It seems that the "new" Scottish Club, aptly named the Heart of America Scottish Terrier Club, is making headway. A recent letter from Mrs. Dean (Carol) Humphrey, tells us that they along with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Craft and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Boyles, are working hard towards reaching this goal and their progress is nothing short of amazing. Plans are already being laid for a spring Puppy Match, and many "guest speakers" for forthcoming meetings have already been arranged. Those in the "Heart of America" area who are interested should contact the Crafts, Brymstone Kennels, R.R. 22, Box 219-X, Parkville, Mo. Those of you in the Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska area should want to give this venture your strongest support. We hope to hear much from this area in the near future.

A most pleasant and enthusiastic letter from Dorothy Morris (Scots Delight) of Maryland tells us of her activities, past and recent. The owners of Ch. Gaidoune Gidgit, who presented them with a September litter, are making plans for showing three of these in the fall. Several years ago, they obtained a lovely bitch puppy, MacKinnon's Jewel Reward, and showed her to within one point of her title only to lose her in September. However, she had first presented them with a litter by Ch. The Laird of Scots Guard, from which two puppies have enjoyed a great deal of success. The male, Scots Delight Royal Savage, gained three majors before nine months, and has since finished for the title. A sister, now Ch. Scots Delight Radiant Jewel, finished from the American-Bred classes with three majors and several BOS awards over Specials. Another male recently gained WD at the Annapolis K. C. He is owned by the Roy Kirks of Glenburnie, Md. To quote Dorothy: "We are very proud of this litter and only wish we had their mother back. However, Cissy, as we called her, is at Nancy Lenfesty's now to be bred, as is our Gidgit, so we hope to carry on with Cissy's youngsters."

The recent Cal-Ore Circuit, covering four shows over the Labor Day weekend, was a smashing success, at least for Scots, as the circuit brought out not just majors each day, but five-pointers at two shows! Beginning on Friday, Aug. 30th, at Redding, Calif., Mrs. Holland judged a three-point entry, and awarded Best of Breed to the Stamm's Ch. Bardene Boy Blue, handled as usual by Lena Kardos. "Simon," as he is affectionately known, went through the entire circuit capturing this award, and scored further honors the last three days. WD at Redding went to Zelwyn's Sandy Lyee (Ch. Viewpark Dictator—Ch. Glendoune Gwenda) owned by Zel-

CAN. CH. CHARVES MAGGIE LAUDER scores a Five and Four point major, scoring BW and BOS at Medford, Oregon, under Mrs. Herman Jordan and repeating at Eugene, Ore., the next day under Mr. Anton Korbel. She is a homebred sired by Ch. Gilkey's Johnny Come Lately ex Ch. Balachan Gambit, owned by the Robert Charves of El Sobrante, Calif.

wyn Kennels and handled by Kardos through to Best of Winners. Reserve in Dogs to W. H. and Barbara Dunham's Glenkerry's Mr. MacPherson (Ch. Glad-Mac's Sailor of Seaglen—Merrie Oaks Lucky Me). WB and BOS to Zelwyn's Dainty Lyadee (Ch. Cantie Captivator—Ch. Lycee of Zelwyn) also owned by Zelwyn and handled by Kardos, and from the American-Bred class. Reserve to the Open winner, Medrick Maxine (Medrick's Maxim—Lochhigh Linda) owned by Medrick Kennels and handled by May Pridham. Moving to Oregon, where point ratings are slightly lower, it was a five point entry for Maurice Baker at Klamath Falls, and "Simon" went on to score a Group First here, under Dr. Mitten. WD and BW to Glad-

ENG., CAN. and AM. CH. BARDENE BOY BLUE shown winning one of three GROUP FIRSTS on the Cal-Ore Circuit. Judging this Group was Mr. Anton Korbel, with Lena Kardos handling. "Simon" is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stamm of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mac's Admiral of Seaglen (Ch. Carnation Challenge—Glad-Mac's Frilly Frock) owned by Mrs. W. M. Robertson and handled by Dorothy Christiansen. Reserve to Ayrloch Jason (Ch. Crescent Hill Comet—Ch. CamBria's Doll) owned by Florence Wolman and handled by Mitch Wooten. WB and BOS to complete her championship, subject of course to A.K.C. confirmation, to the "Simon" daughter, Anstamm Dark Secret, owned by Mrs. W. L. Emerson and handled by Kardos. This makes four champions sired by Ch. Bardene Boy Blue. Reserve in Bitches to Charves Gillie Callum (Ch. Balachan Advocate—Ch. Balachan Gambit) owned by the Dunhams. Moving on to Medford, Ore., where Mrs. Herman Jordan judged a five-point entry of eight dogs and eight bitches and also judged the Group, where "Simon" scored another Group First, battling it out for a second time with the famous German Shorthaired Pointer, Ch. Gretchenhof Moonshine, who scored a second Best in Show of the circuit. Winners Dog on this day to "Sandy Lyee" again, this five points enough to complete his championship, I believe, and in just six or seven showings with Lena, too! Reserve went to "MacPherson." Winners Bitch and BW to a youngster, not yet a year old, Charves Maggie Lauder (Ch. Gilkey's Johnny Come Lately — Ch. Balachan Gambit) who recently acquired her Canadian title and is owned by Mildred and Robert Charves. She was also BOS to "Simon." "Maxine" scored another Reserve in Bitches. Moving south again to the Eugene, Ore., show, Mr. Korbel had a four-point entry, again awarding the Breed to Ch. Bardene Boy Blue, who scored his third consecutive Group First for the circuit . . . quite a weekend for "Simon!" WD on this day to Dr. and Mrs. T. Allen Kirk Jr.'s Balachan Grenville, a litter brother to "Sandy Lyee," indicating this must have been quite a litter, as he is also very near the title. Reserve in Dogs to "Jason." Winners Bitch, BW and BOS for her second major, again to "Maggie Lauder," with Reserve going to the Dunhams' Competressa O'Cantie (Ch. Crescent Hill Leonid—Anstamm's Cantie Choice). All told, six different Scots received majors on the four-day circuit, and we saw two new champions finish . . . quite an eventful long weekend for several happy Scottie folk!

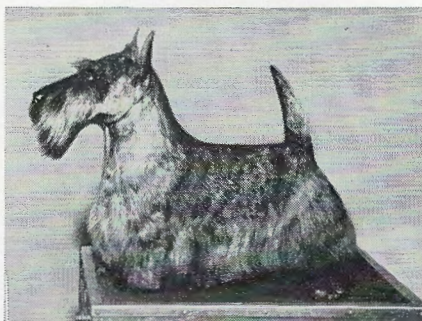

Feel I must take a moment to kind of "editorialize" concerning this monthly space, as many letters have come in over the past months which have contained worthy suggestions as to how best to make this space most interesting and worthwhile for all our readers, both those in Scots, as well as other Terrier fanciers, who, I have discovered, also read our column as well as those of their own breeds.

One idea the editor and I have been "tossing around" in our correspondence may satisfy one basic problem . . . that of keeping our space as "national" in scope as possible. We would like to suggest, for one thing, that each area Club, as well as the National Club, elect or select a correspondent to provide us with monthly news items that are directly related to their own Club activities, and/or items that they feel would be of "editorial" significance, along with ideas on all the necessary things con-
