

SCOTTISH TERRIERS

Associate Editor: Dr. John E. Rogers
16 Mt. Vernon St., Oshkosh, Wis.

RELGALF Kennels have purchased Lynns Scot Ensign from the Robert McLoughlins of Allendale, N. J. Just a puppy, Ensign is said to be "tops" and his purchase price would surely indicate it. Sired by Ch. Relgalf Rebel Leader, Ensign is out of the great winning bitch, Ch. Lynns Scot Deborah, a Dichard Fashion daughter. Another pup from this same litter, Lynns Scot Enchantress, won the puppy class at the recent Inter-State show and reports on her showmanship and quality are most enthusiastic. When matured the pair should make for some really hot competition.

From Hawaii comes a flash that Robert Church's Count Garthright won five points and went on to Best of Breed and third in the group at the Hawaiian K. C.'s all-breed show at Honolulu, Sept. 7th. An American-bred, Dr. Harry Boyd-Snee is the breeder and Mrs. Chas. Garthright, of Oregon, Wisconsin, sold the dog to Mr. Church last year.

The premium list for the coming Specialty of the Scottish Terrier Club of Kentucky is really something. There are endless trophies and the cash prizes are so large you'll probably think they're printer's errors. The Novice Class in both sexes has a $25.00 award. The date of the show is November 2nd; the site, Louisville, Ky. Alan Sparks is president of this wide-awake club.

W. M. Singleton's Walsing Wings Ashore, litter brother to Mrs. Winant's Eng. Ch. Walsing Winning Trick of Edgerstoune, promises to follow in his famous brother's footsteps. At two recent championship shows in England—Bedfordshire and Richmond—he captured firsts and at the latter show topped Medwal McKye, the only Scottie to defeat Wings Ashore in England.

Terry-All K. C. Specialty

The Terry-All Kennel Club, held their 5th Annual Terrier Show June 22, 1947, at Arvada, Colorado.

A nice entry of 13 were passed on by Mrs. M. B. Godsol, Best of Breed honors went to Bess M. Arbogast's Springsong's Mr. Johnny, also Best of Winners. Mr. and Mrs. Al Rubin's Spitfire's Kiltie was Reserve Winners Dog.

Cecil A. Dingman's Mac's Welton High Hopes was Winners Bitch and Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Puett's Signature's Baby Doe was Reserve.

The Washington State Specialty

Northwestern fanciers—and they must be a hard-working lot—can point with pride to their five-point entry which Mrs. Flager Matthews passed on at the Club's Specialty show held July 27th at Kirkland, Wash. There was a total entry of thirty-five, much better than is oftentimes seen at Specialty events held in districts where breeders and fanciers are far more numerous. We understand that quality was high. Carnation Kennel's took the bitch points and Best of Breed with their new English import, Westpark Wildflower, she by Westpark Masterpiece out of Medwal Musique. Best Opposite was Blackbriar Kennel's Int. Ch. Blackbriar Blair. In dogs Jack Boustead had the eventual winner with Glenwood Ben. The Reserves were Mrs. G. Shillinglaw's Can. Ch. Mar Jo Brigadier and Dr. Roland Stone's Glenwood Tam O'Shanter II. Best Puppy in Show was the 6-9 bitch, Blackbriar Begonia, owned by Peter M. Baum.

This was the third Specialty Show for this Club, which is about eight years old and which does much to promote Scotty entries at the all-breed shows in the northwest.

Scottie Show Wins

THERE have been a lot of shows lately, but entries have only been fair. We will try and cover the highlights.

Only 7 entered at the Farmington Valley Kennel Club show held at New Britain, Conn. on August 9th. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Stalter had all the winners. Best of Breed and third in the group was Ch. Barberry Knowe Rufus with Barberry Knowe Patience taking Winners Bitch and Best Opposite. Barberry Knowe Amber was Winners Dog.

The next week end at the Troy, N. Y. show with Frank Eskrigge judging, the entry was 6, and the placings were the same as at New Britain. At the Mohawk Kennel Club event held at Schenectady, N. Y. on August 17th, Rufus was Best of Breed and fourth in the group; Patience was Winners Bitch and Best Opposite and here the dog points went to the Heywood R. Hartleys' Woodhart Watchman. Lewis S. Worden judged.

The North Shore Kennel Club event held at Hamilton, Mass. on August 2nd, brought out an entry of 18, Jos. W. Kelly judging. Mrs. John G. Winant's Edgerstoune Pepper got the dog points and then went on to Best of Breed and Best Terrier. Best Opposite was Mrs. Wm. Constable's Ch. Kinclaven Lucky Parcel, entered for Specials. She also had the Winners Bitch with Murray Rosenblum.

Eleven was the entry at the Catonsville, Md. show on August 30th, Mrs. Merrall MacNeille judging. Winners Bitch and Best of Breed was L. Bradford Branner, Jr. and Bruce Webb's Shemscoot Gabie Ella. Winners Dog and Best Opposite was Philabeg Kennels' Philabeg Reek II.

In the Midwest at the Illinois State Fair show held at Springfield on August 17th, Alva Rosenberg judged an entry of 13. Robert E. Stewart's Killeshandra Sandstorm went from the Puppy Dog class to Winners Dog and Best of Breed. He will not be a year old until November 24th, and is sired by Bramshire Blaze O'Glory ex Killeshandra Lady, and was bred by his owner. Winners Bitch and Best Opposite was another puppy, Edna DuBois' Merrie MacTweed. She is a homebred by Ch. Deephaven Fixed Asset ex Man Dee Mac R Thur, will be a year old on September 21st.
