

SCOTTISH TERRIERS

Associate Editor: Dr. John E. Rogers

SORRY that a picture of Douglasdale Roxbury Kiltie was not clear enough to reproduce. This young bitch owned by Glenkerry Kennels, Oakland, Calif., took Winners and Best Opposite for four points at the recent San Jose Kennel Club show. She was only seven months old and it was her first time out. The Kendrick Martins, her owners, were delighted with the win of this youngster, a daughter of Ch. Mr. McDougal.

Had a note from Elizabeth Hull of the Glenafton Kennels, Morristown, N. J. She reports one lone puppy out of Ch. Wolscot Wireclad. The sire is Ch. Barberry Knowe Revival, and this well balanced little bitch fortunately is making up in quality what the litter lacked in quantity. Glenafton is expecting a June litter out of a Walsing-bred bitch and sired by Ch. Glenafton Com-mando.

Dr. Fayette C. Ewing's Nosegay Kennel is celebrating its Golden Anniversary this year. The kennel was founded in 1897 and the prefix "Nosegay" was registered with the American Kennel Club as a kennel name that same year. The first Scottish Terrier Club in this country was organized in 1895 and was replaced by a new organization in 1900 President.

Scotties at the Shows

THERE were shows galore during April and early May and we have catalogues from 22 of them representing the Middle-West, Southeast, Texas and California sections, entries ranging from a single at Decatur, Ill., to 23 at Greenville, S. C., and 30 at the one California show. Toledo which had 1041 dogs only had 7 entered.

At Toledo the same owners accounted for both the winners. B. Fleury and B. Finch's Kinclaven Ballyhoo was Winners

Dog and Best Opposite and Lallan Mil-sande was Winners Bitch and Best of Breed.

Marie Stone's Ch. Kinclaven The Stooze was Best of Breed and also Best Terrier at the Hammond, Ind., show and her Kinclaven Crofter was Winners Dog. The bitch points and Best Opposite went to Klintilloch Kennels' Paisley Hill Henryetta.

At the Richmond and Fredericksburg, Va., shows, The C. C. Stalters' Ch. Barberry Knowe Rufus was Best of Breed and the same owners' Barberry Knowe Style was Winners Dog. The bitch points and Best Opposite at Richmond went to the Sheldon Winans' Cabrach Craig, and at Fredericksburg, the honor went to Heywood Hartley's Woodhart Waitress.

On the Southeastern circuit, Relgalf Kennels' Ch. Relgalf Rebel Leader accounted for Best of Breed and a first spot in the group at Macon, Ga., Knoxville, Nashville; and he was also Best of Breed and third in the group at Greenville. At all the shows where Rebel Leader was Best of Breed, his kennel mate, Relgalf Repeat was Winners Bitch and Best Opposite. Best of Breed and third in the group at Oak Ridge, was Cedar Root Kennels' Cedar Root Jezebel, the Winners Bitch. Winners Dog at Macon was Bruce Webb's Middlemount Picador; at Knoxville and Oak Ridge, Acton Hill Kennels' Acton Hill's Dress Parade. Olive Carter's Shieling's Rebel got the dog points at Nashville and Barberry Knowe Style at Greenville.
