Mandy the Scottie dog likes to manage everything that goes on in her household.
Imagine if she ruled
the world. . .

If Mandy ruled the world,

all the planes would fly on schedule.

If Mandy ruled the world,

all the trains would run on time.

If Mandy ruled the world,

everyone would get up at 7:00 a.m.
and go to bed at 10:30 p.m.

If Mandy ruled the world,

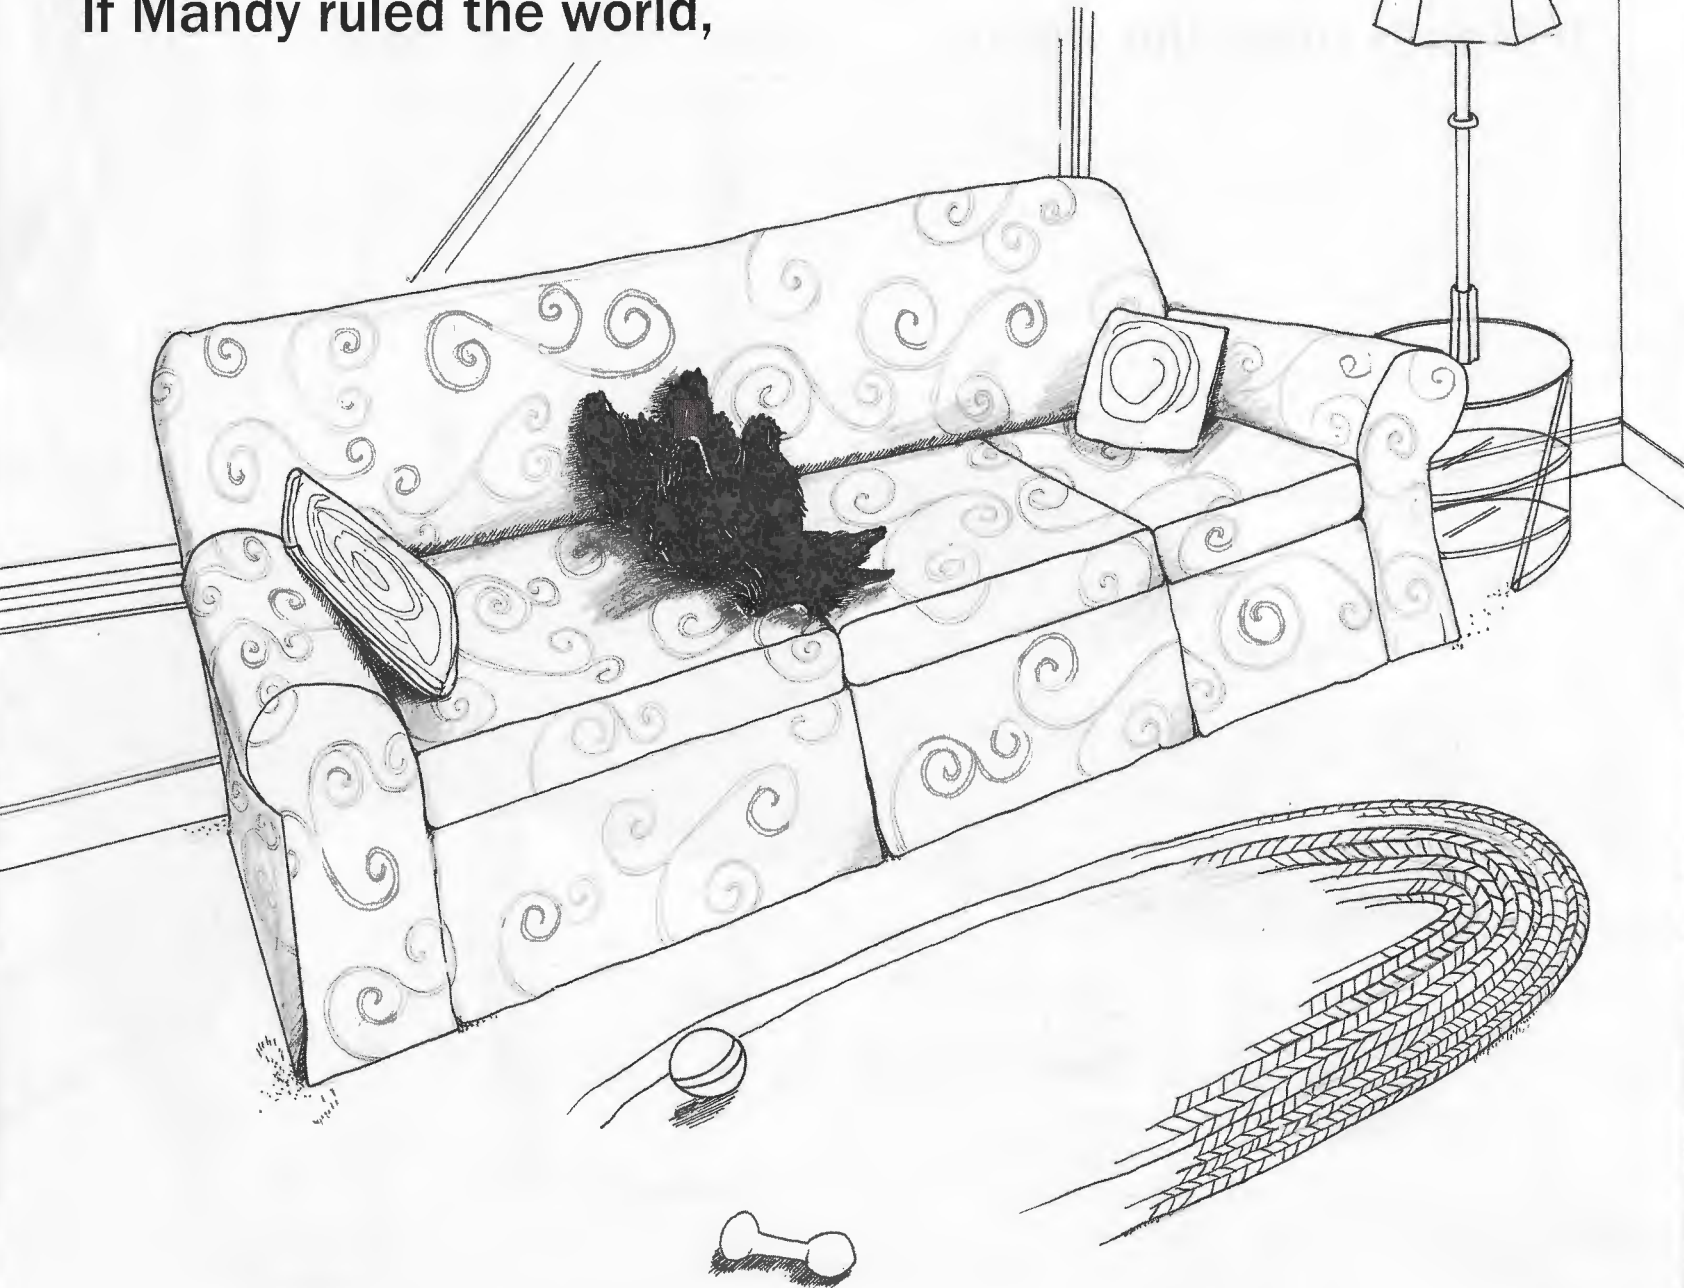

*meals would be served
at the same time every day.*

If Mandy ruled the world,

everyone would go for walks at 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

If Mandy ruled the world,

everyone would take naps after lunch.

If Mandy ruled the world,

everyone would play games. . .

and toys after naps.

If Mandy ruled the world,

everyone would take time to hug
other people in the family several times a day and tell each other they are beautiful.

If Mandy ruled the world,

everyone would be on time all the time, so that nobody had to wait on anybody for anything during the day, and there would be no need for clocks.

If Mandy ruled the world,

everyone would make gifts of themselves to others.

If Mandy ruled the world,

every President of the United States would have a Scottie dog in the White House to help him keep order and make wise decisions.

Mandy's way of doing things would make everyone
healthy and happy,

so the world would be a better place to live.

IF MANDY RULED THE WORLD

Ages 3-7

If Mandy Ruled The World is the fourth book in a series of children's stories by Edith S. Weigand. Her Scottish Terriers inspire these fables.

Mandy thinks she knows how the world should be ruled, and she may be right! In this fanciful little book, she describes how things would be done if she were allowed to reign beyond her own back yard.
