

QUITE the best entry in Scotties at any of the recent shows was at the International Kennel Club event at Chicago on October 19th and 20th. Here they had the banner entry of 31—a nice compliment to the judge, Walter H. Reeves. The Easterners were on hand in goodly numbers and certainly did some grand winning. Marlu Farm Kennel's had Best of Breed with Ch. Deephaven Warspite, and he went on to second in the group. Warspite is of Ted Bennett's breeding and is a son of the famous Ch. Hillcote Laddie out of Ch. Deephaven Honeysuckle; T. H. Snaethen's Ch. Shieling's Blithesome was Best Opposite. A homebred, she is a daughter of the Snaethen's Westminster Best-in-Show winner, Ch. Shieling's Signature. Best of Winners was Mr. and Mrs. Merwin C. Day's Woodedge Barrage, a son of Bramshire Blaze O'Glory ex Woodedge Mopsy, bred by P. K. Groves. Winners Bitch was Elizabeth Hull's Wolscot Wireclad—a young bitch which will not be two years old until next May; bred by the late Emory Wolfe, she is a daughter of Ch. Bothkennar Royal. Scot out of Wolscot Wishing and Phil Prentice is handling her. The Reserves were Deephaven Kennels' Deephaven Spade Flush and the Snaethen's Shieling's Sylvia.

Catalogue from the Olympic Kennel Club show held at Renton, Wash. on September 7th and 8th was late reaching us, but a check reveals there was an entry of 15, with Enno Meyer judging. The Winners Bitch, Carnation Farm Kennels' Bobolink's Black Dawn went through to Best of Breed and also topped the group. She is by Edgerstoune Stir Up out of Blackbriar Bobolink and was bred by Mrs. J. C. Dressen. Blackbriar Kennels' Blackbriar Blair, entered for Specials, was Best Opposite. He is a homebred son of Int. Ch. Acton Hill's Copyright out of Blackbriar Bountiful. Carnation Farm Kennels had Winners Dog with Edgerstoune Blackout, a son of Ch. Ortlely Ambassador of Edgerstoune out of Edgerstoune Perfect Lady, bred by Mrs. Winant.

MARIE Stone's Kinclaven Kennels have completed the championship of four bitches this year. They include Champions Kinclaven Lucky Bit, Kinclaven Scandalous, Kinclaven Lucky Parcel and Kinclaven Happy Returns, who is awaiting official confirmation. Lucky Parcel is owned by Mrs. Constable of Boston, but was conditioned by Mrs. Stone who put her through to the title. A fifth bitch, a daughter of Scandalous and Casanova, at this writing has ten points, and a flash from Gene Hogan, Little Rock, Ark., advises that his Kinclaven Pandora has acquired the necessary number of points. She is a Classic daughter ex Kinclaven Chorine. Kinclaven now own a half interest in Ch. Freddie's Bold Dasher, purchased from Dr. and Mrs. Fred C. Liefert. This young black dog, a son of Ch. Kinclaven Casanova, had proven himself quite a sire and Mrs. Stone is confident he will carry on for Casanova, whom she considers the most valuable force at Kinclaven.

California News

We are indebted to Mrs. Kenneth Haloran, Publicity Chairman of the Scottish Terrier Club of California for a bit of news about the Club's recent Puppy Match and also results from some of the All Breed shows. The Puppy Match was held October 20th and there were 30 puppies competing for honors. Among them were some very promising youngsters. Best in the Jr. Puppy class was G. D. Campbell's Radar and Best in the Sr. Puppy Class was Kenbrick Ebony Lad owned by Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Roth.

Two California Scotties are sporting new Obedience titles. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Russel's Glenby Miss Andrea is a CDX title-holder and Mrs. Medora Messenger's Pidge MacTavish has just had his CD title confirmed.

At recent California All Breed shows, Bryce Gillespie's Bothkennar Hotspur has been doing some very consistent Best of Breed winning. He topped Scottie entries at Riviera and the Orange Empire shows in September and at Ventura and Pasadena in October. Frank Vonn's Kinclaven Gamin took points at both Riviera and Orange Empire. At the first show Ray Williams' Klintilloch Diplomat was Winners Dog and at the second, Mrs. George-Ryall's Odd-Me-Dodd Piper took the points. At both Ventura and Pasadena, Walsing Warfare of Tam-Lin owned by Walsing and Tam-Lin Kennels chalked up points. Ventura found Mrs. Robert Cairns' Goulding's Sparkle O'Ruchill taking the points in bitches and at Pasadena, the winners rosette went to Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Russell's Glenby Miss Andrea.
