

FOR THE DUNCES

The dog may seem the fool
atop the Dunce's Stool, but usually the rule
says pups are only taught what Master's learned at school.

While venturing to teach who was it used to preach that grasp should equal reach?
Lest Master heeds the thought,
it's just a pretty speech.

Extend your scrutiny
to challenge what I see.
You may agree with me
if Master's faults aren't caught what's wrong will always be.
