Monday morning, the 15th of February, our Scots in the ring at 10:00 A.M., first to be judged, and judge Alva Rosenberg had 21 present. The long awaited meeting of Fanfare and Bingo turned many an exhibitor into a spectator, everyone full of anticipation and not wanting to miss any of the action. The ringside and gallery had an unusually large crowd for such an early judging, and action and excitement there was. Not many of us will soon forget the appearance of these two greats in the same ring.

Bred by Exhibitor Dogs (1): Van Istendal's Wee Billie, owned by

— Best in Show at the 89th Annual Dog Show of the Westminster Kennel Club.

It was just 15 years ago that another Scottish Terrier, Ch. Walsing Winning Trick of Edgerstoune, a great-great grandfather of Fanfare won the BIS award at the Garden. However, even the great Trick didn't match the fantastic show record of this great bitch. Thus, the highest award of American Dog Shows goes to "Mamie" at her final show, a fitting tribute to her owners; her breeder, Mrs. Ruth Johnson; and her handler, the incomparable Johnny Murphy.
