Do YOU Own A Scratching Dog?

• The best dog in the world can't be truly happy when he must continually scratch, dig, rub, and bite himself, seeking relief from an intense itching irritation that has centered in the nerve endings of his skin. He is in frenzied torment—can't help himself. But you may. Try giving him, as thousands are doing, Rex Hunters Dog Powders, once each week. Note the quick difference. Learn why a glad purchaser wrote: "I surely was pleased as the 25c package helped my dog immediately. He has practically quit scratching, has more pep and his hair is glossy again." Rex Hunters Dog Powders cost only 25c at any good drug store, pet or sport shop. Economy size box only $1.00.

IMPORTANT. Dogs' eyes need frequent gentle bathing. Try Rex Hunters Antiseptic Eye-Lotion. Good, too, on open wounds, broken skin, burns. If dealer can't supply, send 50c to

VIA the grapevine we hear that Jim Horton is in the country on terminal leave, and has been visiting around among his friends. We do hope he stops off in Cincinnati before his leave is over.

From the Graecroft Kennels, owned by Mrs. Chas. D. Gray, Weston, Mass., comes news of the death of two old bitches—Wallets Whisper and Walgen Ginger. Though neither were prominent in the show ring they were well known to the fancy. Whisper, a daughter of Int. Ch. Walsing Wallet out of Gaisgill Daffodil, was the dam of the well known late Ch. Graecroft Chimney Sweep. Ginger, who was a wheaten, produced but one puppy since she was imported in 1938. The death of these oldsters leaves Graecroft with but one Sco'tie, the Realisation bitch, Wrockwardine Wrosette. Graecroft Skyes will continue to represent the kennels at the shows until a new Scottish breeding program, which includes wheatens, gets under way in the spring.

The Scottish Terrier Club of New England held its annual meeting recently in Boston and elected the following officers: President, J. W. Kelly; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. John G. Winant and Mrs. Emmett Warburton; Secretary, Mrs. Chas. D. Gray; Treasurer, Keith Rogers, Pembroke, N. H.

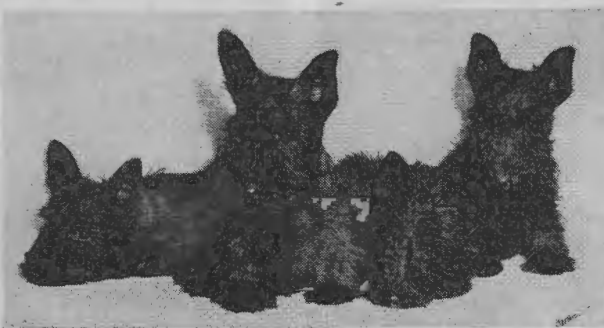

We hear that Relgalf Kennels have several promising youngsters, particularly one which they tell us will revive memories of Bradthorne Bullion. Now

Larry Roth and Lewis Spence Married

Closing press brings the good news that Larry Roth and Lewis G. Spence had been quietly married. The wedding took place just after the Christmas holidays. All our best wishes go out to these two popular Terrier' fanciers—Larry's Craebert Scotties are now joining Lew's Lewspen Terriers. You'll be seeing the bride and groom at the Garden where Lew is judging Irish Terriers.
