COVER STORY

Champion Deblin's Back Talk

Champion Deblin's Back Talk has had an exceptional show career. He earned his championship title and his first Specialty Best of Breed win at the age of six and one half months. Before finishing his show career, he had a total of 15 Specialty Best in Breed wins and 5 Specialty Best of Opposite wins, as well as numerous Breed and Group wins at all breed shows. At the height of Back Talk's illustrious show career he won Best of Breed at the Montgomery County, S.T.C.A. National Specialty in 1987. He came back to Montgomery County the following year and was awarded Best of Opposite over stiff competition.

Since Deblin's is a low volume kennel, it has been extremely rewarding to own a dog that possesses the beauty of an exceptional show dog while at the same time being a top producer of quality show puppies. This past year was once again a big year for Back Talk with nine of his offspring becoming Champions. Back Talk has been one of the top producers of Champions for three consecutive years. To date he has sired a total of 22 Champions with many more close to finishing. His 22 Champions have also had numerous Sweepstakes and Group wins. Back Talk is obviously passing along his fine attributes to his puppies. He not only produces well with line bred bitches but has also excelled with outcrosses.

My heartfelt appreciation to the breeders and owners of Back Talk's Champions who have helped to make all of this possible.

Mrs. John Cohen, STCA director, and historian (keeper of the STCA's archives) requests that the regional clubs send to her photographs of the winning dogs at their specialities, BB, BOS, WD, WB, with their names, owners and breeders on the backs, along with pertinent information.

Dues are due. If you haven't yet responded to the notices sent by the treasurer it is hoped that you will shortly. It is easy to forget since there is such a long grace period; forget, or come to think you have. $20.00, or $25.00 household. Five dollars extra for first class delivery of the Bagpiper.

Please notice the stories in this issue with reference to vacancies in sponsorships in trophies, two obedience and the BBE trophy awarded annually. The obedience trophies are awarded in the obedience match at Montgomery County.

The Board of the STCA is taking nominations for Anstamm Achievement Award, The Gaines Good Sportmanship Award and Silver Service Medallion. Forms are provided. If space is inadequate, attach expanded information.

The next deadline for The Bagpiper is April 15, but any contributions are welcome earlier.

Bill and Shirley Justus will be judging in Australia Easter weekend. We hope to have an account of their adventure, and maybe some pictures in the spring issue.

BACK ISSUES FOR PRIZES

Regional clubs are reminded that the STCA Board has authorized a special price on back issues of The Bagpiper for clubs to use as prizes in matches. The price is $3.00 each for 10 or more, plus shipping. It has been suggested that they be used at matches as there are likely to be a fair number of exhibitors entered who do not belong to the STCA and therefore do not receive it. There are good selections for the years 1987 and 1988 on hand. Much better than nut dishes.

DEADLINE FOR REGIONAL CLUB NEWS

Deadline for regional club news for the Spring "Bagpiper" will be April 1. Send news to Carole Owen, Regional Club News Editor, 9 Coachman's Circle, Big Spring TX 79720; ph. 915-263-3404. Limit write-ups to no more than 500 words.

FALA'S BREEDER: MISS SUCKLEY

If you are old enough to remember Fala, and his owner, President Franklin Roosevelt, you can still hear the famous "Fala" Speech made after a tempest-in-a-depot fuss, of kind Washington loves to stir up, about the president sending a destroyer back to one of the Aleutian Islands where Fala had been left behind by oversight. He had been taken along on the trip by the president. Soon after returning to Washington he was to speak to Congress, and took the occasion to calm the fuss. It was the speech in which President Roosevelt said that neither he, nor his wife, nor his children minded criticism, but Fala certainly did.

If so, did you ever wonder about Fala's life before he became the president's pet? Regular readers of the Wall Street Journal know. Something over a year ago that publication ran a feature on the lady who was his breeder, not because she was his breeder, but because a fundraiser was soon to be held to obtain funds for the restoration of her old family home in Dutchess County, New York. She is the ninety-some-odd Miss Daisy Suckley, descendant of the Livingstones (the home is on land which was a part of Livingstone Manor 200 years ago) a ninth cousin of President Roosevelt, and a seventh cousin of Mrs. Roosevelt (those kind of people know their relationships as though they were Confucians). She was also the president's private archivist, and was with him when he died.

She had scotties most of her life, until she decided about twenty years ago that she was getting too old. She would qualify as a backyard breeder, at least while she was breeding scotties, but not a puppy-miller. Fala, she told the reporter, was the pick of a litter whelped in 1940 (if memory serves) by Peter x Wendy, both owned by Miss Suckley (pronounced Sookley).

Fala outlived the president by some years, and is buried in the rose garden at the family home at Hyde Park; and is remembered each year at Fala Day at Warm Springs, Georgia.

SPONSOR NEEDED FOR BBE TROPHY

Mrs. Isabell McCool, national trophy chairwoman, has announced that Dr. and Mrs. Kirk have resigned the sponsorship of the Bred-by-Exhibitor Trophy awarded annually. Under their sponsorship the trophy was denominated the Balachan Bred-by-Exhibitor Trophy.

Applications for sponsorship should be mailed to Mrs. McCool at 2174 33rd Ave., San Francisco, CA 94116. Her telephone number is (415) 564-1391.

The value of the sterling silver trophy is $100.

"SCOTCH BARK"

GREATER DALLAS STC

Theresa Thomas, corresponding secretary, 5305 Jane Anne, Fort Worth, TX 76117.

AKC "Gazette" show records published January through December, 1990, show that GDSTC members finished conformation championships on 14 dogs. We are proud that nine of the dogs were bred by club members, and 11 of them were handled and conditioned to part or all of their championships by the members.

Bergit Coady's two-day grooming seminar in January was a great success for GDSTC. The club has sold about 450 of its "Scottie Sampler" cookbooks, bringing in a profit of about $1700.

"STRAIGHT PITTSBURGH SCOTTISH TERRIER CLUB"

GREATER PITTSBURGH SCOTTISH TERRIER CLUB

Laurie Dunbar, Lois Smith and Bernie Bourdeau, Editors Laurie Dunbar, corresponding secretary, 3512 Ivy Lane, Murrysville, PA 15668.

Pending STCA approval, GPSTC will have its first specialty Aug. 17, at Cranberry Motor Lodge, Warrendale, PA. AKC has already approved the show.

GPSTC members and their Scotties were in downtown Pittsburgh Sept. 28 at the annual Wag Day of the Animal Rescue League. They collected money for the league's work rescuing and neutering strays. The club is very active in the American Diabetic Association's Canine Division. Members also participated with their dogs in the Scottish breeds activities of the Highland Games in Ligonier, PA. The club's annual Christmas party at Spadara's Restaurant in Murrysville featured a grab bag exchange and a heavy laden crafts table for Christmas shopping.

GPSTC members have stumbled on a new way to test for Scottie Cramp. "All it takes is a $20 remote control car," says Lois Smith. She explains that such a car will get the dogs so excited that they will cramp without use of the usual test medication. Smith told of several dogs which members have tested that had never shown any visual sign of cramping, but cramped soon after being exposed to the remote control car.

Sandi Hach, editor, Route 4, Box 271, Forest, VA 24551

Evelyn Kirk, secretary, 5832 Kirk Lane, Roanoke, VA 24018

New officers of the STCWV have been elected. They are Joan Duke, president; Jim Kessler, vice president; Evelyn Kirk, secretary; Sandi Hach, treasurer; and board members Doris Garbett, Jeff Allen and Betty Henderson.

The February meeting will be a step back in history. Robert Marshall's tape of Scottish Terrier judging at the 1965 Westminster Kennel Club recently was uncovered by Evelyn Kirk and will be shown. This is the year Ch. Carmichael's Fanfare won Best in Show. Eng./Am. Ch. Bardene Bingo was still in the classes, where he was WD/BW. It'll be a rare chance to see the legendary Johnny Murphy and Bob Bartos in action handling these two great dogs?

The club wishes loyal member Jane Anderson the best in her new home of New Orleans.

A mini grooming workshop is planned in conjunction with our summer match.

The club sponsored a handling seminar Oct. 27 at Margaret and Norman Smith's. Jonathan Kimes was the "official." About a dozen persons attended. The seminar was video taped, and copies are available. An Oktoberfest lunch filled out the day.

Our annual match was Dec. 9 in Denver. The turnout was wonderful. We had great support. Former professional handler Raymond Bay, Morrison, CO, was our judge. Our Christmas party followed at the home of Sharlene Jung. A lot of food and friendship was shared. Through our Scottie rescue service, several dogs have been placed recently.

STC OF MICHIGAN

Cynthia Wallgren, editor, 2281 Manchester, Birmingham, MI 48009
Phyllis Harp, assistant editor, 2930 Killarney Park Drive, Hartland, MI 48029

Important VWD News: In November, 33 Scotties went to a VWD clinic at Michigan State University Veterinary College. The lab drew blood for a double blood study, i.e., one sample for Dr. Dodds' lab in New York and the other for VWD work at Michigan State. A complete thyroid study also was done on each dog, and a drop of blood was taken from the lip to time clotting. All Scotties passed this test with flying colors.

Barb DeSaye set up the testing schedule, and it went like clockwork. Each dog was taken back to the lab by one of the assistant vets, and all work was done very efficiently. It was calm and quiet, and dogs came out wagging their tails.

Our club presented Dr. William Schall of Michigan State with a check for $3,000 to speed up the important work of developing a more reliable test for von Willebrand's Disease. $1,000 of this gift was raised as net proceeds from the sale of raffle tickets on the gorgeous oil painting that Margie Cooke donated to us. Of course, the more money that is donated, the shorter will be the time required to find the important genetic marker for VWD. Just think, when that happens, blood can be drawn, regardless of whether the bitch is in season, the dog has had recent shots, etc; and the results will show either that the dog is a carrier or not a carrier. So clubs, please organize a fund raising effort for this very worthwhile venture! Everyone will benefit. Contributions can be sent to Dr. William D. Schall or Dr. Vilma Yuzbasiyan-Gurkan, College of Veterinary Medicine, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824. Mark donations specifically for Molecular Genetic Diagnosis of Scottish Terrier von Willebrands Disease.

In addition to the $3,000 donated to VWD research, STCM also donated $200 to Morris Animal foundation and $350 to the American Dog Owners Association.

We had a very successful fun match Sept. 23 at Dee and Bob Strong's. Even though Mother Nature did not cooperate, we had an excellent entry for judge Joanne Kinnelley. Under the black clouds and cold wind, 58 warm and hardy souls had a blast. Judy Van Patten and Chuck Gubry were judges for our unique "Parts Competition." There were 19 dogs in the regular classes and 22 in "Parts."

Match results:

Best Puppy - Barbareys Bad Medicine, owned by Maureen McConnell

Best Adult - Anstamm Dust Devil, owned by Anstamm Kennels

Best Advance (class for dogs with major points): Anstamm Low Commotion, owned by Anstamm Kennels

We are working on our projects for 1991: the first to be Dog Night at the Movies then the awards banquet in April, match in June, flea market in July and specialty in September.

New officers were elected at our specialty dinner in September. They are: Frank Morrow, president; Sue Martin, 1st vice-president; Paul DeBene, 2nd vice-president; Cathy Martin, corresponding secretary; Joanne Kinnelley, recording secretary; Mary Ruddy, treasurer; and board members Barbara DeSaye, Cynthia Wallgren, Jean Gibney and Phyllis Harp.

Our November program was a "Fala Day" show put together by Don Hoogstra, highlighting special moments of the club's outing to the Little White House.

Members brought dog food for the humane society and a bottle of "spirits" for our Christmas Cheer Basket to the Christmas party. The spirits are given away at the party. Then traditionally the basket is donated back to the club for our show hospitality, less a bottle or two of the winner's favorite, of course. Annual awards were presented at the party to dogs completing a title during the last year. Members earned 10 conformation titles and one obedience C.D.X. title.

Our January program was a slide show by International Canine Genetics, a company which specializes in sperm freezing and pregnancy and paternity testing. The show provided useful information on artificial insemination.

Our specialty will be April 14. Kathy Brown will judge sweepstakes and Ronald Krohne the regular classes. The specialty follows Macon Kennel Club's show April 12 and Atlanta Kennel Club's show April 13. Michael Cook is specialty chairman.

Maxine Stickler, "Bagpiper" correspondent, 2711 Blankenbaker Road,

Our November program was a video presentation and discussion on Scottie Cramp by Dr. Thomas Berge, Gaslight Square Animal Hospital.

For Christmas, 25 members enjoyed a holiday brunch Dec. 9 at Masterson's. Individual favors were standing Scottie Christmas tree ornaments. After a delightful meal, members exchanged Scottie gifts. The party continued later with traditional eggnog and story swapping at the home of Dan and Maxine Stickler.

STCGL is amending its Constitution and By-laws to better meet the club's needs. Proposals are to raise membership dues and to make corresponding secretary a separate office. Members will vote on these board recommendations in January.

The club has agreed to support the Louisville Kennel Club three-day cluster shows in March by setting up a booth to acquaint the public with our breed. A grooming seminar is scheduled for January. Michael Cook, Atlanta, will be the consultant.

Our Christmas party was at the home of Robin Starr. Seventeen gathered to share the holiday. On Jan. 26 professional handler Bergit Coady conducted a pet grooming seminar for the club at the home of Charlene Bennett. It was limited to 30 dogs and 60 persons. The club encouraged professional groomers to attend.

Tim Bennett is chairman and Donn LaVigne co-chairman for June specialty, scheduled Great Western Terrier weekend in conjunction with the STCA Rotating Specialty.

Other activities: The club has established an Award of Merit. Deadline for first nominations was set for Jan. 31. A Scottie photo album of members' dogs is being compiled: champions to companions.

(Regional Editor's Note: News gleaned from a fall, 1990, Washington State STC newsletter said, "It was mentioned that a West Coast club had rescued 200 Scotties in the past three years." Though there were no numbers in the December STCC newsletter, I counted 21 rescue dogs which owe their great good fortune to recent efforts of STCC Scottie Rescue.) Perhaps STCC is the club that has rescued the 200 dogs? I distilled the following from that "Bulletin." Read the reasons these Scotties ended up as Rescues and decide if you are doing enough to screen your buyers and prevent indiscriminate breeding and creation of disposable Scotties.. Carole Owen.)

Many Scotties have been rescued through efforts of STCC members. Carol Herd, Westminster, CA, (ph. 714-893-5821) chairs the club's Scottie Rescue, which even has its own logo.

Two of the lucky Scotties Herd wrote about in December were Robbie and Maddie, a little Scottie pair found living in the Gabriel River flood control channel. Another pet store Scottie lucky enough to escape into a home quickly only to be given up due to its family's move, was year-old Zoe. She is just 13 pounds, and now the hit of her new neighborhood.

Poor Winston's ears were so infected that he couldn't hear when he was adopted. This 9-year-old gentleman can now hear again. Mr. Chips and Mrs. Miniver, about 3 and 4 years old, came out of the Kern County Shelter and now live together in Bakersfield. Then there was little year-old MacKenzie, who lived in a cage in a pet store until he was almost 7 months old, only to be soon given up on by his owner as "spooky and aloof." He is now starting to trust his new family and Doxie pal Samantha.

Some reasons why Scotties have ended up in the STCC Rescue program are:

- Owner was "overwhelmed" with year-old Prudence and Jenny, an Airedale and two jobs.
- Teenage "friends" didn't take care of good-natured McGyver as promised.
- Job related travel brought Clyde to Rescue.
- Current family couldn't afford the vet-recommended allergy tests for 6-year-old Kylie.
- Owner couldn't spend enough time with sweet and showy year-old Murphy.

STCC Scottie Rescue was recently spotlighted along with Soft-Coated Wheaten Terrier, Miniature Schnauzer and Basset Rescues on a 30-minute cable TV show called "Paw Prints." The program originated in Huntington Beach in mid-November and has aired in five neighboring cities. It has run at least a half dozen times since Thanksgiving and will continue intermittently.

"Little Nessie, one of our summer rescues, was found on the on-ramp to the San Diego freeway in San Clemente, and came to us via the Orange County Shelter. She was our Scottie "star" for the program," said Rescue Chairman Carol Herd. "She sat on my lap like a perfect lady during the 10-minute interview."

By far most new homes have come, though, as the result of a free Scottie Rescue ad that runs every month in "Muttmatchers Messenger," a publication of Humane Animal Rescue Team in Fillmore, explained Herd. This newspaper is widely circulated free to Southern California grooming shops, veterinarians, pet shops and senior centers.

"Scottie owners are such generous people, and there are many to thank," said Herd in the STC's December newsletter.

"SCOTTIE SCOOP"

STC OF GREATER NEW YORK

William Berry, "Bagpiper correspondent," 3 Sagamore Road, Parsippany, NJ 07054

Lois Slembecker, editor, 55 West 11th St., New York, NY 10011

STCGNY enjoyed a very active and productive Fall. The primary activity, Montgomery County, was a great success, with major awards going to Shirley Morris' dog Deblin's Pep Talk (Winners Dog) and the BOB and Best in Show taken by Ch. Brookkill's Morning Edition. "Lola," bred by club member Luis Arroyo, also won BOB at Devon and Hatboro. The new format for Montgomery weekend was enthusiastically endorsed by our membership.

The club's annual holiday dinner was Dec. 15, with an excellent meal, holiday grab bag and a raffle for boxes of wine.

The annual report of the rescue committee disclosed that we placed 17 Scots this year. A review of the past two year's rescue activities disclosed that only one was from a breeder, the balance being from pet shops. The breeder's dog was returned by an owner who could no longer take care of him. Proper screening of prospective buyers can ensure that this closed-loop system will work, preventing our Scots from falling into horrible circumstances.

NEW CHAMPION CRISSCOT CROWN PRINCE CHARLY

(Ch. Schaffer's Redson x Crisscot Corona of Wellyn)

Charly finished his championship with a five point major at Devon under Mr. Robert Moore.

Thank you Mr. Moore for recognizing Charly's quality and giving us such a thrilling win!

STC OF GREATER WASHINGTON, D.C.

Jo-Anne Dale, editor, 4209 74th Place, Landover Hills, MD 20784

STCGW has had an active and rewarding year. We began by getting involved in the local PAL (People Animals Love) program, taking our dogs to visit at area nursing homes. In May we held an agility clinic to try out our new equipment which was largely built by club members. We have twice yearly field trials, a spring match and an annual specialty. Add to that our grooming lessons, obedience classes and go-to-ground, and there's something for everyone.

Our fall obedience classes met weekly beginning in September, and the club was well represented in Pennsylvania during October at the STCA obedience match Montgomery County weekend. We had 11 Scotties entered. Our go-to-ground practice continues one weekend a month, and the fall field trial was Nov. 4.

At our November meeting, Dr. Robert Dove, Scottish Deerhound breeder/exhibitor spoke on "Health and Husbandry of the Newborn Puppy." During December the club encouraged participation in the annual Scottish Walk in Alexandria, VA., and members met at the Blair Mansion Inn, Silver Spring, MD., for our annual Christmas awards dinner. Five grooming classes followed by potluck dinners are scheduled for January through March at the home of Betty Lou and Larry Breese. STCGW has been presented with a hooked rug depicting our club's emblem by Frances Kirsch. It will be cherished for years.

STC OF NEW ENGLAND

Jackie Brightman, editor, 77 Middle Road, Acushnet, MA 02743
Nancy Beavers, corresponding secretary, 11 Captain Forbush Lane,
Acton, MA 01720

New officers for the STCNE were elected at the club's annual meeting Nov. 11. They are Gertrude Reida, president; Charles Havens, 1st vice-president; Donna Cone, 2nd vice-president; John McNabney; treasurer; Ann Edwards, recording secretary; Nancy Beavers, corresponding secretary; and board of directors Jacqueline Brightman, Pat Courtney, James Guppy, Norma Bouchard, Mary Tolles, Barbara Allbright, and Geoffrey Dawson.

Special feature of the annual meeting and dinner at the Greenhouse Cafe was a snapshot photo contest, a fundraiser at $1.00 per entry (sorry, no dog show photos!).

CLUBS SLOW IN RESPONDING TO APPEAL FOR RESEARCH

Members and readers will recall in the fall issue of The Bagpiper an article by Barbara DeSaye giving information on research being done by veterinarians at the University of Michigan aimed at developing a molecular genetic diagnostic test for Von Willebrand's Disease. If successful it would provide a much simpler and more reliable test than we now have. In her article Mrs. DeSaye stated that the Michigan STCA had donated $3,000 toward this research, and requested that other regional clubs make contributions to that work. Up to the time of this writing only two had.

As much as any other way, and perhaps even more than most other ways, supporting this research, and others that could give us the means to diminish the occurrence or genetic disorders would fulfill our mission of improving the breed.

Most regional clubs probably do not have the resources of the Michigan club, but the remaining 20 clubs could surely account for twice the Michigan club's donation. Nor should we look toward just clubs. Members who are not part of a regional club could also undertake fundraising projects to add to the research fund. Where there are several members living in close proximity to one another, they could form an ad hoc committee to do a fundraising project. Where a member finds himself isolated from other members, he could undertake a fundraising effort himself, be it nothing more than raffling a cake, selling plants, or surplus garden produce, and nets $20.00. A hundred members achieving that sum would add $2,000 to the research fund.

Funds can be sent via Barbara DeSaye (address in roster) or directly to William D. Schall, DVM, College of Veterinary Science, Department of Small Animal Clinical sciences, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824-1314.

Scottish terriers are being used in this research. While a number of breeds are afflicted with VWD, it does not necessarily follow that the genetic marker is the same in each, though one would expect that the breeds would not greatly differ in the causative gene gone wrong.

THE NEW DECADE-THE NEW NAME-THE NEW SCOTTIES

Just starting out a little over a year ago I needed all the help I could get and there were a few people who believed enough in me to do this and I believe in giving credit where credit is due. Many along the way have offered their help, but there are those who stand out.

MANY THANKS TO:

BERGIT & CLAY COADY - BONNIE BRIAR

For their help and guidance and the acquisition of Triss my foundation bitch and Derek my first Owner-Handled dog. And of course answering the endless questions that I'm sure still seem to be endless!

JACKI & GLEN HERRON - JACGLEN SCOTTISH TERRIERS

For their sponsorship to the STCC & the STCA and the many tips on grooming and showing my own dogs.

MARTHA MERRILL - MERRILLAND, REG. KENNEL

For her sponsorship to the STCA and for all the hours she spent teaching me how to strip and groom my own dogs. And she even provided the scotties for me to work on!

AL & JEANNIE JENNINGS - RAVENS CRAIG

For all their help as to understanding the Breed Standard and correct movement. And for answering a multitude of endless questions!

DANNI CANINO - DEALER PET SUPPLY

For her wonderful handling classes that helped me present my dogs the proper way and her hints on the proper dress for the ring!

AND LAST BUT NOT LEAST

To all the Judges who appreciated the quality and potential of my Scotties, making 1990 a very successful year for us all.

Sometimes It Pays To Stop at the Top

"She went all the way!" I burst into the house bragging:
"Best in Show her first time out!"

"Mother, that was no show. That was just a match!" my realistic teenager groaned.

"OK, call it Best in Match, if you insist. I prefer to call it Best in Match show. Petta did go Best, and even won all adults in the final line-up.

THE STUD DOG: "ESSENTIALLY MASCULINE"

Writing in her book, The Kennelgarth Scottish Terrier Book, Miss Betty Penn-Bull describes the stud dog as being "essentially masculine." That is a quality not easily defined, but one easily learned by observation. Another way of putting it is a doggy dog, (Interestingly, one notable breeder has given us a truism, that a good brood bitch is a "doggy bitch".)

Miss Penn-Bull continues, "He should embody the major breed characteristics and should be a worthy representative to further his race.

"It is important that he be mentally, physically, structurally and constitutionally sound. He should be well developed, active, bold and confident; and should combine correct breed type and temperament."

Reflecting upon what she says, and reiterates, one sees that Miss Penn-Bull does not consider a dog excellent in physical conformation, but shy, phlegmatic, lacking in self-assured confidence; not bold and curious to be a "worthy representative to further his race".

Accepting her definition of a stud dog, and by inference, her definition of a true dog breeder, the latter assumes the responsibility of knowing not only his stock, but that of others; and breeds puppies that not only have impressive pedigrees, but, if they are not improvements of the breed, are not deteriorations of it, either.

That is not an easy task, unless luck intervenes on a breeder's behalf, as surely has happened; but even then, without good judgment the benefit is likely to be of short duration. In so broad and extensive land as are the North American countries it is not easy to personally know all of even the important kennels. We are left to do the best we can in that regard. To the true breeder it may be painstaking, time-consuming, but an adventure rather than drudgery.

Aside from luck, that is, inadvertently being in the right place at the right time, having that innate sense, "an eye for a dog" is of inestimable help. Lacking either, methodical study and care for one's dogs; and knowing what advice to take, is the breeder's only course.

There has been discussion about the relative influence of the sire and the dam of a given litter of puppies. While a great stud dog or a great brood bitch will always implant better qualities than run-of-the-mill parentage, variations in characteristics among the puppies of a litter is usual. That might suggest when the proposition is being discussed that one should ask, "Which puppy is being discussed?" A brood bitch bred to any number of dogs may produce nothing worth writing home about, but when mated to a stud dog as described by Miss Penn-Bull will almost certainly produce some puppies worth mentioning.

To whatever degree, the stud dog is important to the breed, and for that reason, The Bagpiper has an annual stud dog issue. Following are the stud card advertisements. Each displays a small picture of the subject dog, his pedigree and a brief description of the subject. Peruse them carefully. Choose those that seem likely. Work to flesh out the pedigrees with as much information as you can obtain about the names on the pedigrees. Talk to the owners. A true breeder will give you information and advice, not a sales pitch. After careful thought and study, make your choice.

"CHARLIE", now retired from the show ring, was an outstanding show dog, winner of the Lloyd Trophy, five all-breed BIS and multiple BISS. His attributes include small ears, short back, compact body, beautiful tail set and a winning "stage presence" in the ring. Sire of 16 champions, his get include a BIS winner and several others with multiple group placements.

Frozen sperm is now available.

CH. SANDGREG'S SWEET CHARITY

June 22, 1980 - December 27, 1990

Charity was bred by Bill and Sue Martin, sired by Ch. Sandgreg's Square Deal x Ch. Sandgreg's Kismet. She came to live at Sandgreg at 10 weeks of age. We and other breeders had bred some good wheaten, but this one was special (and she knew it). Her advent in the show ring changed the views of exhibitors and judges of the wheaten Scottish terrier as a show dog from "an exception to rule" to an equal status with Scottish terriers of other colors.

Charity finished her champions in both the United States and Canada in fairly short order. Her first litter, sired by Editorial produced five champions out of seven puppies, and she would later produce six more champions.

After finishing her championship, owner-handled, Charity went with her special friend, Mark George, for campaigning and under his handling became "The Star", as he called her. To us she was an "Angel" who left us with such wonderful memories, and especially warm feelings of love and goodwill when we think of her, a dog we could not have loved more.

John and Barbara DeSaye, Sandgreg

Thistle Park Worthy Endeavor

(Ch. Charthill Worthy Of Colwick x Heather's Maggie McGregor)

Even on the tough Florida circuit the judge deemed him worthy of a 4 point major and BOS over specials. We extend a warm thank you to judge Mrs. G.J. Wanner Sr. for this special win.

(Ch. Killisport Rox At Scarista x Ch. Wychwyre Witchcraft)

Tyson and Bill sure had a lot of fun in '90. Along the road to his championship, Tyson won 4 Best in Sweeps (Dayton, San Francisco, Chicago and Michigan) and had Specialty wins at Michigan (WD - BW) and Northern Ohio (WD, BW & BB from the Bred By class over specials). There were also two Group placements along the way. Pictured here is another Group placing with judge Nancy Fingerhut. The boys will have some more fun in '91 in the Specials class.

PLACEMENTS AT THE STCA'S FIRST OBEDIENCE FUN MATCH HELD AT MONTGOMERY COUNTY EVENT

The principal placements, along with a report of the fun match were reported in the fall issue. These are the class placements in the classes where there were placements. Some "degreed" scotties chose to prove once again that a scottie is his own dog, and if he is not in the mood to perform up to par, he won't. And they prove that exhibitors who take scotties into obedience trials are made of better stuff than those who handle Golden Retrievers.
