End of the year Western shows brought out major entries more often than not, and we hope the trend continues in the New Year. In November, a two show weekend in the north of California. At Redwood Empire, under William Ackland, WD and BW to become a new champion was Charves Rory O'More (Ch. Gilkey's Johnny Come Lately — Ch. Balachan Gambit) bred and owned by Bob and Mildred Charves, and the second from this litter to finish. RWD was W. and B. Dunham's Castlecrag Highland Wanderer (Ch. Bardene Boy Blue — Charves Gillie Callum). WB and BOS to Castlecrag Highland Thistle, a sister to "Wanderer," also owned by the Dunhams, with Reserve going to Neatha Robinson's puppy, Miss Millionaire of Gil-Mac (Ch. Glad-Mac's Millionaire — Baby Doe's Betsy Ross). BOB and Group Third to Mr. and Mrs. Stamm's Ch. Anstamm Dark Venture (Ch. Bardene Boy Blue — Anstamm Paragon) handled by Lena Kardos. "Venture" repeated the next day at Mensona under Forrest Hall, while "Wanderer" won the dog points, "Thistle" repeating in bitches,

CH. STOCKDALE MAC OF MORAY scores Best of Breed at San Mateo in his first ring appearance since finishing his title at the Long Beach Specialty. Mrs. Carl Young, breeder judge, makes the award. Handled by Bob Charves for owners, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Leach of North Hollywood, Calif. (Bennett photo)

also BW and BOS.

Up in Washington, Charles Marck judged the Whidby Island show, finding BOB in Mrs. Robinson's Ch. Glad-Mac's Admiral of Seaglen. WD and BW went to Betty Grewe's Marlorain Valentine (Ch. Revran Sympathy — Ch. Marlorain Nora) handled by Warren Smith. WB and the title for the Stephens' Duinecanis Celtic Caprice (Laird Jock Morae O'Mistelglen — Mistehaze Megan O'Kilgrier). CH. LEATHERS MIGHTY EDITION shown going BOB at Enid, Okla., for a 5 point major. Sired by Ch. Special Edition, he is out of Ch. Brymstone Bittersweet. He finished his title with three Group placements and is a littermate of Ch. Leathers Seanachie. Handled by Dora Lee Wilson for breeder-owners, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leathers of Carthage, Missouri.

CH. ANSTAMM BLUE CHARM, the first champion for her owners, finished her title in seven shows, and was defeated only once within her sex. She scored majors under judges, Murr, Kirk and Cartwright. "Meme" is the ninth champion sired by Eng. Can. and Am. Ch. Bardene Boy Blue, and is out of Ch. Sandoone Lady Thalia, a granddaughter of the great Eng Ch. Reanda Roger Rough. Owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Krueger of Westport, Conn.

or BOS.

A whopping entry of 5 dogs, 12 bitches and 4 Specials for judge, Maurice Baker at the "new" California show, the Del Sur Kennel Club. WD and still another championship title to the John Saguds' Marlorain Bit O'Honey (Ch. Marlorain Proud Piper — Ch. Marlorain Lollipop), handled by Daisy Austad. WB and BW to Leard's Miss Prissy (Ch. Crescent Hill Comet — Short Scot Sassy) owned by Florence Wolman and Meon Leard, and proudly handled to this 5 pointer by Florence. In my excitement, I forgot to get Reserve or BOS information. BOB and a Group Second to the Stamm's "Dark Venture," handled by Lena Kardos.

Mrs. Carl Young enjoyed her first judging assignment out of her home state, when she passed over an entry of 5 dogs, 5 bitches and 2 Specials at San Mateo, Calif. BOB in his first Specials appearance went to Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Leach's Ch. Stockdale Mac of Moray (Ch. Stockdale Black Jack — Stockdale Janna) shown by Bob Charves. WD and BW went to Charves Sil-Blu Simon (Ch. Bardene Boy Blue — Ch. Charves Silver Tassie) owned and shown by the Charves. Reserve to their puppy, Charves Paddy O'Rafferty (Ch. Gilkey's Johnny Come Lately — Ch. Balachan Gambit), Charles Stalter has been approved to judge the 7th Specialty of the Greater Miami Scottish Terrier Club, January 16, 1965 at Hialeah, Fla.

I was delighted to hear that the members of the Washington State ST Club recently held a benefit "Auction" on behalf of Alaskan members, Keith and Alice Fuller, to aid in the upkeep of their 8 Scots until they are able to relocate after loosing almost everything as a result of the Anchorage earthquake. Members were asked to bring friends, and items to auction, while letters were written to other out-of-state members asking for their representation either with items for auction or monetary donations. We understand it was a great success. Other news items from this area concern the marriage of Annette Ward to Joe Bryant. We are all most pleased for them both, and are assured that they will "double" their club participation as a result. Members share the excitement of Mr. E. Stewart of Carnation Farms, responsible for the recent import, Eng. Ch. Bardene Bingo. We understand that happy Bob Bartos took "Bingo" all the way to BIS at Tacoma, his first time out!

Show news is somewhat scarce after the big happenings of last month. A good time to remember that the entries for the STAC February Specialty close February 2. Mrs. Lena Kardos journeying East from California to do the judging.

Those charts on Scottie Head Length/Age and Weight/Age have been reproduced. A self-addressed envelope to me will bring copies.

The following is a little fact mixed with a little fiction about one of the citizens at Raab Hill. How much fact? how much fiction?—look to your own Scot and see.

A Purpose in Life

One of the characteristics of the Scottish Terrier that is not detailed in Breed Standard is the Scot's penchant for selecting a particular chore around the house that he can call his very own. Watchdog against intruders, keeper of the garden patch, doorbell echo, clock-watcher (for Dad to come home), bedtime reminder. Yes, all these are routine and generally performed in a vigorous and dedicated manner. The habit pattern which develops after a particular Scot picks his assigned mission in life is extremely firm and with his dour and responsible nature, often impossible to change.

Now, we have a Scot. Naturally he's called Mac. And he possesses
