GREETINGS

Dear Fellow Members—With this issue the Bulletin changes editors. I am sure we all regret that Mrs. Saunders feels too busy to carry on the work that she began and has done so wonderfully well. It is going to be a hard task to follow her as creditably as we would wish, but we crave your kind indulgence, and will at least put before you all the news we can gather from the various members of our Scottish Terrier Club family.

Miss Brigham has sent us the official report of our Annual Meeting.

ANNUAL MEETING

Minutes of the Annual Meeting of the Scottish Terrier Club of America, held at 157 East 71st st., New York City, Feb. 21, 1918:

The Annual Meeting of the Scottish Terrier Club of America was held by invitation at the home of Mr. Francis G. Lloyd, Feb. 21, at 12 o'clock noon. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bixby, Miss Browning, Miss Brigham, Mr. Drake, Mrs. Smith, Miss Kirmse, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Seagrave, Miss Newton, Mrs. Saunders, Mr. Lloyd, Mrs. Delafield, Mr. Stokes, Mr. Wood, Dr. Morris, Miss Murry, Mr. Howe, and our honorary member, Mr. Lacy.

Election of officers for 1918 resulted as follows: President, Mr. F. G. Lloyd; Vice-President, Mrs. Saunders; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Brigham; Governor at Large, Capt. F. C. Ewing; Delegate to A. K. C., Mr. Henry D. Bixby.

The Secretary-Treasurer's report was accepted as read and ordered published in the Bulletin.

Mrs. Seagrave reported the serious illness of Miss Fanny Brooks, and on motion a rising vote of sympathy was expressed. Mrs. Seagrave, Mr. Hall and Miss Brigham were appointed a committee to send flowers and a letter telling her how we missed her.

The question of a leaflet in regard to raising puppies was taken up, and Mr. Sherwood Hall was chosen to draw up and submit one to the Board of Governors.

Mrs. Saunders, Miss Brigham and Mr. Hall were appointed a committee to draw up the Produce Stakes for 1918.

The question of a Specialty Show was taken up, and it was voted to hold one at North Grafton in connection with the Grafton Kennel Club All Terrier Show. Mrs. Seagrave, Miss Brigham and Mr. Hall were appointed the committee on arrangements.

As a slight token of gratitude to our editor of the Bulletin, the President, Mr. Lloyd, on behalf of the club, presented Mrs. Saunders with a Liberty Bond, and also was fortunate in obtaining her consent to hold this office another year. It was voted to make it a salaried position, $50 being the sum decided upon.

On motion, it was voted to pay all cash prizes for medals in thrift stamps for 1918.

The annual trophies were then presented and the winners congratulated.

At the close of the meeting the members were once more indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd for a most charming luncheon.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET BRIGHAM,

North Grafton, Mass.

Secretary,

SHOWS

The Spring shows have come and gone, and gladly we can say that only one in the Metropolitan district failed to hold its annual. Belmont Park was missed this year, but a new club, the North Shore Kennel Club, held its first show at Douglaston, Long Island, and while the setting is not like the beautiful grounds of Belmont Park, it was a very creditable show.

We have missed many familiar faces this Spring, and doubtless they have missed the shows. Lieut. Sedgwick's absence was particularly noticeable, and we sincerely hope that by next season circumstances will allow all our military members to once more enjoy the round of out-door shows.

CHARITY SHOW

The Charity Show held in April, while not one of the out-door shows, came after our last issue. Scotties were a disappointment in number but not in quality. Doubtless the wave of sickness following the New York show was responsible for the lack of quantity.

In puppy dogs Mr. Lloyd's Colonel was alone, and looked even better than at New York.

Novice brought out a new one, Tonald McTavish, by one of our old-time exhibitors, John F. Galloway. He is a likely terrier and was beautifully put down, excelling in shortness of back and depth of body. Front and coat are excellent, and he doubtless will trouble the best later.

American bred went to Walescott Whim, looking well, and second to McTavish.

Limit to Whim's litter brother, Wag, who finally beat his brother for winners. Reserve to Whim.

In bitches, both American bred and limit went to Walescott Winkie, alone in the class.

Open to Walescott Reba, who beat Winkie for winners.

LONG ISLAND KENNEL CLUB SHOW MAY 30

Long Island Kennel Club Show May 30th.

This show is never very strong in Scotties, and this year was no exception. Four only faced Mr. Offerman, and one in a class. Winning as follows:

American bred, limit and open dogs. Tonald McTavish, John F. Galloway. Winner's dogs the same.

Bitches, American bred. Earlybird Cymbal, L. W. Schling.

Limit—Boglebrae Raccoon.

Winners—Raccoon; Reserve—Cymbal.

LADIES' KENNEL ASSOCIATION

Ladies' Kennel Association held their annual show this year at the Meadow Brook Hunt Club because of the new Military Hospital at the old Mineola grounds.

The grounds at Meadowbrook are very attractive, and the soaring planes shared attention with the dogs. The numbers were not great, but enough for a three pointer gathered to greet Miss Brigham.

Puppy dogs went to Walescott Colonel, second to Wee Laddie and third to Doric, both owned by Miss Kirmse. These were the first puppies by Walescott Bapton Sirdar that the writer has seen. Lively chaps they were, full of fire and go, with beautiful eyes and expression. Sirdar surely stamped these qualities on them, for both these pups and the bitch puppy shown by Miss Browning from the same litter are alike in these respects.

American bred and open to Walescott Whim.

Limit to "Wag."

In bitches, first puppy went to Miss Browning's Wee Lassie, full of go and with particularly good eyes and Scottie expression. Second to Walescott Charmer, Mr. Lloyd's puppy at New York. She has not improved as has Colonel.

Novice to Charmer, with Quaker Girl second.

American bred has a class of three. First to Boglebrae Raccoon, second to Walescott Debby, third, Topsey III.

Both limit and open to Walescott Winkie, second to Mr. Stern's Fancy Lass.

Winners to W. Winkie Res. B. Raccoon.

LADIES' DOG CLUB, JUNE 12

It was the writer's privilege to judge the largest class of Scotties since Westminster at Riverside on June 12th. The weather man did not cover himself with glory that day, but the turnout of Scotties, especially new ones, was fine.

We give Mr. Lacy's Account:

Scottish Terriers were the gayest lot we have had for some time. This show always gathers the Scot in quality, and Mr. Bixby's judging was another attraction, for he is a very earnest breeder and follower of the show cult. The good-headed Colonel that we "died" one time was alone in pups, and a Claymore Commander pup, Flurry, good head and perhaps a little more compact in body than the second, Warrior (the Conqueror winning pup that beat Laindon Loyal the other day), and a Garnock Roy dog, Roy's Gaycastle, provided a very good novice class. Then in Americans that smart terrier Gael Random Rough beat Colonel. It was close, both good sorts. Walescott Whim, all a dog; Random Rough, same lodge; Taybank Triumph, a little cobby swash-buckler on the exact line of his dad; Claymore Defender, in hard coat, though overripe, and finally Laindon Loyal, the gentleman of the lot, though a bit down on his uppers just now, formed a class that was well placed considering the variety of type. Then in the open the leaders appeared again. Taybank Triumph third, beating Glengairn, who was in his usual good "coat special" winning form. The puppies and novice in bitches were just nice, and Winkie and Sandie Cymbal, two different sorts, were placed as named. In limit there was a dandy entry, and a rare lot of class, and if we can make the right use of what we have in this sex, England need not fear the length of the war, for we can supply the real stuff after a while for them to go on with and then eventually lick us out of our boots, perhaps. But that's guessing. Meanwhile Glenmanor produced the goods in the importation from Mr. Tweed's famous kennel, Laindon Luise, a beautiful topped bitch with real quality Laindon head and a body to croon over—a bit dinky behind, perhaps, but a lovely sort all over, and showing fine; on the day, too short of coat. Lyndale Elite we did not see, but she is by Ems Quisby, third to another real good Laindon, a much stockier deeper built one than Luise, with a grand, long head, almost perfect in its lines and balance; lovely eye and ear, beautiful front, but she refused to show, though a startlingly smart shower on her own grass, and was rightly placed. A Scot must show in such good company. It is only where a poor shower is so very superior in type and form to the rest that a judge is justified in putting up or giving it nothing. To place it second to the so inferior is wrong, in our estimation, for shows are first of all object lessons to improve the breeds and educate the public. After this digression we will welcome Walescott Winkie, who did the needful in open. G. Lovely went down, and we suppose for the same ring diffidence. Luise and Winkie, Winners and Reserve, two good bitches, the latter being a daughter of the great Wullie and Merlewood Merle, which should account for a great deal.

GRAFTON KENNEL CLUB

Many of us journeyed up to North Grafton the day after the Riverside show, and it really seems that for once we would see that wonderful country on a clear day. It was clear but became very cold and grey before the day was done. We did get a view of the beautiful hills, however, and it fully made up for past rainy days.

The classes were almost the same as at Riverside, excepting for the absence of Mr. Hall and the Glen Manors. Mr. Hall is now one of the war workers, and could not give up both days.

Winners, dogs, to Whim and Random Rough Reserve.

Winners, bitches, to Walescott Winkie, Reserve Laidon, Luise.

STANDING OF CLUB SPECIALS

In response to a request for the present standing on the Club Specials, we are in receipt of the following from Miss Brigham:

“North Grafton, Mass.

“My Dear Mr. Bixby:

“I enclose all wins to date and hope they are all clear. Specials were not requested for Lynn or the L. K. A. of Mass. Shows by the Supts. and could not be offered at Douglaston because they did not have a club judge.

“I should like to suggest that this club list be abolished for the duration of the war. Many of our best amateur judges are at the front, and three of our professional judges are unable to fill engagements at present. It would be for the best interests of the breed to offer our Specials at all shows during the rest of the struggle. Any one who does not fancy a judge need not show, but help will be given to the clubs brave enough to hold a show by this ruling. If a few members are sufficiently interested to do this, if they will write me I will send the vote out to the Board of Governors.” (This would seem to be a move in the right direction.—Editor.)

Miss Brigham also advises that the entry forms for the Produce Stakes have not yet appeared, but that she will take entries if any one will send her necessary data. The fees for the Stud dog stakes and the Brood bitch stakes are $5 for each entry; $2 for each of the get when show time comes around. Entries must be made now for the closing date is in August. Miss Brigham will be glad to give full information to any one who wishes it.

FROM OUR MEMBERS

Mr. Lloyd reports a fine litter, June 9th, by Ch. Maister Wullie x Walescott Merle, consisting of two dogs and one bitch, "which Hankinson predicts, and I am willing to confirm, seem the most promising of any yet whelped by Walescott. They are full brothers and sister to Whim and Wag, and with their future in view, would like suggestions as to names. The ladys will possibly have to be Walescott Painted Lady; one of the dogs, Walescott Ruthless Lover, and the other, Front Line Sandy, but these names are only tentative, and will be dropped for anything that seems better."

"June 16th, a litter by Whim x Walescott Lysia, three dogs and two bitches; one of the latter Lysia declined, so it has gone to the dog heaven. The remaining bitch is dark, and the dogs all brindles, and certainly do favor Mister Whim—all hearty and promising.

Walescott's various stud dogs have been used freely, and we trust with satisfactory results.

We have put on sale to reduce stock Walescott Merlewood Laddie, a keen little black brindle; Bapton Norman, dog, whelped June 28th, 1912, at $100; Walescott Merlewood Marquis, by Laddie x Merlewood Miracle, whelped September 3rd, 1913, at $100, and Champion Crow, a well-known black dog, at $150.

This is all I have to report at present, excepting above the usual shortage of puppies, and the fact that Whim arrived at championship honors at the Grafton show."

Capt. Fayette C. Ewing, M. R. C., has sold the last of his Bapton Norman x Bon-Accord Dora litter, the bitch Nosegay Water Lily to H. W. Wilson, Jr., Pasadena, Cal. She was bred to old Ems Morning Nip, and their pups should prove a great cross. Morning Nip has been bred to Bannackburn Rosie, dam of Nosegay Crowfoot. The old "hero" is acting with pristine vigor, though 10 years old.

Mrs. Saunders has bred Gael Yately Bairn to Walescott Whim, winner Best American Bred, all breeds, at Westminster in February. Litter will be for sale. Bairn is by Ch. Bapton Norman.

Gael Glen Kirsty, now owned by Mrs. Ida Garrett, and Gael Grizel 2nd, owned by Miss Ruth Murray, have both been bred to Whim. Gael Kennels expect to breed no more puppies this year.

Mr. Wolstencroft has sold to W. A. Smith, U. S. N., that good dog, Black Watch, which took reserve winners at Cambridge. Also one male pup to Congressman John A. Peters, of Maine; a bitch to Mr. James Lees, New Bedford, Mass.;

a bitch to Mrs. Myron Curtis, Pawtucket, R. I., and one to Mrs. John Alexander. Pawtucket, R. I. Mr. Wolstencroft also reports the purchase of two dogs and two bitches by Laindon Deoch an Doris x Clonmel Vantos, September, 1917, and one dog pup by Laindon Deoch an Doris x Clonmel Normality.

We were sorry to hear from Miss Mellon that she has practically given up her Scotties during the war, but hopes after that to make a fresh start. She wants to sell all the Scotties at Robert Irvine's—Albourne Impression and Albourne Deuce, two bitches. and two dogs, Ruminantly Redlight and one imported from Holland Buckley last summer.

Mrs. Zug writes that Nosegay Mermaid is developing nicely, is good looking, but a bit "leggy."

Mr. Hall writes: "I have sold a lot of my grown stock, or else put it out on breeding terms for the war. Timely went to Mr. Rogers, of Ottawa, Canada, in whelp to Glen Gairn. Lipsalve in whelp to Glen Gairn, went to Mr. Baillie, of Winona, Ontario. Lingerie went to Mr. Laskey, of Frederickton, New Brunswick. Dr. Harvey is considering Lace, and I think he will take her to breed to his grand little dog, Random Rough. Mr. Haley, of Centerdale, R. I., is taking Lady Claire on breeding terms, and we mated her recently to Warrior. We are trying out Warrior on some of our older dogs, as he is looking fairly well, and from his breeding should do some good. He took winners at Auburndale. We are offering him at stud for a short time at $10 or would consider a male puppy, if bred to certain blood lines.

Olivia (Rothsay Shanty x Ch. Earlybird Olivia) has gone to Miss Helen Chase, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, on breeding terms, and will be mated to Miss Crawford's Defender. Miss Chase also has Midnight (a half sister to Smiling Morn)."

Mr. Hall's stud dogs have been doing well, Glen-gairn now having a record of an average of seven puppies a litter for twelve consecutive litters.

"The Bapton Norman puppies went to Edward L. Howe, Princeton, N. J.; S. B. Donnan, Washington, Pa.; E. H. Chapman, Vinyard Haven, Mass.; Lt. George R. Urquhart, Yonkers, N. Y., and Mrs. G. M. Chevalier, Arlington Heights, Mass. We changed one of the males with Mrs. Seagraves for a grand little bitch puppy out of the litter by Ch. Bapton Norman ex Laindon Lustre, and will keep her to show at Westminster next year. Lovely's puppies went to Robert Farquharson, Newton Centre, Mass.; Edward L. Howe, Princeton, N. J.; Miss Mary Morton, Wernersville, Pa.; Edward Crozier, Philadelphia, Pa., and A. W. Lyons, Roxbury, Mass.

"We have also sold puppies to Dr. C. E. Smith, Brookline, Mass.; Dr. L. D. Bristol, Augusta, Me.; Mrs. Anna L. Clark, Vinyard Haven, Mass.; Mrs. M. S. Hartford, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Clark S. Haslam, Vanity Fair; John M. Hull, Buffalo, N. Y.; George E. McLean, Passaic, N. J., and Miss Louise Stauffer, New Orleans.

"We have not a single puppy, male or female, to sell, and would be glad to get a line on some at reasonable prices. If any of the other members of the club have anything, I would appreciate it if they would write me and let me know the age, breeding, color, price, etc.; also if they are house-broken, as I can place several, and while there is such a demand, I think it will help the breed a lot to get out every good one we can."

Boglebrae reports a very good demand for both puppies and grown dogs. B. Ransom, Reserve, at Worcester, to Francis B. Cooley, Esq., of Hartford. B. Randie, second novice at New York, to Frank I. Worrall, of New York, B. Rowdie fourth puppy at New York, to Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, of New York. All puppies have been sold except three bitches, sisters to Raccoon and Porcupine, which are being held over.

It is sad to report the death of old Rebel Chieftain, who was one of our most reliable stock getters.

One of the most interesting things to report is a litter of three dogs by Linnson ex Earlybird Cymbal. Cymbal belonged to Lieut. Sedgwick several years ago, and has had several owners since, but has never before been successful in having puppies. Now, at the age of nearly five years, she has her first litter. It was necessary to have a vet. in attendance, and we did not save any of the pups, but we are elated in having broken the hoodoo.

We have also to report the purchase of that good Scottie, Tonald McTavish, from John F. Galloway. McTavish is of the low set cart horse type that the writer fancies, and which he is trying to perpetuate.

There seems to be an unusually good "market" this year for Scottish Terrier puppies, and I am sure all of us will be glad to hear of a "shipping diet" used by Mr. Laskey, of Frederickton, New Brunswick, when shipping any distance. Express conditions are so extremely trying at present that his scheme is worth passing on. Mr. Hall has received several puppies from Mr. Laskey in splendid condition after tedious trips.

To quote from Mr. Laskey's letter: "The food I used—in fact, always use the same in shipping—is equal parts of the best lean beef passed through a mincing machine, very fine, and stale bread; moisten the bread, and mix thoroughly with the meat, then fry on a pan until the moisture is driven off, and yet not hard enough to cause distress to the youngsters when feeding; wrap enough in one parcel for one meal, and wrap in wax paper; this keeps the food clean, and keeps the flies, etc., away from it in warm weather, and always insures the arrival of puppies in good condition."
