

BULLETIN NO. ONE
SCOTTISH TERRIER
CLUB OF AMERICA
MAY 1915

OUR SHOW

An advance copy of the Prize List of our Four Point Specialty Show on June 2 is in the Secretary's hands, and will probably have reached the members before this bulletin.

The place secured, the Italian Garden of the Hotel Baltimore, used for this purpose for the first time, makes it especially tempting. High and cool, sheltered on three sides from winds, with graveled paths, and with possibilities of comfort for luncheon and tea, it seems an ideal place for the convenience of us and of our Scotties.

One of the most trusted of our members is to judge. Every one of us should make it a matter of conscience to appear with at least one dog.

We shall have a meeting afterwards to consider the suggestions of our Committee for the further serviceableness of our Club, and to meet each other and our new members.

NOTICES OF SHOWS

Some of the Specialty Clubs send on a postal notice of shows at which their Specials are to be offered, naming the judge, and requesting their members to support the show. Should you like to receive such cards? There would be between twenty and thirty during the year. If there is a desire for them, the Secretary will gladly send them out.

If you would like such cards sent you regularly, kindly notify the Secretary, as they would be sent only if a considerable number desire them, and only to those asking for them. Please write at once.

FROM OUR MEMBERS

Miss Adelaide Baylis, Strathspey Kennels, has purchased from Hatton Kennels the well-known Ornsay Knight, by O. Guide ex. O. Trixie.

* *

Miss Margaret Brigham (North Grafton, Mass.) at the Westminster Show sold her Sycamore Ruffian, the stud dog bred on both sides from Ch. Claymore Defender, to Mrs. Payne Whitney. Miss Hoppin has sent her Ornsay Flurry and Mr. William Hair his two bitches to be bred to Grafton the Farmer. Mr. James Johnston's bitch has visited G. General Kompolite. The latest litter in the kennels is seven by G. the Farmer ex G. the Fencer; the report adds, "All puppies booked for sale." Congratulations!

* *

Misses Brownell and Howland, Cromarty Kennels, have imported from Yately Kennels, England, a bitch for themselves by Ch. Bapton Norman ex Yately Gypsy, and a dog for Mrs. Herbert Darlington by Laidon Lore.

The bitch is full sister to the two Bapton Norman bitches brought over recently by Gael Kennels, and the dog a brother of the bitch shown in New York by Dr. Charles Williams.

* *

Miss Jean Crawford (Evanston, Ill.) has a new litter from her Peggy by Barlae Defiance. Of three excellent pups by her Ch. Keppoch Dugald, she sold the male at the Chicago Show to Mr. Harnwell of Evanston.

"The two bitches I hope to bring out some time soon, as my own 'American breds',— my first." Here is the real Club spirit in one who might be tempted to rest content with the winnings of her grand group of imported dogs. The object of our Club before every other is to encourage our "own American-breds."

* *

Dr. Ewing (Nosegay Kennels, Kirkwood, Mo.) reports that Mr. Johnston, Mr. Vincent, and Mr. Graham have sent bitches to his Ch. Ems Morning Nip.

The Kennels is importing Mr. Flett's brood bitch Bannockburn Rosie in whelp to Fairhaven Fusilier. Rosie is by Ch. Glencarry ex a daughter of Ch. Walescott Invader. She has a great record: is the dam of Bannockburn Monarch, B. Provost and B. Chief, all winners during the past year, and granddam of the winner Parazone and of Ch. Bannockburn Kaffir. Fusilier is the great winning son of Ch. Bapton Norman.

Dr. N. D. Harvey, Exeter, R. I. Exter Kennels have just bought from Mr. J. B. Hadsell Ch. Scotland Rose, in whelp to Ch. Foxhills Symbol, and the great American-bred winner, Ch. Balgownie Laddie, who will henceforth be at stud ($20.00) at Exeter.

Dr. Harvey reports these new Scottie Kennels "fairly under way" (the above item would indicate the fact), and two litters of pups, some of which are for sale, by Mr. Wolstencroft's Hielan Terror, five ex Nosegay Eglantine, and seven ex N. Cowslip. A running start!

Mr. H. W. Hayes, Waban, Mass., wants "a nice-looking bitch 8 to 12 months old. Housebroken no objection! Will not be used for breeding. Good disposition and appearance more desired than ancestry."

Surely one of our own members can supply him?

Mr. Williams Haynes (New York), whose "Practical Dog Keeping" is already known to us, has just published a companion and even better book, "Practical Dog Breeding" (Outing Pub. Co., New York). "American Fancier" calls it "the most scientific treatment of dog breeding that we have; it deserves to be carefully studied by all fanciers who are seriously interested in breeding better puppies. . . . There is much common sense in the advice given on such practical subjects as keeping and advertising a stud dog, the care of brood bitches, and the raising of young puppies."

Mr. Haynes writes (himself making no mention of his new book): "For years, promising myself to write a really complete history of the Scottish Terrier, I have collected records, clippings, photographs, etc." Perhaps some of us can be of service here.

Mr. Haynes has just got from Mrs. A. B. Frank a bitch by Walescott Great Scott ex Foxey Hughes (ex Grafton the Charmer). He calls her Amcott Wee Lass.

* *

Mr. Robert Irvine (Hempstead, N. Y.) has bought for breeding purposes a promising son of Walescott Laidon Dare Devil and Ch. W. Laidon Leda, and is importing Ornsay Beryl. He is "arranging to take charge of several new ones from England that are sure to do some."

* *

Mr. C. C. Little (Newcastle Kennels, Brookline, Mass.) reports the following matings: To Claymore Commander, N. Kilbess, N. Moss Agate, and Mr. Wolstencroft's Hielan Heather; to N. Prime Minister, N. Lady Maud, and Albourne Nora; to Wee Bit Impetuous, N. Jumper and N. Nannie; Miss Melcher's bitch to N. Albourne Roisterer; Mr. James Ford's bitch to Claymore Tackler.

The Kennels have acquired six of the seven dog pups raised by Miss Wilson from Tam o' Shanter Bluebell by Claymore Commander. These pups are very promising.

Mr. Walter Stern reports a litter out of Early Bird Jeanie by Commander.

* *

Mr. F. G. Lloyd, Bernardsville, N. Y. Walescott Kennels have sold their Fourth of July puppy, Walescott George W., by W. Merlewood Laddie ex W. Fancy. He attracted much attention at the "Charity" — one report saying he was the best of any shown, — and Mr. Richard Alger, Jr., of Detroit "would have him."

Merlewood Laddie is beginning to make his mark at stud: he sired Miss Mellon's winning bitch, and Earlybird's great Ch. Bapton Beryl has just visited him.

* *

Ms. C. B. Rogers, Clinton, N. Y. Kirkland Kennels announce a litter of six ex their Walescott Her Grace by W. Merlewood Laddie. Here is another of Laddie's successes. Some of these are for sale. To these newly established Kennels we all wish good luck.

* *

Miss Ellen Ryerson (Springfield Centre, N. Y.), one of our recently elected members, has bought from Newcastle the good bitch Avondale Aintree, who has been bred to Claymore Tackler. We ought to be able to report a good litter next time.

* *

Mr. Walter Stern, Ossining, N. Y. Earlybird Kennels have the sympathy of all of us in the death of their Ornsay Annie, who, we remember, won the cup for Best Scot in Show at Westminster in February.

We are glad to learn that of the other Champion bitches of these kennels, Ch. E. Olivia is in whelp to E. Boxer; and the greatest of them all, as most of us think, Ch. Bapton Beryl, is in whelp to Walescott Merlewood Laddie. May the loss of Annie soon be made good.

E. Edna has a litter of six by Boxer; E. Bracken a litter by Ch. E. Troubadour; and E. Estelle seven by E. Dunrobb.

Colne Invasion is again in whelp to Troubadour — there is hope then of more Boxers and Jerrys! E. Spug is also in whelp to Troubadour, and Mrs. Roy Rainey's bitch has just visited him. He is booked well ahead.

The Kennels have for sale a dog two years old, one of nine months, and a few bitches.

* *

Mr. J. Stogdell Stokes, Moorestown, N. J., also has a fine litter of puppies by Ch. Earlybird Troubadour.

* *

Mr. T. C. Tebbetts (Lynn, Mass.), writes: "My one and only Scottish Terrier 'Consid,' aged nine rising, has nothing to report. He bears his age gracefully, and doesn't complain of growing gray fore and aft. Born in Wales, he would like to join the Welsh Guards, but age prevents. He eats leeks. His motto is 'Ich dien'."

* *

Mr. J. Wolstencroft (1357 Newport Ave., Pawtucket, R. I.) has just bred his Hielan Heather to Claymore Commander. He has a right to be pleased over the success of his Hielan Terror at stud, as reported by Dr. Harvey. He has for sale a "grand 3-months male pup which is sure to make a good one."

ENGLISH JUDGES

Mr. McCandlish, the great English authority who judged for our Club last year in New York, is being feted in honor of his long services as Honorary Secretary of the Scottish Terrier Club of England. The "presentation" takes place at the dinner on the eve of the Great Joint Terrier Show, May 11.

A no less distinguished authority from the other side is Mr. Holland Buckley, of Clonmel fame, whom we shall have the pleasure of seeing judge the Scotties on the day after our Show at Mineola. No one who wants to "get points" on showing his dog should miss seeing Mr. Buckley judge.

FROM THE SECRETARY

The Secretary would be glad to learn whether this little bulletin — a new venture — proves of interest to the Club members. Suggestions for making it more serviceable will be gratefully received.

L. S. B. Saunders,
(Mrs. A. P. Saunders),
Clinton, New York.
