some time later Marsha Smith will give us special tips on successfully training a Scottie.

OBEDIENCE: UKC and AKC

Sue Pazdzior

UKC Novice Class is the same as AKC Novice with the exception of Honoring and recall exercises.

Honoring is the first exercise. The honor is performed by the "honoring" dog while the "working" dog does the heel on lead and the figure 8. The "honoring" dog is placed on a down stay in such a spot so that the "working" dog must pass near it while heeling. The "honoring" dog's handler is across the ring. It is scored the same as the AKC's long down for the "honoring" dog. After the figure 8 the "honoring" dog is excused from the ring before the "working" dog does the Stand for Examination.

The Stand for Examination and Heel Free are the same as the AKC's exercises.

The Recall is done over the high jump which is situated between two stewards. Not only must your dog jump, but he must pass between two strangers to reach you on the recall. In UKC Obedience your dog jumps only once his shoulder height or 24", whichever is less. The recall is scored the same as the AKC recall with the addition of refusing to jump or going around the jump being scored 0.

The last exercise is the Long Sit which is performed the same as in the AKC class.

In the Open Class, the biggest difference between the UKC and the AKC rules is the jump heights. In UKC a dog jumps once its shoulder length or a minimum of 8" and a maximum of 24". The broad jump is twice the dog's shoulder height not twice the height of the high jump. For example, in AKC a 25" dog would jump 36" and 72", while in UKC competition the same dog would jump 24" and 50".

Open starts with the honoring which is done the same as in Novice except the handler is out of sight. The heel off lead is done with a distraction. A steward starts at the opposite end of the heeling pattern and passes the working dog twice during the heeling pattern. The figure 8 is done the same as AKC.

The Drop on Recall is both easier and harder than its AKC counterpart. UKC allows you to use both hand and voice command to drop your dog. Once the dog has dropped a steward, starting next to you, walks toward your dog and past it. Once the steward is past, the judge will allow the dog to be called in. UKC does not emphasize the quick drop as does AKC.

Both the heeling and drop on recall are scored the same as the AKC with the exception of any penalties the distraction may cause.

The Retrieve on the Flat, Retrieve over the High Jump and the Broad Jump are the same with the exception of the jump heights mentioned before. The Long Sit is also the same as in AKC competition.

In the UKC a dog may earn a leg toward his Obedience title even if he is the only one competing — as long as he qualifies. UKC Obedience titles precede the dog's name instead of following it as in the AKC.

Any dog registered by a recognized organization and producing a three generation pedigree will be recognized by the UKC. Right now the only AKC dog not recognized by the UKC are those with ILP numbers. These dogs usually cannot produce pedigrees and UKC at this time has no provisions for an ILP equivalent.

ROGUES GALLERY

Owners of all Scotties who have an Obedience Title take note! At the Canadian Scottish Terrier Specialty, Tuesday, August 30th, there will be a gallery of pictures (snap shots, etc.) of all Scotties who have ever earned an Obedience title in Canada and/or the United States. The pictures will be prominently and artistically displayed and it will be an honor to have your Scottie's picture there.

So NOW, while it is on your mind, search out a picture of each and every Scottie you have ever put an Obedience title on and send it off to Elizabeth and Alex McKellar, 15 Oregon Road, London, ON N52 4B8. August 30th will be here before you know it and Elizabeth and Alex need time to properly display these important Scottie pictures.

Put your name and address on the back (your picture will be returned), your Scottie's registered name and titles and any special accomplishments in Obedience such as, High in Trial, Dog World Award, placements in Class, STCA Awards, etc. These Obedience Scotties are Special Scotties so let's make sure your has his or her place in the sun. ONE PERSON'S EXPERIENCE WITH CMO

By Margaret MacDonald

The following is written purely and simply for anyone who might at some time need this information and not be able to find it in time to help. I am talking about cranial mandibular osteopathy which I had long heard about and read about, but had never seen and consequently missed it for two weeks in which a pup, although under treatment, was continuing to suffer and lose ground.

As soon as I was sure I had a problem in my "dream litter" I took Adhamh (Gaelic spelling of Adam) to my vet. The pup was found to be extremely anaemic and a blood study done by an outside laboratory showed possible liver problems. Neither my vet nor I suspected, nor even thought of, CMO as, to my knowledge neither the dam nor her mother were carriers. (I own them both, but it is possible Christy, the mother of the litter, inherited this recessive gene from her sire and not her dam). This was to be the third generation.

The litter was born September 20, 1987 and, as usual, I kept daily weight records for the first 30 days. From now on that period will be extended to at least 2 months. The five pups, all of a size and healthy were whelped quickly 3 days early, a first litter for the dam. Christy proved to be what Muriel Lee calls a "Super Mom" as for nearly a month I changed a few papers and fed and walked Christy. She had a terrific milk supply and kept the whelping box spotlessly clean.

At about the seventh week I noted that Adhamh was being, as I called it, "left behind" — the litter was pulling away weightwise and he was eating little and sleeping a lot. (I now know that lethargy, anemia and loss of appetite are part of the onset of the disease). My veterinarian diagnosed anemia and sent out a blood test to a local laboratory — some liver involvement was the result of that test. However, as a precautionary measure against inflammation anywhere in the body Dr. Stiver administered a steroid shot that gave Adhamh a few days of relief until the disease again became acute. Exactly a week from the first shot (along with a B-12 and iron shot for the anemia) I went home at noon as usual to feed the pups.

Little Adhamh looked so forlorn I gave him half a Pet Tab, which they all scramble for. I kept the others away so he could chew it. He growled to keep the others at a distance but dropped the Pet Tab, so I gave him a quarter of it with the same result. It suddenly became clear to me that I was seeing CMO for the first time. Dr. Stiver was out of town so I called a referral veterinarian. I warmed some milk, filled a 10 CC syringe several times and squirted the milk into Adhamh's mouth. He could readily swallow. The veterinarian's examination elicited cries of pain from Adhamh as pressure was applied to either jaw. He was given a shot of the same steroid (see footnote) had had before, and more B-12 and iron. Within two hours he was not only lapping "sloppy food" but chewing Puppy Chow.

He continued well but the following week I found one of the girl puppies required treatment. She too was given the shots along with Adhamh.

Dr. Stiver explained there are .25 mg Dex pills which are safe to use daily with afflicted pups, along with Hy-Vite drops for daily iron, etc. Nutri-Cal, a high powered paste which comes in a tube is highly palatable and can be squirted directly into their mouths. It is so complete a food that 1-1/2 tsp. will maintain a 6 lb. pup for 24 hours. Adhamh took to it immediately, but Rachel was slow in eating and I was advised to put her on Pepto Bismal every four hours for as long as necessary to coat her stomach. She could not hold down any food I force fed. Several days later, however, she began to eat some chicken I had prepared for myself.

Oliver!

At this writing, two weeks later, they are both gaining daily. Both love to walk outside on leads, but do not have the boundless energy of their littermates. The afflicted pups are happy, eat along with the others without the need for isolating, and line up happily for their share of treats.

At the outset when I feared the pups would suffer constantly, my veterinarian said "euthanasia is not an option in this disease as it is manageable and the pups can outgrow it when their jawplates close at about 10 or 11 months. From that time on the disease will not recur" And a medical book for veterinarians I read at the clinic says nature even reabsorbs some of the excess calcium cells back in to the system.

While my facilities for caring for my dogs are very limited, I have worked through the initial disappointment and directed my energies to nursing the pups back to health. Buyers of the healthy pups are asked to sign a statement that their puppies could be carriers of the disease and for that reason are being sold as pets and that should they breed them it would be at their own risk. The buyers have willingly complied.

I felt this report from an "amateur" might be a little presumptive but have been asked by breeders who have never seen the disease (and I hope they never do) to more or less document my experiences through the "three weeks of discovery" which seemed more like 3 months.

Immediate diagnosis is the key, to keep the pup from starving, which is literally possible. Adhamh screamed with pain for two weeks and because we were looking at or for possible internal problems, I thought it was acute hunger pangs and that he was venting pure frustration. I won't make that mistake again, as once is too often.

There are varying degrees of the disease and it can also involve bones of the head in addition to the mandibles and cause some distortion of the head, I have learned. Only if the jaw hinges are seriously involved the afflicted pup might have to be put down. Happily we're on the way back. With proper management and a lot of TLC it can be controlled so that minimal cost and effort are needed to keep the puppy comfortable until the disease disappears at about 10 months.

I keep a daily journal and my experience might help someone from panicking so that he can deal rationally with the disease after the initial shock. Most literature states the onset of CMO to be between 4 to 7 months. Of five cases I know at this time, including other breeds, all of them have set in before 2 months. Indeed the referral veterinarian said he doubted Adhamh had CMO because it is rarely seen at that age. Most of the expense is in the initial workup and shots, after which expenses for maintenance are minimal.

I have learned so much that I wish I had known before my experiences of the past month. If anyone has additional information I would appreciate having it for my file. Or if I can supply additional information, feel free to call.

PS. There are three steroids which can be used, Dexamethasone being the mildest. As it was explained to me, cortisone acts more quickly to control inflammation present and give the pup relief, but it slows down all bone growth in the young, not just in the jaw area. So the veterinarians I consulted for that reason do not consider cortisone to be the steroid of first choice in cases of this nature. I felt I would rather keep the pups on a daily small dose, which I am told cannot harm them, rather than to take a chance on something stronger and quicker acting.

The field of Canine Dentistry is coming into its own and our March meeting was devoted to a presentation by a veterinarian who is working more and more in this field. It was not only fascinating to learn what now can be done professionally to help our Scots but also what we can do to improve their dental health. This is a program every club would enjoy.

We also saw the new film on Scottie Cramp and it is an excellent reminder to think first of health and temperament, then of ears and tail sets when we plan breeding.

A grooming session helped us ready our Scots for the coming Specialty.

Plans are underway for the Specialty Show on June 3, 1988. Regular Classes will be judged by Fred Stephens and Sweepstakes by Joanne Glodek.

Spring activities included a Match/Dig/Dig Race and Fajita Party held on May 1, 1988 at Bittersweet Farm, Franklin, MA. Besides a match, we had terrier trials and a practice dig.

New International and Mexican Champion

Am./Can./Mex./Int. Ch. Owyn Twin Sisters Passmore

"Twin Sisters" were two pint-sized cannons that blasted Texans their way to independence from Mexico in 1836. Our compact Scottish cannon traced Santa Anna's trail back to Mexico in 1987 and made her own mark on history. In four December days in Mexico City, Sister won Mexican and International championships, adding to Am./Can. titles finished in August.

Sister's four C.A.C.M.'s and four C.A.C.I.B.'s were earned at the 30th International circuit of the Federacion Canofila Mexicana: judges Jose Luis Garcia, Mexico; Carl Adlercreuts, Sweden; Virginia Hampton, U.S.; Miguel Angel Martinez, Argentina/ Sister is pictured finishing her titles December 6 with Martinez.

We'd like to hear from anyone who can relate names of other Scotties that have held all four of these titles. Can you help?

February "Heat Wave" Sizzles New York!!

Anstamm Heat Wave

(Ch. Anstamm Summer Lightning x Gayla's Mercedes Venture)

California breeder-judge Jerry Roszman is used to warm weather and it's a good thing, because this Heat Wave was HOT. "Tempest" was WB, BW and BOS over Specials from the 9-12 puppy class handled by co-owner Cindy Cooke. "Tempest" is sired by Ch. Anstamm Summer Lightning who was also very proud of his baby daughters, Anstamm Show Business ("Vanna") and Anstamm Flash Fire ("Tandle") who were first and third, respectively, in the 6-9 puppy bitch class.

McVan's Winning

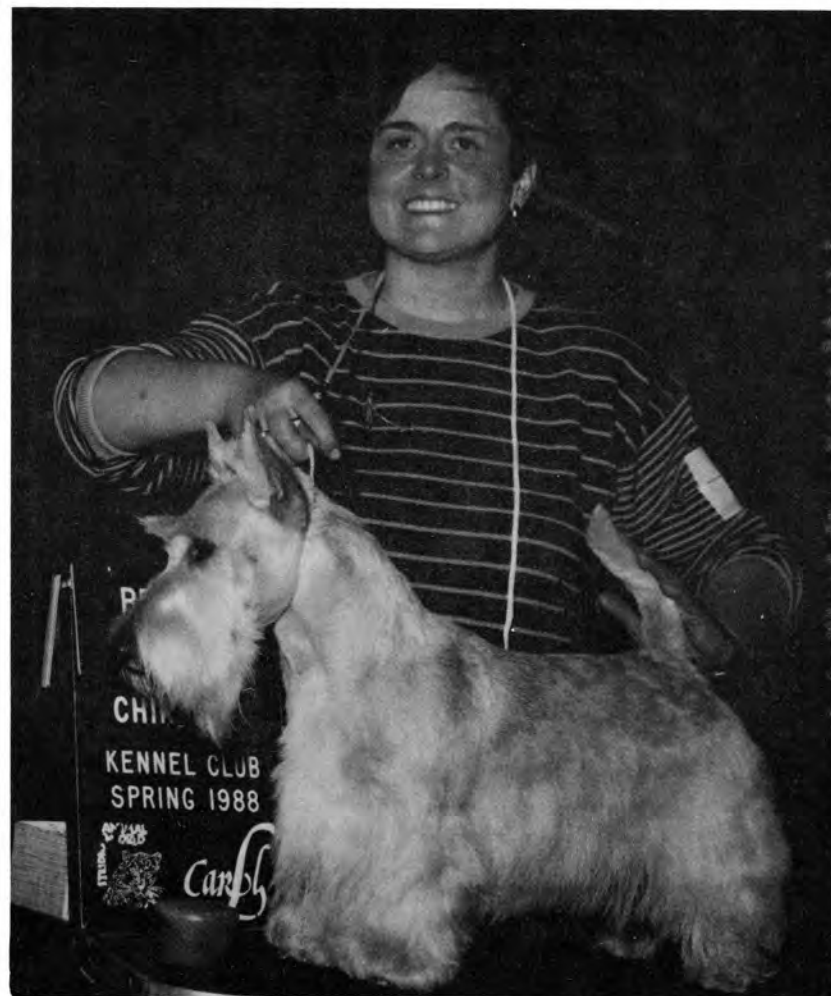

(Ch. Maggie McMuffin V x Sandgreg's Second Edition)

Ch. McVan's Sandman

Sandy finished his championship at 13 months with a Group 2nd at Beverly Hills, Winner's Dog at Westminster and several best of breeds over top specials. Thanks to all the judges who noticed his short, level back, great tail set, tiny ears and fiery attitude. Watch for him as a special with Maripi.

McVan's Cream Troffles

Following in his littermate's footsteps, Trouble needs just 2 points to finish. Shown only regionally and primarily owner-handled, he's picked up major wins at the Seattle Kennel Club and Greater Clark County Kennel Clubs. A great stud dog for bitches who need substance, good fronts and rears, length of head and of course, a fiery temperament.

Our mom, Ch. Maggie McMuffin had a litter by Ch. Glenecker Galivanter in April. Call about these show prospects.
