

IT was good indeed to get a letter from Mrs. J. W. Kelly, Wellesley Hills, Mass. The Kelly's are the owners of the well known Independent Ben, which went Winners Dog at both the Specialty Show and Westminster in February. When they wrote me, they had just returned from Morris and Essex. They were pleased with the entry of 52 and write it was good to see so many breeders among the exhibitors, many of whom had been quite inactive of late. We quote: Ned Moloney had two very good bitches by his late Ch. Heather Criterion in the ring. Mac's Welton Kennels of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, showed three very good looking specimens. Chuck Stalter was well represented as was also Edward Danks, Kenneth MacBain, Miss Hull, the McLaughlins, John Kemps, Heywood Hartley and many others. As a matter of fact, this was one show where no one kennel seemed to dominate in number of entries." Winners from Morris and Essex are given elsewhere in this column, also winners from the Specialty.

Speaking of Specialty Shows, the Scottish Terrier Club of New England will hold its Specialty in conjunction with the tion with the Associated Terrier Clubs event. It was decided at the meeting to select the judge for this show by a mail ballot of the membership, an innovation for the Club.

Marie Stones' Kinclaven Kennels of Milwaukee have had fine sailing lately. Ch. The Stooze was Best of Breed at Crown Point and Fort Wayne. Mrs. Stone states: The Stooze is looking better than ever and it seemed a pity to retire him. He won the Terrier Group at both shows. Kinclaven Scandalous needs only four points to finish and the next one to step out and make a bid for the title will be Kinclaven Happy Returns. Kinclaven Highland Cream, an eleven months old wheaten is due for his debut either late hours is the travel saga of three Scottish Terriers, two of them ten months old sisters. On May 21st the J. V. B. Wallises drove from their kennels at Severna Park, Md., to the National Airport at Washington, where they shipped on behalf of Mr. Linton's Tam Lin Kennels, Waldwick, N. J., three descendants of two of Walsing Kennels' 1940 blitz refugees. The bitches traveled via United Airlines, leaving one evening and arriving in Los Angeles the next morning. They were met by Mrs. Kenneth Halloran, Kenbrick Kennels, El Monte. All were in excellent condition. The three Scotties included Walsing Wally of Severna, by Ch. Walsing Whirlaway of Tam Lin, a son of one of the blitz refugees, Int. Ch. Walsing Wishbone. The dam is a granddaughter of one of the other refugees, Ch. Walsing Welladay. This bitch will be shown on the West Coast, bred, then sent as a foundation bitch to Mrs. Robert Church of Honolulu. She was bred by Mrs. Wallis and is now owned by Mr. Linton. The puppies, litter sisters, Tam Lin Kiltie and Tac Lin Silver Star, are also by Whirlaway. Silver Star has been purchased by Mrs. John Harnish, formerly of Indiana, now establishing a kennel in California. Kiltie will be held jointly by Mrs. Halloran and Mr. Linton until she acquires her title.

A CORRECTION: In reporting the Springfield, Mass., show we stated that Mrs. Winant's Ch. Heather Commodore of Edgerstoune was Best of Breed. Commodore was Best Opposite, and Mrs. Winant's Edgerstoune Hopeful, which had placed Winners Bitch, was the Best of Breed winner.

Scotties at Morris and Essex

There were 52 Scotties entered at Morris and Essex for the judge, Maurice Polak to pass on. Relgalf Kennels' Ch. Relgalf Rebel Leader not only was Best of Breed but went on to Best Terrier. Best Opposite was Mrs. John G. Winant's Edgerstoune Hopeful. Winners Dog and Best of Winners went to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ozias' Gold Bond. Edgerstoune Twinkle, also owned by Mrs. Winant was Winners Bitch. The Reserves were Acton Hill Kennels' "Gregg" and the Chas. C. Stalters' Barberrry Knowe Victory.

President, Mrs. Flagler Matthews.

Ladies Dog Club, June 22nd at Framingham, Mass., and Jim Horton, recently returned from service, is judging. We are pretty sure this is his first post-war assignment.

Following the Parent Club's Specialty at Rye on June 3rd, there was a meeting of the Club's Board of Directors. It was decided at this meeting not to hold a fall Specialty show as was done last year, but to concentrate on the Winter Specialty just before Westminster in mid-February. This show will be in conjunc-this summer or early fall. He is sired by The Stooze out of a litter sister of Wildoats. Kinclaven Chorine is due to whelp in July to Classic and Kinclaven Gossip has been bred back to Wildoats. There were three beautiful puppies in her first litter by him, all bitches—two wheatens and a black brindle. Kinclaven Caprice, a fifteen months old daughter of Casanova ex Scandalous has also been bred to Classic.

Scotty Show Wins

THERE have been shows galore since the last issue went to press, and entries at some of them were quite good. The Morris and Essex show is reported elsewhere in the department. The next best entry after Morris and Essex was that of 40 at the Katonah show on June 8th. The next day at Westport, it dropped to 25.

Space does permit complete reports on all shows, but here are the highlights.

The Ladies Kennel Association show on May 18th had 11 entered, Jere R. Collins judging. Mrs. John G. Winant's Ch. Heather Commodore of Edgerstoune was Best of Breed and fourth in the group. Best Opposite was the Winners Bitch, the Heywood R. Hartleys' Woodhart Wattalady. Winners Dog: Edward Danks' Bat-tison Beneficial.

There were only 13 entered at the Long Island K. C. Show on May 19th, Seth G. Malby judging. Marlu Farm Kennels' Strangford Lady took the bitch points and went on to Best of Breed. Ch. Heather Commodore was Best Opposite, and Acton Hill's Kennels' Acton Hill's Paul Revere II was Winners Dog.

Only 11 at the Plainfield K. C. Show on May 26th, Edwin S. Megargee handing out the ribbons. Ch. Relgalf Rebel Leader was Best of Breed and Relgalf Repeat, Winners Bitch and Best Opposite. Acton Hills Kennels' Gregg was Winners Dog.

Chas. C. Stalter passed on 12 at the Greenwich, Conn. event on June 2nd, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. McLoughlin's Ch. Lynnsco Deborah was Best of Breed. Best Opposite not marked. The point winners were the McLoughlins' Lynnsco Pursuit and the John McLays' Willowbrae Winsome.

As stated 40 was the entry at the Katonah show with John Kemps on the wool-sack. Ch. Relgalf Rebel Leader was Best of Breed and second in the group and S. M. Blue's Ch. Tam Lin Cherie of Klintilloch was Best Opposite. The point winners were Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Ozias' Gold Bond and Strangford Lady.

Relgalf Rebel Leader repeated his Best of Breed win at the Longshore event held at Westport, Conn. on June 9th, with Ch. Lynnsco Deborah taking Best Opposit. The point winners were Gregg and the Stalters' Barberry Knowe Victory.

Coming to the midwest the entry at the Crown Point, Ind. show on May 26th was only 7, but here Marie Stone's Ch. Kinclaven The Stooze was Best of Breed, and Best Terrier. Mrs. Stone also had Winners Bitch and Best Opposite with Kinclaven Scandalous. The identical placings were repeated at the Fort Wayne show on June 2nd.

The Terry-All Kennel Club held its 4th annual show on Sunday June 16th at Denver. Ten breeds were represented and there were 68 entries, judged by Lou Holliday, Santa Monica, Calif. Gordan H. Arbogast's Spitfire's Hillcote Laddie owned by Bess M. Arbogast, was Winners Dog. Incidentally, Bess Arbogast had Best Sealyham at this same show with Spitfire's Ski Trooper and he went second in the group.

facing outward, alert to any peril. She had the heart of a lioness and in all her life I think had never feared anything but thunder—and she thought I could protect her from that. Undisputed queen at Timberidge, Sweetbriar is missed by the dogs, too, I think. She was a real personality and I shall not soon see her like again."

The rest of you kennel owners as well as pet owners, please write me your news so that I may make your column more interesting for you.

Ray Miller writes that the first Specialty Show of the Tri-State Shetland Sheepdog Club was a great success. There were 45 Shelties in an entry of 47, making Shelties fifth in total entries at the show. The Club is especially pleased at the large number of exhibitors, no particular person being responsible for the large entry. There was a special prize offered to the person making the most entries, and it was won by an exhibitor who had four. The results are given elsewhere in the department.

Ruth Taynton's Beech Tree Top Kick, one of the dogs pictured on the Christmas 1945 Cover, has finished his championship, and is awaiting AKC confirmation. His younger half brother, Beech Tree Corporal, better known as "Sergeant" has his two three-pointers. Beech Tree has started a new bitch, Beech Tree Glory Hallelujah and she certainly started out with a bang. To date, she has won three three-point shows. Mrs. Taynton plans to bring out her daughter, Martial Music, in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle G. Wilson of Englewood, N. J. are the owners of Margo Wilson pictured in this issue. She is a ten-month-old daughter of Ch. Ardland Atom, CDX out of Bogota Peg O'My Heart, bred by Elsie Hydon. The Wilsons have recently purchased four bitches as a start toward breeding Shelties.
