Following the Saturday show, the exhibitors gathered at the Amann abode for dinner and lots of Skye talk.

Charlene Clark sends a report of a similar weekend in Utah enjoyed by area exhibitors. Ch. Rondan Lady Star of Roylaines, owned by Ron Riddle, scored BOB and Group Second both days, under Glen Fancy and Frank Foster Davis.

Anne Tater is celebrating a Group Third by her Ch. Talisker's Fairy Shadow garnered under Forrest Hall at Enid, Okla.

This is the season for the Christmas puppy. It is your advance preparation that will assure your puppy a loving home and proper care. Send an instruction sheet with every puppy, advising as to proper feeding, shots, grooming and general care. Both your puppy and his new owner will deeply appreciate this thoughtfulness.

As many of you already know, a vote has been taken by the Skye Terrier Club of America concerning the placement of a disqualification clause concerning color in our present Standard. As of this date, there has been no official word as to the result of the vote.

EASTERN NEWS

by Robert A. Marshall
29 Newtown Road
Rockoff, New Jersey

Since we were "scooped" this month by Martha regarding results of the two Specialties covered above, we'll just have to play "second fiddle" this time. We missed the Washington weekend . . . a young bitch of ours was due to whelp her first litter on the 10th. She looked and acted as if she was about to have ten, but her spoofing was brought to a halt on the 63rd day by a trip to the vets for X-rays. She's pretty sheepish about the whole thing, but I suspect she still ticks about all the extra attention and those "few" extra tid-bits during the past month . . . next time, Andy!

Thanks to Helen Stalter, the following report of the two shows which followed the Washington D.C. Specialty. At Catonsville, Mrs. Hollywood Hartley judged "Fanfare" BOB, and she went on to take the Terrier Group. BOS to the Weavers' Club. Scots Guard Troop the Colors; also their Scots Guard Flare of Perry, WB and BOS. The Grahams' Tenthill's Bear Edition took the points in dogs. Rounding out that weekend, on Sunday, the 11th, at Rock Creek K. C. with Alva Rosenberg judging, "Troop the Colors" was BOB, Dr. and Mrs. Kirk's Ch. Balachan Gibson Girl, BOS, "Flare of Fury" WB and BW, and Carmichael's Innovation owned and bred by Ruth Johnson, was WD.

At the Alby K. C. on Oct. 17th, Mrs. Paul Silvernail did the judging and placed "Fanfare" BOB, and she went on to score another BIS. WD and BOS went to Dr. and Mrs. Thomas' Highlander Hey Jamie, while WB and BW was the Stalters' Barberry Knowe Frolic.

At Delaware, Ohio, the day after the Ohio Specialty, a major in both sexes with 22 present. BOB to Helen Gaiher's Ch. Gaidoune Grin and Bear It, BOS to Ch. Filbert Fil's Wish, WD to Sharonlane Radames, and WB and BW to Gaywyn Baroness.

A letter from Marie Darroch with a marked catalog of the Scottish Terrier Club of England Open show results. Held at Darlington on Oct. 3rd, Mr. H. Hughes judged an entry of 100 with 31 dogs present. Best Dog to Messrs. Gil and McShanes Killsie Black Magic (Eng. Ch. Bardene Bingo — Balgownie Butterfluff), Best Bitch and BIS to Mandavil Melody (Eng. Ch. Glenview Silver Gilt — Wasing Woodcrest) bred and owned by Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Manners. Both relative youngsters, the bitch not quite a year old, and the dog just 8 months.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY FOLLOW

UP: The after dinner show staged by Blanche Reeg, and ably assisted by Johnnie Murphy and Tom Kirk caused a good deal of lively discussion. Two champions were displayed and Blanche led the assemblage in a point review of the Official Breed Standard. I'm sure that many of those present found the various opinions expressed quite enlightening and informative. Not the least of this education was the recognition that the various parts of the Scot's anatomy are not as we
