Bulldogs

Mr. and Mrs. Muckle of Bedford, who bred their Muckle's Becky to Mrs.
Therinault's Flash Boy. Fred S. Market has a new male pup purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mallory. The youngster is sired by Morningside Young Monty out of Sweet Blossom Again. Mr.
and Mrs. Clyde Walrath, Elyria, Ohio,
recently purchased a bitch from Al Therinault. She is by Therinault's G-Man
ex Al's Blondie.

Verne M. Smith, Kilgore, Texas, sends a picture of Glavern Roddikins and Barrow Britomartis. Roddikins is by Duranside Roddie out of Bon Fatima.
Fatima died when he was born and Mr.
Smith raised him on a bottle, feeding him on the Gaines formula. He developed in grand shape and will come out on the southern circuit this fall.

Barrow Britomartis was purchased from Warren Blaisdell. She won her class at the Saw Mill River K. C. show and is developing nicely.

There has been a lot of activity going on down in Rome, Ga., recently. W.
L. Lackey, Jr., and Joe Turbidy and his 12 year old son, John Berry Turbidy, who officially owns the Bulldogs, have been working hard to stir up some interest and they seem to have succeeded.
One of Mr. Lackey's bitches, Piccadilly Perky Girl, a daughter of Int. Ch. Piccadilly Playboy had a fine litter the early part of April, the sire being Mr.
Lackey's young stud, Wrinkly Jiggs.
Four out of the six pups went to residents of Rome, they being Dr. J. T.
McCall, Dr. J. T. McCall, Jr., J. W.
Tromerhauser and Mr. and Mrs. S. E.
Abercrombie. Since that time, Mr.
Lackey has bought lippy Squire, a promising young stud dog from Clinton Jones, Greenville, S. C. The latter is a son of Int. Ch. Drinkmoor Homebrew.

Joe Turbidy recently purchased Barrow Bronze Boy, a son of Morningside Mecca out of Barrow Baguette. Since arriving in Rome, Bronze Boy has been bred to Mr. Turbidys' new bitch, Seer's Rum Carioca and to Invader's Jessica owned by Mr. Lackey. Seer's Rum Carioca is pretty well known to most of our readers. She was Best of Opposite Sex at Teaneck. John Berry Turbidy also owns Charminster Southern Charm, a young bitch by Charminster Short Model
ex Charminster Susan. Both Bronze Boy and Carioca will be shown at the winter and spring shows on the southern circuit.

Dr. John H. Elvin, one of the most enthusiastic members of the Washington Bulldog Club has temporarily retired his winning bitch, Belinda the Beautiful Model, from the show ring so that she may attend to maternal duties.

She has recently been bred to Dr.
Elvin's Champion Basford Playboy. This fine massive white dog, coaxed away
from George Gibson of Birmingham, Alabama some time ago, has been busy at stud in his new home and this breeding to Belinda, who took Old Dominion for five points last April is one that has all the Washington fancy watching!

It will be remembered that Playboy is the dog which went Best in Show at Huntington, West Va., in 1940—a win
not often duplicated by Sour-mugs. Playboy and Belinda will hit all the fall shows, according to Dr. Elvin's present plans.

HOW TO BREED DOGS

By Leon F. Whitney.....$3.50

Undoubtedly the most popular book on practical dog breeding. The subject is so handled that it is not over the head of the average reader. A book which everyone—from the one litter breeder to the big kennel owner—should have in his library.

Our Picture Wuz Took!

One of a Series of Letters from Scotties to Scotties

DOR-EL KENNELS
PROSPECT, OHIO

Ch. Gillisie Dictator
Relgalf Kennels
Rye, N. Y.

Dear Pa:

Mitzie and me had our pictures took and Ma said you'd want to see 'em — so here they are — Joe, our kennel man, says we look like twins — "Our Jim" * says we look like topflight Scotties — whatever kind of flight Scottie that is.

They wuz talking today about taking Mitzie and me to a show — Our little missus says we are her chorus girls — and we don't know what they'll say next — Ma says you've been to heaps of shows — What do they do at 'em? Is it fun?

Mitzie and me take long walks to the place where they have meat and the nice man there likes us, we know, cause he gives us some when we go there — Does your meat man give you some when you go to where he keeps it?

Will be glad when we get back from the show so we won't have to do no more table standin' and all that, maby — How do you win a ribbon Pa? "Our Jim" says we're ribbon winners — How would he know that?

Ma's been real good to Mitzie and me — so has "Our Jim" and Joe.

Maby we'll see you at the show — eh! Pa? We hope so.

Ma says tell you "Howdy." Mitzie says to also — and so do I.

Dor-El Winsome
A.K.C. No. A 477514

*"Our Jim" refers to James J. Murphy, Technical Adviser and Professional Handler at Dor-El.

ONCE A SCOTTY OWNER ALWAYS A SCOTTY OWNER

He is indifferent to strangers; they may be all right, but wait and see. If they enter too quietly or if they are noisy and bang folded papers at the house door, or carry mysterious looking bundles, a Scottie naturally thinks they are up to no good and should be nipped in the heel.

"You can teach him to refrain from this; there's nothing you can't teach him—but he will be of the same opinion still. This is why it is so very flattering to have a Scottie accept you as his friend and owner. You have to be fundamentally right, according to Scottish standards or he'll never do it.
